City Of Eastvale Considered Very Unique

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale – The City of Eastvale is considered unique to surrounding cities because their statistics are not like any other high income cities.

Out of 20 California cities with the highest annual median incomes, Eastvale has the highest percentage of Latino and black residents, according to U.S. Census Bureau data.

Eastvale also has a higher percentage of high-earning Latinos and African-Americans.

For years, the Inland region has attracted middle-class Latinos and African-Americans from Los Angeles and Orange counties, who are seeking larger homes than they could afford closer to the coast.

Experts have said that Latinos and blacks tend to move to well-off Inland suburbs, such as East-vale, because the houses are a better value than in coastal areas, schools are typically better, and crime is lower.

Of all the high-earning places in California, Eastvale is reported to be the most diverse. Eastvale is reportedly made up of 40 percent Latino, 24 percent Asian, 24 percent white,

Day To Day Operations At City Hall

By CAROL JACOBS,
CITY MANAGER

If you have ever been to City Hall, you will see that it is bustling with activity and there is a lot of staff to assist you. It is my goal to provide every one who comes in contact with City Hall the best possible customer service. One of the many reasons, Eastvale became a City was to provide better, more efficient services to the community.

Over the next several months, I would like to introduce you to each department in the City and describe their key roles and responsibilities. The City's organizational structure includes:

- City Council elected by the residents to set policy for the City.
- City Attorney, appointed by the City Council, provides legal counsel.
- City Manager, appointed by the City Council is responsible for implementing the policy of the City Council and running the day to day operations of the City.
- City Clerk who provides support to City Council and staff is responsible for agendas, minutes, public records requests and records management.
- Code Enforcement enforces all private property maintenance issues to ensure that the City is well maintained.
- Community Development is responsible for implementation of the General Plan, processing of land use applications and ensuring development is compatible and appropriate for its location.
- Finance Department is responsible for managing and reporting all financial transactions of the City.

- Public Works is responsible for maintenance of all infrastructure in the public right of way, the City's capital improvement program and building and safety.

- Eastvale Police Department is responsible for public safety.

- Fire Department is responsible for fire suppression, emergency medical response and fire protection.

Many residents have questioned why the City has hired so many employees over the last two years. As you can see from the list above, it is City staff that provides these services and they are critical to the success of the organization. However, the City has been extremely prudent and conservative in how it provides the services listed above. The City currently has 4 full-time employees, 3 part-time employees and 2 full-time vacancies. The rest of the staffing needs are fulfilled by contract employees through private consulting firms. Hiring these consulting firms during this time in the City's history allows us the flexibility to staff the peaks and the valleys according to the workload at City Hall.

There is no staff member within this organization who does not wear many hats. When the staff is small, each employee must perform multiple duties in order to get the job done. I am extremely proud of the staff that the City has assembled to serve this community, and I am confident that they will continue to provide a high level of service in 2013.

Should you have any questions or comments, City Hall may be reached at (951) 361-0900. City Hall office hours are Monday-Thursday from 7:30 am – 5:30 pm, closed every Friday. City Hall encourages all residents and visitors to register for e-notification on the City's website: www.Eastvale-CA.gov. This is a free email notification service that allows subscribers to receive emails from City Hall regarding the latest news, announcements, events, agendas, job posting, RFPs and more. Subscribers simply register their email address and choose which type of updates they would like to receive from City Hall. The City of Eastvale can also be found on Facebook and Twitter.

On behalf of the City Council and staff, we wish you a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year!

Cell Tower Update

CITY OF EASTVALE

Eastvale - City Hall has recently received several requests for a status update regarding the cell tower on Schleisman Avenue, as well as other future cell towers that are planned.

The water tower design inspired cell tower has been completed and received final building approval just recently. This project included not just the tower, but the building underneath the tower that will house all the equipment from the various service providers that are/will be leasing space on the tower.

Each tenant that is leasing space is now in the process of moving their equipment over to the new tower and testing the equipment. For proprietary and testing efficiency reasons, the service providers must complete this process one at a time. Once they are confident that their equipment is working correctly, they will power down their equipment on the old tower and power up the equipment on the new cell tower. The service providers estimate that this migration process will take them one week each to complete. Several service providers will be utilizing this tower to provide service to the immediate area. The list of providers includes: Nextel, T-Mobile, Sprint PCS, Verizon, and AT&T.

Assuming no additional delays for weather, the new cell tower should be up and running in January. Again, weather can cause delays in this process. Once the old tower is decommissioned, it can be taken down and the street improvements can be completed. The infrastructure improvement portion of the project is estimated to begin in the later part of the first quarter of 2013.

Two addition cell towers for Verizon were approved by the Eastvale Planning Commission on July 18, 2012. These towers are to be located at McCune Park and Harada

Heritage Park. The City issued building permits for the cell tower project at McCune Park on November 5, 2012, but the construction has not yet begun. The cell tower project at Harada Park is permit ready, but the corporation has not pulled the permits and therefore no construction can begin. In this situation, the construction process is up to the applicant (Verizon) and they contact the City for inspections at different stages of their construction process.

Please keep in mind that any number of things may delay the construction timetable and weather is the most probable construction delay at this time of the year.

Please feel free to contact City Hall at (951) 361-0900 should you have additional questions.

Eastvale considered very unique

and 9 percent black,

Experts say that fast-growing areas are more likely to be racially diverse than older cities that have the legacy of housing discrimination. These fast-growing areas are usually areas that built houses in the past decade on land where there were first dairy farms, such as Eastvale.

Of the 344 communities in California with 20,000 people or more, Eastvale has the 17th highest median household income, according to U.S. Census Bureau. These statistics are estimates from 2009-2011 and exclude less-populous cities because data from smaller places is less reliable.

Eastvale even has a higher median income than places that are nationally associated with what is classified as a rich community, such as Beverly Hills and Newport Beach.

However, there are few truly wealthy people in Eastvale. Eastvale doesn't have many mansions and it doesn't have fancy apartment buildings, let alone any apartment buildings. There are some mobile homes, but its streets are lined mostly with large, recently built houses and upscale townhouses. There aren't a collection of fancy boutiques selling expensive clothes and purses. Instead, restaurants and stores such as Staples, Target, McDonald's and Panda Express occupy the shopping centers in Eastvale.

Pastors' Corners

Quiet Down

By PASTOR ROB NORRIS

But Jesus Himself would often slip away to the wilderness to pray.

Luke 5:16

Did you know there are cultures in the world that don't have a word for "minute" or "hour"? They simply have no need or desire to measure time in such short increments. Nor do they attempt to maximize every second of every day. Filling their lives to the brink would be unthinkable.

Sound too third-worldish to you? Isn't it easy to see how such words are not necessary in places where people grow their own food and rarely venture beyond their own village?

I'm not suggesting that we all move into the woods and live off the land. But I am encouraging you to consider the benefits of pulling the throttle back just a notch and embracing a more contemplative lifestyle. When you allow yourself time for creative solitude, you can see God at work and begin to rediscover life in all its richness. When you give yourself the necessary time and space to seek clarity, gain perspective and ponder decisions, you find more to savor, enjoy and appreciate.

As I reflect on these two different approaches to life--the rushed and the restful--I force myself to ask, How did Jesus live? Was He frantic or steady? Was He checking the sundial every few minutes, wishing He could cut some time off His commute to the next city? Or was He able to stop and tend to the needs around Him?

Jesus had more pressure on Him than any of us can fathom. His own disciples were always peppering Him with questions. The Pharisees wanted Him dead. The crowds wanted Him king. Many pressed against Him, wanting to be healed.

Yet, He got alone to pray. To think. To be strengthened. He sought His Father and enjoyed Him in the quiet moments of life.

Live it

What is one thing you could change in 2013 in order to carve out more time to rest?

Pray

Ask the Lord to start you on a serious six-month quest toward a quieter heart. Let Him show you what could be eliminated to open up time with Him.

Blessings,
Pastor Rob

New Year, New You

By PASTOR MARK LEE

As we look back on 2012, there are probably some things upon which you look very fondly. There are probably a handful of things we wish we could change. Things we could have said different. Things we could have done different. That's why a lot of us make New Year's resolutions. Maybe you'd like to work less, play more, enjoy the view a little more in 2013? How many of us wouldn't like to be in a better financial position in the coming year?

The good news is that God has given us an automatic reboot button on life called days, and months and years. It's an opportunity to start over again and wipe the slate clean. The Apostle Paul captures this sentiment well in his letter to the Philippians 3:13-14 - But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. Deep down many of us instinctively understand those principles. After all, the New Year isn't about looking back.

It's about looking forward. It's about change, it's about opportunity.

This captures the concept poetically. I am the New Year. I am an unspoiled page in your book of time. I'm your next chance at the art of living. I'm the opportunity to practice what you've learned about for the past 12 months. All that you've sought but didn't find is hidden in me. All the good that you tried for but didn't achieve is mine to grant. All that you dreamed but didn't dare to do, all that you hoped but did not will, all the faith that you claimed but did not have, these slumber lightly waiting for you in the New Year.

VantagePoint Church meets at Roosevelt High School, Sundays at 9 & 10:45am. www.VantagePointChurch.org.

The Good Life?

By PASTOR STEVE LOO

So many people have told me, "If there is a God up there, I'm sure He will accept me by living a good life." Good works are like rungs on a ladder, and eventually you can climb high enough to reach heaven.

But have you ever laid awake at night, and asked yourself, "does my ladder theory really work?" Will God really forget about the bad things that I say and do, simply if I have done enough good things? How can I really know?" Most of us have not kept a running tab on our good deeds since birth. So you're faced with the nagging question, "Will God accept me... or not?"

The Bible slaps us with the reality that you can't climb up to heaven. The gap between you and God is impassable. It's like climbing an icy ladder in sub zero temperatures. You may inch up one or two rungs to try to be "acceptable" to God all your life, but eventually you'll slip and freeze to death.

But when every religion tells us to climb an icy ladder of good works, God Himself reached down and pulled our frozen figures off the ladder. In our place, He put Jesus Christ. Jesus' perfect life bridged the impasse, and brought us to God. He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy... whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior (Titus 3:5-6).

Christ is what distances Christianity from all other religions. When we could never be good enough, Christ - God's own gift of mercy for us - was indeed enough.

Pulling It Back Together

By PASTOR TIM EATON

The holiday season can be a great source of family time, connecting with old friends, slowing down just a bit. However, more often it means hectic times, too many places to be, and sometimes a little family drama. That can make the holidays anything but a joy. A great new years resolution might be to put the family back together.

During the Christmas season it is typical to spend more quality time with your children. But what about your spouse, did you give them enough time? That really is the most important relationship in our life - and it's worthy of the investment. If you experienced any in-law drama this Christmas they might need some attention. In fact, another great resolution is to give your spouse your undivided attention regularly. Your spouse will appreciate the romantic gesture. And that's what love is all about. Love is action. "This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers." - 1 John 3:16.

If you've lost that lovin' feeling, get a jump on the Valentine's season and make plans right now! Lay down all the things in your life that have put an end to your love and do something for the one you love. If you need help, drop the kids off at our Parent's Night Out Friday, February 15th, from 5pm to 9pm at Harada Elementary, and give the gift of time to the one you love.

"We provide the best curriculum available," said Dr. James Lin, Cambridge co-director. "If students do well at our school, they will get into good schools."

Lin, who is a Berkeley graduate, and co-director, Janet Yang, PhD, University of Southern California have been preparing young students in the Inland Empire for the next level of their educations for years.

"Our enrichment programs allow students to explore their potentials," said Lin. "We provide a good learning environment, curriculum and academics."

"We feel that many public and private schools are not doing enough to get their students to achieve their intellectual and academic potential for college," said Lin.

The school follows a standard September to June academic schedule where students come to study after their regular classes are over for the day.

One of the greatest advantages the school provides is a small class size, usually eight to 10 students per class, and a solid faculty, according to Lin.

"Our class size helps us better prepare students for their SAT prep test," said Lin.

The school teaches grades K – 12 and is broken up into the primary school, K – 4 and secondary school, 5 – 12.

The primary school focuses on English, Math, tutoring and competition preparation, while the secondary school concentrates on SATs, college prep, essay writing and AP classes.

Cambridge is part of a network of schools that have been preparing students for college for decades and thier newest school in Eastvale is now open, according to Lin.

"We have a school in Chino Hills that acts as our home office and we're ready to open in Eastvale," said Lin. "After that, we plan to open other schools in the area."

Whether your child is a gifted student who needs guidance and support to become the best among the best, or he or she is struggling in school and needs help to be back on track, Cambridge is certainly the place to go. The Cambridge Educational Institute is located on 7056 Archibald Avenue, Suite 105, Eastvale, Calif. 92880 and can be reached at (909) 606-0701.

The school's website, www.cambridgeinstitutes.com, is under construction and will be available shortly, according to Lin.

block of 37th Street. The driver got out of the vehicle and ran away, but was later detained.

Luis Enrique Covarrubias, 32, of Riverside, was immediately arrested. The car that Covarrubias was driving was identified as a car stolen from the City of Eastvale.

Covarrubias contained methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia on him, according to a Riverside County Sheriff news release. In the vehicle, deputies found burglary tools, fictitious checks and numerous items of stolen mail, checks, credit cards, Social Security checks and identification cards from throughout Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

Covarrubias was booked into the Riverside Robert Presley Detention Center on suspicion of vehicle theft, resisting arrest, possession of burglary tools, receiving stolen property, petty theft, a probation violation and drug-related offenses. His bail was set at $30,000, according to local reports.

This investigation is ongoing and deputies are currently attempting to identify additional victims of theft. The Sheriff's Department is asking anyone with information to contact the Jurupa Valley Station at 951-955-2600.

Norco Navy Base Requests Proposals For Food Service Concession

STAFF REPORTS

Norco – The Navy is requesting proposals to establish and operate a food service concession to serve some 1,400 sailors, Navy civilians and support contractors working at Naval Weapons Station Seal Beach Detachment Norco, home of the Naval Surface Warfare Center, Corona Division. The Naval Exchange Service Command, administering the proposal, says the on-base concession has the potential for up to $300,000 in annual sales.

Naval installation director Anthony Winicki said the request for proposals is in response to employee surveys asking for more variety than what is now being offered in vending machines at the base canteen, adding that it will complement local restaurants in the community where employees frequently visit.

NSWC Corona Commanding Officer Capt. Eric Ver Hage said he welcomes having an onsite food provider available to his 1,400 personnel.

"Having a food concession onsite allows my employees more options and greater convenience when they're not able to leave the base," Ver Hage said. "Most go to their favorite restaurants in the local community and will continue to do so. But we're hoping this will bring a popular local vendor to them here, so when they're schedules are tighter, or when they didn't have a chance to bring something from home, they'll be able to get something really good right here on base."

The base has two possible sites at the former 1930s luxury resort and World War II Naval hospital that can be renovated for the food facility. The smallest is the existing canteen, a 475-square-foot area, and the other is 1,200 square foot area inside the larger auditorium building, where legendary USO entertainer Bob Hope frequently visited to support patients recovering at the hospital. The contractor is responsible for any renovation costs and furnishings.

The RFP can be obtained by contacting Navy Exchange Service Command and requesting the document for NNA 250-12-R-0077. Information may be obtained by contacting Heather Reynolds at 757-631-3589 or heather.reynolds@nexweb.org. Deadline for submitting the RFP is Jan. 14, 2013.

Project Playhouse Pet Edition Event Raises Nearly $5,000

STAFF REPORTS

Riverside - The ooohs and ahhs over the eight custom-built pet houses were just slightly drowned out by the happy yelps of 10 adoptable dogs who found homes at the first Project Playhouse Pet Edition fundraising event held recently at the Eastvale Gateway Shopping Center.

More than 250 people attended the pet house raffle and auction, pet walk and pet adoption event, and nearly $5,000 was raised to increase the Homeless Shelter Development Fund for HomeAid Inland Empire.

"We couldn't be happier with the turnout for our first Project Playhouse Pet Edition event," said Ray Osborne, Executive Director of HomeAid Inland Empire. "The eight pet houses were a sight to see, from the meticulously-designed California mission-style dog house built by Pardee Homes to the appropriately named 'Hang Two Paws Hawaiian Surf Shack' by the Cal Baptist Construction Management team," Osborne noted.

"The enthusiastic response from everyone who participated in the event helped us raise a significant amount of money to continue to work with our various service provider partners to renovate quality shelter facilities to temporarily house homeless individuals and families in San Bernardino and Riverside counties," added Osborne. "We sincerely appreciate the outstanding support of the building industry and our corporate partners, as well as the general public, who are helping us fulfill our mission to assist people who are homeless in the Inland Empire."

HomeAid Inland Empire's nine current service provider partners, including Olive Crest, Operation SafeHouse, Path of Life Ministries, Mary's Mercy Center/Veronica's Home of Mercy, Foothill Family Shelter, Inland Empire Rescue Mission, Project T.O.U.C.H., Family Assistance Program Our House Youth Shelter, and the Children's Fund of San Bernardino County, will all benefit from the proceeds raised from the pet house raffle that was held as part of the Project Playhouse Pet Edition event, with 40% of the revenue from the raffle ticket sales going to the various service providers.

In addition to the raffle and auction of the eight custom built pet houses, more than 10 dogs were adopted from various local animal rescue and adoption agencies at the event.

The event was sponsored by U.S. Bank, Gothic Landscape, Mary's Mercy Center, Fusion Sign & Design, Envoy Mortgage, T-Mobile, RBF Consulting, Developers Edge, Community Design Group, T&B Planning, iMortgage, the Lewis Group of Companies and Eastvale Gateway Shopping Center. In addition, Driver SPG, Pardee Homes, KB Home, Crestwood Communities, McKendall Construction, Paul A. Peck & Associates Engineers, the San Joaquin Valley College (SJVC) Rancho Cucamonga Campus Construction Management Club, the California Baptist University Construction Management Club, the Home Builder Institute (HBI) C-core program, and the Riverside County and Baldy View

Building Industry Association (BIA) chapters were all involved with building the pet houses.

DUI/ driver's license checkpoint results

est safety for officers and the public.

Officers observed drivers passing through the checkpoint looking for signs of alcohol and/or drug impairment. Drivers caught driving impaired can expect jail, license suspension, and insurance increases, as well as fines, fees, DUI classes, court probation and other expenses that can exceed $10,000.

This DUI/Driver's License checkpoint was an effort to reduce the number of community members injured or killed on local roadways by impaired drivers, as well as ensuring drivers have a valid driver's license. A major component of these checkpoints is to increase awareness of the dangers of impaired driving and to encourage sober designated drivers.

According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), checkpoints have provided the most effective documented results of any of the DUI enforcement strategies, while also yielding considerable cost savings of $6 for every $1 spent.

Funding for Avoid the 30 operations is provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

For additional information, the Eastvale Traffic Division may be reached at

(951) 955-2600 and the Eastvale Police Department may be reached at (951) 955-2600.

Facebook crime recap

Target located in the Eastvale Gateway Shopping Center at 12471 Limonite Avenue. Thomas Robert Johnston, 50, of Indio was arrested around 11:30 a.m. Saturday after deputies say they spotted him behaving suspiciously near the outlet.

When deputies questioned him and learned he was on probation, the suspect was searched. Deputies found several stolen items from the store in his clothing and a machete tucked down his pants. The items were returned and Johnston was taken to the Robert Presley Jail in Riverside. He faces burglary, possession of stolen property, possession of a weapon, and probation violation charges.

On December 14, we posted an ABC7 report about the shooting in Newtown, Connecticut.

On December 17, we posted about an Eastvale homeowner who chased down an attempted burglar. This post received 111 Likes and 16 comments. We also provided the community with a picture of the attempted burglar. Read this full story above.

Jerry Case commented on this post stating that during his fifth year of living in Eastvale, his home was burglarized between 1:45 p.m. and 2 p.m. He let the community know that this burglary happened off Linnea St. and Summer and that he has the burglary on surveillance video from the neighbor. John Briones also commented on this post stating that his home was broken into and valuables were taken a couple of weeks prior. He wondered if the suspect caught was the same burglar that broke into his home. He stated that there was more than one person who burglarized his home, but he was hoping the other burglars would be scared off when they saw that one was caught.

On Dec. 22, we decided to post recent crimes that happened in Chino Hills to help inform Eastvale residents that crime is happening everywhere. During the past month, the Chino Hills Police Department has identified an increase in residential burglaries in the south end of the City of Chino Hills. The area near Soquel Canyon Road and Butterfield Ranch Road, south to Highway 71 has suffered the highest increase. There have not been any reports of suspicious subjects near the locations where the burglaries have occurred, and it is possible the suspect(s) "fit in" the neighborhood.

On Dec. 27, we posted that Eastvale Police Department would be conducting a DUI/Driver's License Checkpoint on December 29, 2012, from 8 p.m. until 3 a.m. within the City of Eastvale. You can read the results of the DUI Checkpoint on page 1.

On Dec. 29, we posted about an Eastvale Public Safety Announcement that reminds the community not to fire guns into the air on New Year's Eve. The Riverside County Sheriff's Department wanted to make sure the public remembered that stray bullets have been known to penetrate walls, roofs, and cars, injuring and killing innocent people. Sheriff's enforced a Zero-Tolerance Policy regarding the negligent discharge of a firearm on New Year's Eve. Individuals found discharging firearms would be arrested and could face felony charges, punishable by incarceration in the state prison.

On Dec. 31, we posted a video about drunk driving to remind residents not to drink and drive on New Year's Eve.

VALVOLINE TRANSMISSION SERVICE

$159⁹⁵

MUST PRESENT COUPON TO GET THIS PRICE

SERVICE NEEDED: After 30,000 miles, transmission fluid begins to turn brown in color and oxidize due to the contamination of time and heat. Deposits form around the transmission's many moving parts. As a result, valves stick and gears slip or are sluggish and chatter as they shift.

SOLUTION: Rather than just draining the contaminated fluid found in the bottom of the pan, special equipment cleans the entire transmission and its torque converter, while new fluid and premium conditioner are added. One of the hardest working parts of your vehicle will shift smoothly and effortlessly for many more trouble-free miles.

Most vehicles. No additional discounts apply. Synthetic transmission fluid extra. Redeem at Mountain View Tire location. See store for complete details. Expires 1/31/13
