Walnut Mayor Announces Retirement

Mayor Tom King

By SARAH ARMIJO

Walnut – At the City Council meeting on Wed, June 12, Walnut Mayor Tom King announced his retirement, which will be effective July 1.

King's announcement to leave the Council, as well as the City, came as a shock to everyone in the crowd, including the other council members.

King's only reason for leaving is because he is moving out of town, according to the City Clerk Teresa De Dios. King said that he and his wife decided to move to a smaller house out of town and leave his beautiful one-acre property for another family to enjoy.

King has been a huge part of the Walnut community for 16

Small Businesses Continue To Close

By KIMBERLEY SANDER

SGV – Unfortunately, small businesses in the surrounding area are continuing to close.

Bella Napoli Trattoria & Pizza recently shut its doors due to a health and safety violation. The restaurant, located at Valley Blvd. and Grand Ave. in Walnut, received a Notice of Closure posted on its doors from the Los Angeles County Public Health Department.

Specific health code violations at the Trattoria are not known, but the City of Walnut stated that the owner's had recently sold the business.

A new pizza establishment is coming soon to that same location. Pieology, an Orange County-based franchise, is in the planning stages to open its doors in Walnut. If you're not familiar with Pieology, their website states they have a corporate mission of “Making the world a better place one pizza at a time.” They

A team from VantagePoint Church in Eastvale has gathered together and committed to travel to Haiti for 10 days to help the Haitian people in any way they can. This VantagePoint Church Missions Team is partnering with the organization Imperial

Walnut Valley Enrolling K-8 Home School Program

BY KELLI GILE

Walnut —The Walnut Valley Unified School District is now enrolling Home School Program Kindergarten through eighth grade students for the 2013-2014 school year.

The WVUSD Home School Program utilizes an independent study model for homeschooling families. The instructional curriculum is aligned with the Walnut Valley Unified School District's course of study and instructional calendar, as well as the standards and frameworks developed by the California Department of Education.

When a student is enrolled in WVUSD Home School, the home educator is provided with all textbooks, workbooks and teacher's editions necessary for home education.

The home educator is also given a curriculum guide, which maps out the course of study for every subject each school month. This curriculum guide is flexible, based upon the needs of the student.

WVUSD Home School combines strong educational curriculum with personalized instructional support. The program enables students to continue their education in a homeschooling setting by entering into an independent study contract.

A fully-credentialed WVUSD teacher is assigned to each homeschooled student and provides support to the homeschooling family. WVUSD Home School is a public school which is guided by both the California Education Codes and the Walnut Valley Unified School District's Board Policies.

WVUSD is a 909 API District!

For the third consecutive year, WVUSD has topped the 900 API mark. We are proud to be among only eight unified school districts in L.A. County to achieve this distinction.

Be a part of the winning team! Walnut Valley has a long-standing tradition of excellence with numerous national and state awards.

Please call Margaret Nolde in the WVUSD Pupil Services Department at (909) 595-1261 ext. 31360 for additional program information.

NEWS RELEASE

Walnut—Dr. Irene Malmgren, vice president of academic affairs at Citrus College, has been named Mt. San Antonio College's new vice president of instruction, effective July 1.

"Dr. Malmgren is an excellent choice for Mt. SAC," said President & CEO Dr. Bill Scroggins. "She brings a wealth of senior leadership experience in both academics and administration, which will benefit our students and the college overall going forward."

As chief instructional officer, Malmgren will oversee the largest division of the college and all of its instructional programs and services, including seven academic divisions and a workforce of 2,100 full- and part-time faculty, deans, managers, and staff. Pimps caught ment for crime-bail-crime, indicating that the defendants were out of custody on bail for another felony (2010 residential burglary case) at the time of the crime. If convicted, both defendants face a maximum sentence of nine years and four months in state prison. Gillard is out of custody on bail and his arraignment is to be determined. The People requested $250,000 bail at Scally's arraignment on Monday.

An additional accomplice, Christopher Robert Butler, 28, Moreno Valley, is charged with one felony count each of possession of a controlled substance and smuggling a controlled substance into a correctional facility. He faces a maximum sentence of four years and eight months in state prison if convicted. Butler's bail is to be determined and he is expected to be arraigned today, Monday, June 17, 2013, in Department CJ-1, Central Jail, Santa Ana. The time is to be determined.

Scally is accused of being a pimp who exploited two young women for financial gain. Gillard is accused of being an aider and abettor to Scally. Pimps often establish rigid rules that their victims are expected to follow including setting daily quotas that the victims are expected to fulfill. Scally is accused of setting a $300 quota for at least one of his victims on the night of the crime.

At approximately 4 a.m. on June 14, 2013, the defendants are accused of driving together in Santa Ana around Harbor Boulevard in an area known to law enforcement to be high in prostitution and pimping activity. Gillard is accused of driving, Butler is accused of riding in the front passenger seat, and Scally is accused of riding in the back seat with two victims, ages 18 and 19 years old, who worked as prostitutes for Scally.

The defendants are accused of dropping off the victims on the street, where one of the victims proceeded to get into the vehicle of a sex purchaser. Undercover police officers from SAPD observed this behavior and performed a traffic stop on both the defendants' and sex purchaser's vehicles.

Butler is accused of being in possession of .4 grams of cocaine when contacted by the officers. Scally is accused of possessing evidence of pimping related to at least one of the victims. The defendants were arrested at the scene. Butler is accused of being in possession of an additional .7 grams of cocaine concealed on him when he was booked in the jail.

This case was investigated by SAPD and Deputy District Attorney Daniel Varon of the Human Exploitation And Trafficking (HEAT) Unit is prosecuting this case.

Contribute to help those in need

Valley – Hope For Haiti and is traveling from July 19th to July 28th to assist with the ongoing construction of an orphanage and to minister to the Haitian people of that region.

However, this team needs the help of the community in order to help the people of Haiti. The team invites you to partner with them through your prayers and financial support. The cost of this Missions trip is $1,600 per person and any size contribution is greatly appreciated!

Living in a fast-paced lifestyle, sometimes we believe that if we physically can't help someone in person, then there's nothing we can do to help those around the world. But, teams like the VantagePoint Haiti Missions Team are ready to travel in honor of those who physically can't go to Haiti. So partnering financially means you will be represented by the team who can go; you will be a part of this team.

There are three ways you can partner with this team financially:

1) You can send your contribution to their team leaders to be placed in our VantagePoint Haiti

Fund. All contributions should be made out to: VantagePoint Church (Haiti Mission) and sent to Brett and Marta Gibson. All contributions are tax deductible. Please call 714.257.1484 for more information.

2) You can go to their Shotgun "Sporting Clay" Shootout Fundraiser this Sunday, June 23 from 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Mike Raahauge Shooting Enterprises (14995 River Rd. in Corona). The cost is $45 per person or $80 for two family members. The price includes safety briefing, ear plugs, 50 shells of ammo, 50 sporting clay targets, and a shotgun to use (if you have your own shotgun, we encourage you to bring it). Each participant will shoot at 5 clay targets from 10 different shooting stations. Prizes go to the top shooters. A $6 lunch will be available for purchase as well. Please RSVP by calling Brett at 714.308-4056 or email at brett.gibson@sbc-global.net.

3) You can go to their Garden Tea Fundraiser on Saturday, June 29 at 11 am. The event will be held at 842 Elkridge St. in Brea. The cost of the tea is a $30 donation with all proceeds going toward the VPC Haiti Team Fund. Please RSVP by calling Marta at 714.257.1484.

If you are unable to partner financially, the team would love if you partner through your prayers. They ask to please pray for safe travel, good health, ability to complete the task before them and that their actions may be living proof of our loving God.

If you would like to follow this team on our journey of helping the Haitians, you can also follow their Facebook page (www.facebook.com/VantagePointHaiti). They will be posting a blog and pictures while they're in Haiti, so you can see exactly how you've helped them to help others in need.

County budget approved

available for public view at www.sbcounty.gov.

The budget reflects the County's efforts to cope with the ongoing impact of the downturn in the economy. It also addresses future needs in infrastructure by investing in the repair and maintenance of roads, buildings and essential systems to avoid higher costs in the future.

"The County is committed to making the most of its funding to provide necessary public services in an effective and efficient manner and fulfilling its role in the achievement of the Countywide Vision," said the County's Chief Executive Officer, Gregory C. Devereaux.

"Despite the ongoing effects of the economic downturn, the County budget is balanced and incorporates major investments in key priorities, including road maintenance, public safety, and efforts to streamline the County's land use approval processes," Board of Supervisors Chair Janice Rutherford said.

Highlights of the 2013-14 budget include:

- A $155.1 million increase in the 2013-14 budget's General Fund will go toward operational groups such as Human Services and Law and Justice to address state funded needs in welfare, employment services, foster care, and state prison realignment. A portion of the increase is to cover rising retirement costs in Law and Justice groups. Staffing is up by 366 positions in those departments as caseloads continue to grow along with the demands of implementing the Affordable Care Act and 2011 Realignment.

- The County is planning to revitalize the County Government Center campus and County office buildings and will allocate $4.5 million to acquire existing office space near the Victorville Courthouse.

- $700,000 for a one-time purchase of new permitting software for Land Use Services allowing interfacing with Public Works and County Fire.

- $360,000 is allocated for medical marijuana enforcement in the County.

- $7 million for road and drainage improvements.

- Continued funding for the Sheriff/Coroner/Public Administrator's aviation operations move from Rialto Airport to San Bernardino International Airport (SBIA) and the Sheriff's Crime Lab expansion.

- Cost-savings resulting from agreements with the unions that represent various groups of County employees are projected to continue. Of the $4.4 billion total budget, the County has discretion over the distribution of $499 million. The rest of the money is mandated and controlled by state and federal law. The budget supports the Countywide Vision; measures progress on attainment of the Board's goals and objectives, allocates resources to core responsibilities, and invests in infrastructure, facilities and basic operating systems.

The County's budgets have been honored by the Government Finance Officers Association for seven years in a row as among the best in North America in terms of their clarity and completeness. The County of San Bernardino's award-winning budgets can be viewed at the County website, www.sbcounty.gov/cao/. The site includes recommended and final budgets dating back to 2001-02, as well as archived news releases, goals and objectives established by the Board of Supervisors, and the County Organizational Chart.

Straight Talk With Danice

DEAR DANICE,

My ex husband is supposed to pick up our nine year old daughter every other weekend. About half the time, he doesn't show up or call. He always has an excuse that he had to work late or he was sick, or he had car problems. This is hurting her. She wonders if she said or did something wrong. I don't want to cause any problems; I just don't want to see my daughter doubting herself. I think this will eventually affect her self esteem. What should I say to help her?

Cathy

Dear Cathy,
Tell your daughter how important it is to keep agreements in life. Help her notice that some people have problems with this concept, including her dad. Help her see that it never has anything to do with her, but that some people just have poor manners. Then let your ex husband know that he has a one hour grace period when he is supposed to pick up your daughter. If he doesn't show up, carry on with your evening and do something pleasant to distract her from feeling it has anything to do with her. You are obviously divorced from this man, so do not let him take up space by causing any bad feelings in your household. Please always find a way to push through to the healthiest choice for you and your daughter. The rewards will show up later.

Go The Extra Mile (Part 2)

By MARK HOPPER

In a previous article, I shared that a friend of mine walked the entire LA Marathon. He trained and walked for weeks to prepare for the grueling 26 mile course from LA to Santa Monica. And, did I tell you he is over 70 years old? He really did walk a lot of miles!

The phrase "Go the extra mile" is actually found in the Bible. In Matthew 5:41 Jesus said, "Whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two".

In Bible times, a Roman soldier could force a person into service. But, they could only require someone to carry his baggage or equipment one mile.

Remember when Jesus was going to his own execution, the Roman soldiers forced Simon of Cyrene to carry Jesus' cross (Matthew 27:32)? Soldiers could force common people into service for one mile.

But, Jesus said that we should "go the extra mile". We should do more than we are required. Do more than we are expected.

We often used this phrase with our children as they were growing up. We wanted them to know it was important to work hard and do more than they were required. At school, at work and at home, we wanted to "go the extra mile".

Focusing On The Good In Your Life

By NANCY STOOPS

We all have stories about our imperfect lives and childhoods. Many of us have survived tragedy and horrific events. There are many times where life seems to test us and just feels very hard and overwhelming. These are the times we have a hard time seeing all the good we have in our lives.

love you? Do you have a family? Do you a job, a roof over your head, and food to eat? Do you have a best friend that would do anything for you? Are you here today reading this article, which would mean you are still alive? If you answer yes to these questions, then there is still hope for you. You see, just right now you have been able to see the good in your life. Wow, look how lucky we are and it's just about focusing on the good in our lives.

Alright, so maybe you have a very different life than you had planned. Our lives very rarely work out as planned and many times end up even better. Think about all that you have been able to do and become and all the people you have been able to influence in a good way. I think if we focus on the good in our lives we can't help but grow into who we are intended to be. When we become who we are intended to be, our lives just don't get any better and each day is heavenly!

Walnut Mayor Tom King to retire years. He was first elected to the Walnut City Council in 2002 and served twice as Mayor from July 2005 to September 2006. He was reappointed Mayor by the City Council on November 25th, 2009 for the third time and on April 24, 2013 for his fourth time. From 1999 to 2002 he served on the Planning Commission and served on the Parks and Recreation Commission from 1993-1999. He also chaired both Commissions prior to his election to the City Council.

At the June 12 Council meeting, many council members and members of the community shared their memories with King and thanked him for all the work he's done in the City of Walnut. King told the crowd that he still plans to stay close to the City.

Now that King will be retiring, the Council has three options:

have a special election, appoint someone to his seat, or keep the seat vacant, according to Management Analyst/Public Information Officer Fabiola Huerta.

Huerta said she isn't sure which option the Council is leaning towards, but she said the Council will discuss what they believe the Council should do, since special elections usually cost a lot of money.

The next City Council meeting will be held on June 26 at 7 p.m.

at the Council Chambers in the new City Hall located at 21201 La Puente Road.

Alamo Car Wash one-stop shop

trying to get all of this done, or you could get it all done at one stop: Alamo Car Wash and Detail Center.

Dan Gerstner and his wife, Sylvia, opened Alamo 18 years ago, and they have run the business with a simple philosophy ever since.

"Our philosophy is to always have satisfied customers. We want them to be satisfied with what we do here, and 99.9 percent of the time, they are," Gerstner said.

Situated in a four-acre complex at the corner of Nogales and Francesca Drive in Walnut, Alamo features a hand car wash, a Mobil gas station and an Xpress Lube oil change center, as well as a number of shops, which the Gerstners rent mostly to automotive-related businesses, but also include restaurants, beauty salons, a dentist's office, a locksmith and a bookkeeping service.

"We even have a shoeshine guy. It's really a one-stop shop," Gerstner said.

The car wash offers full-service hand car washes and detailing, which include waxing, buffing and interior cleaning, as well as an express wash for people on the go.

"We have a new service we started a year ago—the express exterior wash. It only takes five minutes and the customer stays in the car as it goes through the tunnel where it gets hand washed. It's for people who are in a hurry," he explained.

Asked why people should visit

Alamo instead of other area car washes, Gerstner said, "I don't know what other car washes do, but I know what we do. We're very picky about service and the little details. And usually, when the car comes out, it's cleaner than it's ever been."

Package washes are popular, Gerstner said, especially the Silver Package Wash. It includes an air freshener, sealer wax, polish wax, rainbow wax, clear coat sealant and Armor-All on the car's tires.

Inside the brightly-decorated car wash, you can watch your car as it goes through the tunnel; get a massage in a leather massage chair, listen to the sound of tropical birds chirping, pick up a gift or card in the gift shop.

"If people need something at the last minute, like greeting cards, we have a wide selection they can choose from while they're waiting for their car. We also carry just about any kind of auto accessories you might need," Gerstner said.

Alamo's oil change service is also extremely popular.

"Our quick lube service is very complete. We do the complete maintenance service for the car—transmission, power steering, brake fluid, the cooling system and fuel emissions service—we do the whole maintenance package for your car, and that's why our quick lube service is so popular," Gerstner said. Plus, oil change customers receive a free car wash.

Gerstner admits that Alamo is not the cheapest place to have your car washed or serviced, but maintains that the services they offer make them competitive with just about anybody else.

"We offer a higher level of service than many other places, and that's why we've been so successful. People love their car—their car is like their baby, and it's unbelievable how some of them treat their cars. We see customers who come in twice a week, and their cars look clean, but they still want them washed here," he explained.

If you want to see the difference in the way Alamo Car Wash and Detail Center can make your car look and run, visit them at 784 N. Nogales Street in Walnut. For more information, including business hours, call them at (626) 965-7922.

Another recent business closure is Christy's Donuts & Ice Cream, located on Brea Canyon Road in Diamond Bar. CitySearch.com lists it as "Reported Closed", but their building is vacated and their number has been disconnected.

Bob's Big Boy on Golden Springs Drive in Diamond Bar is also looking to save itself from closing by initiating a petition to make the building an historical landmark. Owner James Tsai feels like their landlords are trying to force them out of the location they have been at for over 30 years.

Sometimes business turnover can stimulate the economy by making way for new companies to invest and grow in the community, and sometimes it's a sad nod to the state of the economy. Whatever the reason, it does pay to shop and dine locally, and let the businesses you enjoy remain a thing of the present.

cal capacity of 4,500 megawatts, providing power for three million homes.

The City of Chino Hills, in a press release from June 11, stated that the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) recently issued two contrasting proposed decisions. The first issue is the proposed decision by CPUC Administrative Law Judge, Jean Vieth, to lift the stay on construction of the partially completed overhead lines in Chino Hills. This would allow the lines to be completed as approved in 2009. While the underground lines have a high cost to rate-payers, the proposed route of the overhead lines are close to homes, schools and parks in some areas of the project.

The second issue, coming from Commission President Michael Peevey, is an alternate decision that would approve the undergrounding proposal of the City of Chino Hills, including a 3.5 mile single circuit of cables that would be buried in concrete four to six feet underground within the existing SCE right-of-way. Transition stations would be built at the western and eastern ends of the line to connect them to the remainder of the overhead lines. The alternate decision has a cost of $224 million associated with it, but the current burden imposed the Commission during the oral arguments on June 26, evidencing the environmentally superior choice of undergrounding and the elimination of the negative impacts overhead lines have on the community, including health and safety, aesthetics, noise and property value concerns.

The full Commission will determine which decision becomes effective following a vote at a CPUC meeting scheduled for July 11.

International School Of Montessori

"Our philosophy is to have a curriculum based on the child," says Director Pushpa De Silva. "We have individually created it to suit each child with a staff that is warm and dedicated to the children."

The program is equipped and staffed to give the best possible care to these children. The experienced teachers provide a service that has grown out of sincere love for the children and a desire to help them in the proper development and adjustment.

"We are proud that most of our students attain skills comparable to children in the second grade when they graduate from our Montessori Kindergarten Program," says Office Manager Ann Chau.

Their aim is to provide a developmentally safe environment that allows the children to develop socially, emotionally, intellectually and physically towards their full potential.

The International School of Montessori provides children the freedom to learn at their own pace in an atmosphere of respect and understanding of individual differences.

"We have highly qualified experienced teachers, a disciplined program developed over the years, and we create a fun atmosphere that gives children the self-motivation to enjoy learning," says Chau.

They encourage children to experience the joy of learning and the intrinsic satisfaction through creative use of attractive self-correcting materials and activities. It is a combination of all these things that allows The International School of Montessori to offer the most advanced preschool curriculum in Walnut.

"The loving environment and experienced teachers makes a difference," says De Silva. "Any one can have a huge, beautiful building, but the teachers make a difference. It's not academic only, we focus on the child as a whole."

Bus Stop Signs Attract Buyers' Calls "Open Houses to Maximize Exposure of your Home!"

Gilbert,
We want to thank you for the very efficient and professional manner in how you handled the listing and sale of our daughter's townhouse in Hampton Court in Diamond Bar, CA. Your knowledge of the local market and your advice to us on the listing and sale procedures resulted in a successful sale. You are easy to do business with and we really appreciate your promptness in returning our calls whenever we had a question. We were also impressed with your using all the latest communication systems from FAX, cell phone, Texting, and E-mail to get the job done in a timely manner. This is our 3rd business experience with you including the purchase of Cheryl's condo in Ontario, Debbie's reappraisal of her townhouse, and now the sale of the townhouse. Obviously, we are very satisfied customers. Continued good luck with your real estate business in a very competitive environment. Hope we have the opportunity to cross trails again some day.

Sincerely, Al & Dorene M.
