New Call-Back Program At Eastvale Schools

CITY OF EASTVALE

Eastvale - On Monday, August 5, 2013, Corona Norco Unified School District (CNUSD) began Phase I of a two phase call back program for students who have been placed in "overload" schools in the past years. Phase I will begin with approximately 115 children returning to their home school, Clara Barton Elementary, and 29 children returning to their home school, Rosa Parks Elementary, who had previously had been attending

"overload" schools such as VanderMolen Elementary, Harada Elementary and schools in the City of Norco.

Getting To Know L.E.A.F.F.

BY: JENNIFER MADRIGAL

Eastvale - The City of Eastvale is home to the only organization of Law Enforcement and Firefighters in the entire nation. Law enforcement AND Fire Fighters (L.E.A.F.F.) is a group founded in April of 2010 by local Law Enforcement and Fire Fighters who wanted to ensure that Eastvale remained a great place to live. According to L.E.A.F.F. President, Rigo Arrelano, "We run our organization like a union with a President, a VP and a Board to ensure that everything runs smoothly."

In 2010, the estimated number

A Multi-Faceted Approach to Dealing with a Problem

By CAROL JACOBS

Since incorporation, the City Council has made Eastvale a great place to live, work and play. However no City is without its problems, concerns and issues. What makes a City great is how the problems are resolved. Your City Council and staff are committed to addressing problems head on in an effort to resolve the problem on a permanent basis.

Carol Jacobs: City Manager of Eastvale.

This fact is most evident in the City Council's aggressive stance against marijuana Grow Houses. This problem has not been created by the City, but by a variety of factors that include: the local and national economy, the housing crisis, freeway access, absentee property owners, and the large homes in Eastvale. This perfect storm has created an atmosphere where individuals believe that they can illegally grow marijuana in residential homes and get away with it. Nothing could be further from the truth. In late June, the City issued a press release on our Zero Tolerance Policy on Marijuana Grow Houses. This effort is headed up by the City's Police department, the City Attorney, Code Enforcement, Southern California Edison and most importantly YOU, the residents of Eastvale.

In August, the City Council will be considering two ordinances designed to combat illegal grow houses. The first is the Renter's Ordinance which will require property owners and renters to inspect and maintain their property. The second Ordinance requires all rental properties to be registered with the City. This will allow the City to determine which homes in Eastvale are rentals and those may be checked on a regular basis to ensure compliance with the law. It has been the City's experience that all of the marijuana grow houses have been rental properties.

In addition, the City will be working closely with Southern California Edison to identify homes which may be stealing electricity. The City will be using all existing Drug Abatement Laws to prosecute those who violate the law.

Finally, if you missed it, on Friday, July 19, 2013, the City held its Neighborhood Watch Kick-Off Event. The event had over 200 residents in attendance and the City had 25 concerned residents take action by signing up to be a Block Captain. If you want to make a difference in your neighborhood, please contact City Hall and we will be happy to assist you with starting your own Neighborhood Watch Program.

Should you have any questions or comments, City Hall may be reached at (951) 361-0900. City Hall office hours are Monday-Thursday from 7:30 am – 5:30 pm, closed every Friday. City Hall encourages all residents and visitors to register for e-notification on the City's website: www.EastvaleCA.gov. This is a free email notification service that allows subscribers to receive emails from City Hall regarding the latest news, announcements, events, agendas, job posting, RFPs and more. Subscribers simply register their email address and choose which type of updates they would like to receive from City Hall. The City of Eastvale can also be found on Facebook and Twitter.

Did YOU Know?

According to Municipal Code Section Sec. 10.04.140. – Abandoned Vehicles, (a) It is unlawful for any person to abandon, park, store, or leave, or permit the abatement, parking, storing or leaving of any licensed or unlicensed vehicle or part thereof, which is in an abandoned, wrecked, dismantled or inoperative condition, upon any private or public property within the city for a period in excess of ten days unless such vehicle is stored or parked in a lawful manner on private property in connection with the business of a licensed dismantler, licensed dealer or city-approved junkyard. Any individual violating any provision of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of an infraction or misdemeanor as hereinafter specified. Such individual shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day or portion thereof during which any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter is committed, continued, or permitted. Any individual convicted of a violation of this chapter:

(1) Shall be guilty of an infraction offense and punished by a fine not exceeding:

- a. $100 for the first violation;
- b. $200 for a second violation on the same site perpetrated by the same individual.

(2) The third or any additional violations on the same site and perpetrated by the same individual shall constitute a misdemeanor offense and shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000 or six months in jail or both.

For more information about the Abandoned Vehicle Code, please visit the Municipal Code page on the City's website: www.eastvaleca.gov/index.aspx?page=170

If you have additional Code Enforcement questions, please feel free to call the Code Enforcement Department at City Hall at (951) 361-2888 or email Code_Complaint@eastvaleca.gov.

Upgraded Wide Area Network At JCSD

CITY OF EASTVALE

Jurupa Valley – Jurupa Community Services District (JCSD) will be upgrading its Wide Area Network (WAN) to meet the increasing demands of communications technology and to better serve its customers. Implementation of the upgraded communications system at JCSD is anticipated to be completed by fall 2013.

A majority of the communications and tasks required to deliver services to the community relies heavily on the use of technology such as phone communications, internet access, WiFi connection, class registration, and e-mail. The higher demand has affected the quality and reliability of the phone system and other data communications among JCSD's facilities. The JCSD network has grown from a single site to six sites, each utilizing various forms of technology to communicate and run day-to-day operations.

The upgraded WAN will be a more reliable and cost-effective network than JCSD's current communications system. This enhanced network will have four times the capacity and speed, while costing less each month. Other benefits to be realized are:

- Increased reliability by providing higher Quality of Service for voice communications
- Increased Disaster Recovery and failover for critical business systems
- Centralized management of JCSD sites, devices and Internet access
- Allows for secured remote access

We are aware of the various issues the community has experienced when calling our facilities such as encountering static, a busy signal, or inaudible connection. By improving our communications and network connectivity, we will be able to address the technology challenges that have been occurring during the last few months.

Customers who continue to experience a poor phone connection when calling the Eastvale Community Center are asked to send an e-mail to parks@jcsd.us to notify us if they would like a call back by providing their phone number.

About JCSD
Founded in 1956, the Jurupa

Community Services District is a public agency known as a Special District, governed by a five-member, elected, Board of Directors. JCSD serves over 107,000 people in a 48-square-mile region of western Riverside County in the newly-incorporated cities of Jurupa Valley and Eastvale by providing a variety of critical services such as water, sewer, street lights, frontage landscape maintenance, and graffiti abatement. JCSD is also responsible for parks maintenance and recreation programming within the JCSD parks territory. For more information, visit our web site at www.jcsd.us

91 Project - Fast Forward

BY KIMBERLEY SANDER

Riverside County – It used to be, a long time ago, that there was freeway traffic congestion in the morning going to work, and in the evening coming home. Nowadays, it seems like there is rush hour traffic seven days a week and you have to allow extra travel time to get anywhere, at any time. Even when you expect the freeways to be bare in the wee hours of the morning, construction can bring your wheels to a screeching halt.

Traffic congestion is part of life in all metropolitan areas and Riverside County is not exempt. USA Today recently reported that the average American wasted an average of 42 hours each year just sitting in traffic. The fact is, the 91 Freeway, most specifically the eastbound route between Anaheim and Corona is among the worst 15 areas in the U.S. Those of you regularly enjoying this commute can attest to this. Nearly 280,000 vehicles utilize this segment on a daily basis. This number is projected to double in size by 2035.

There is relief coming via the 91 Project. According to their website, the Riverside County Transportation Commission (RCTC) will provide additional tolled express lanes, regular lanes, connectors, and improved interchanges, bridges, ramps and local streets. All of these improvements will help to relieve congestion, allow for quicker emergency response, and improve travel for motorists accessing this route.

The 91 Project is RCTC's number one priority, helping to save time, enhance safety and access, promote ride-sharing and pollution reduction, and provide jobs. The website also states, "The project will employ a design-build approach to save three to four years of construction time, build upon the successful Express Lane system in Orange County, and reinvest revenues along the 91."

Construction of the 91 Project will begin in 2014, however, while we eagerly anticipate its completion, the City of Eastvale reminds us that pre-construction will begin presently. Construction crews will be conducting surveys on the 91 and 15 freeways during off-peak hours with temporary lane closures possible. Please remember to use extreme caution and extend safety courtesy to these crews by slowing down, safely changing lanes away from construction, allowing extra time for travel, and avoiding the use of any mobile devices (or other distractions) while driving.

Where Are The Churches In Eastvale?

By KIMBERLEY SANDER

Eastvale – In any city, you somewhat expect to see local churches – actual church buildings ('Here's the church, here's the steeple...') – throughout the municipality and surrounding areas. But driving through Eastvale, something seems amiss; nearly all of the churches worshipping in Eastvale do so in local schools. If you're new to the area or looking for a church home for you and your family, you might have to do a little research to see what's available.

Eastvale, officially becoming a city on October 1, 2010, is still enjoying the growth that incorporation bolsters. Not too many years before that, Eastvale was a land of dairy farms. While you still see a few of the iconic black and white symbols of milk throughout the area, Eastvale is quickly becoming one of the most cosmopolitan cities of the Inland Empire. As the growth of the city continues, the first actual church buildings are imminent. Here is a listing of some of the churches in the area:

Calvary Cross-Bridge
A Ministry of Calvary Chapel
Claremont
Pastor Dennis Morales
13954 Buckhart Street; Eastvale, CA 92880
(909) 489-2973; www.calvaryeastvale.org
Fridays at 7:30pm - Worship and Bible Study (address above)

Calvary Cross-Bridge is looking forward to starting Sunday Services at the beginning of 2014 and is currently looking for a location in Eastvale to accommodate their growing ministry.

Edgewater Lutheran Church
Pastor Tim Eaton
12672 Limonite Avenue, #3E-231; Eastvale, CA 92880
(951) 893-0224; www.edgewatereastvale.org

Sundays at 10:00am – Currently Worshipping at Harada Elementary (12884 Oakdale Street, Eastvale)

Edgewater is anticipating the possible donation of property in the Preserve; however, they are looking for sites in the City of Eastvale. Pastor Tim says, "It is important to Edgewater to be a part of Eastvale and beyond. We feel called to bring God's peace to families through community with others."

Life Church
Pastor Sam Tanner
12523 Limonite Avenue, #440-240

Mira Loma, CA 91752
951-808-8890
www.getmorelife.org

Sundays at 10:30am - Ramirez Middle School (6905 Harrison Avenue, Eastvale)

Sundays at 9:00am - Jurupa 14 Spectrum (8032 Limonite Avenue, Riverside)

Life Church does not have any building plans at this time, but currently has two worship sites available on Sunday mornings.

New Day Christian Church
Pastor Ed Moreno
2191 5th Street

Norco, CA
951-278-8367
www.newdaycc.net
Sundays at 8:45am and 10:30am – Currently worshipping at the Beacon Hill Business Plaza, 2191 5th Street, Suite 108, Norco (just off Hamner and 5th Street).

New Day is pleased to announce that they have been able to secure 4.77 acres of property to build a facility at the corner of Hamner and A Street (soon to be a continuation of Schleisman Road) in Eastvale. The grading has just recently been completed. They hope to have Phase I of their permanent worship site completed by January 2014. Pastor Ed is very excited about their new building. He says, "We began planting this new church in 2002 specifically for Eastvale because as a new emerging community we knew that churches would be needed. But when we officially launched Sunday morning services in January 2003, there was no place to hold services." They initially set their worship center in Norco, where they are still holding Sunday Services as they wait for the Eastvale location's completion.

Sunrise Grace Church
Pastor Steve Loo

1555 Fairway Drive; Walnut, CA 91789
(626) 201-2054

Formerly worshiping at Clara Barton Elementary School in Eastvale, Sunrise held its last service on July 28. Sunrise was a church plant from the 1st Chinese Baptist Church in Walnut. Pastor Steve, who will continue teaching and mentoring, invites you to join him in Walnut, or refers you to seek out other churches in Eastvale.

The Crossings
Pastor Rob Norris
7227 Scholar Way
Eastvale, CA 92880
951-847-6836
www.attcrossings.com

Sundays 10:00am - Currently meeting at River Heights Intermediate School (address above)

The Crossings does not have any building plans at this time.

Vantage Point Church
Pastor Mark Lee
5171 Edison Avenue, Suite C; Chino, CA 91710
(909) 465-9700; www.vantagepointchurch.org

Sundays at 8:30am, 10:00am, and 11:30am

Currently Worshipping at Eleanor Roosevelt High (7557 Scholar Way, Eastvale)

Vantage Point purchased 10.4 acres at 8500 Archibald Avenue in Eastvale this past February. They are currently interviewing architects and should have one selected soon, with conceptual drawings completed within the next nine months. Their plan is to break ground within two years, giving them time to pay off the property and pre-construction costs. Pastor Mark says, "Being permanent brings value to the community of Eastvale."

Eastvale's Shining Stars

BY JENNIFER MADRIGAL

Eastvale - Local Resident Debuts at The Candlelight Pavilion

Allisonne Crawford, 32, of Eastvale will be making her debut appearance at The Candlelight Pavilion in Claremont. Allisonne has been singing since she was 4 and has appeared in numerous college performances. She is an accomplished vocalist of classical, contemporary and sacred style music. She received her Bachelor of Music-Vocal Performance from Chapman University. Allisonne is extremely excited to be a part of the cast of "The Sound of Motown," which will run at the Candlelight Pavilion from August 8, 2013 to September 8, 2013.

Eastvale Semifinalists SOCAL ICON 2013

This year's all female semifinalists include the following Eastvale residents (by age):

Dylan Hoffman, 8, Eastvale

Nerieida Casillas, 14, Eastvale

Alexandra Hove, 13, Eastvale

Martha Rosario, 15, Eastvale

The Semifinals took place in Eastvale at Eleanor Roosevelt High School's theater as two ticketed events. There were three age divisions (7-10, 11-14 and 15-18). The judges for the semifinals round included music educators and industry professionals. The Final Concert Event (featuring the top seven in each age division) will take place on Saturday, August 31, 6:00pm, at the Margaret Webb Theatre in Santa Ana.

ERHS Student Receives National Leadership and Service Award

Marie Rosario was chosen as the United States National Leadership and Service Award winner by the United States Achievement Academy in Kentucky, upon the nomination of her honors Chemistry teacher, Patricia Bickel. "Marie always demonstrates patience and maintains a positive attitude even in the face of frustration. Her congenial personality and commitment to serving her fellow classmates is reflected by the many organizations she has been actively involved in," said Bickel. She shows her leadership skills by taking on the position of Secretary for the California Scholarship Federation. Marie also enjoys mentoring her younger peers in the community. She serves as a Link Crew Leader for the freshmen at Eleanor Roosevelt High School, and volunteers as a tutor at the local community elementary and intermediate schools."

Paul Castaneda Advances to CrossFit Regionals

In Southern California, over 7700 men and women registered for the CrossFit Open to test their fitness. Out of 4800 men, Paul Castaneda, finished in 20th place in week five. The top 48 received an invitation to compete in the next step of competition, the Regionals, in Del Mar, California. After seven live, head-to-head events, Paul finished in a tie for 13th place. The CrossFit Games Road to the Fittest requires athletes to be skilled and proficient in several disciplines of fitness including strength, speed, power, and endurance. At 32 years old, Paul Castaneda, head coach of CrossFit Inland Empire, is

Haradapalooza! Eastvale Free Concerts In The Park

BY KIMBERLEY SANDER

Eastvale - If you haven't had the chance to enhance your summer with a night under the stars listening to great music, there are still several free concerts for your enjoyment. This is Eastvale's 5th Annual event, and they know how to put on a great show. Pack up your chairs and blankets, family and friends, and head out to Harada Heritage Park for an evening to remember. There are even food and beverages available for purchase as an added convenience. There is parking available on the north, east and south sides of the park (65th, Scholar and 68th Streets), or if you live close enough it's a nice walk on a warm evening. Check out the entertainment still to come...

All concerts are on Friday evenings, from 7:30pm to 9:00pm:

August 9: Aerorocks – Aerosmith Tribute

August 16: Green Today – Green Day Tribute

August 23: DSB – Journey Tribute

August 30: Joshua Tree – U2 Tribute

All Eastvale concerts are held at Harada Heritage Park, 13099 65th Street, Eastvale.

For more information call (951) 727-3524 or visit www.parks.jcsd.us.

Local Resident Defies Odds And Wakes Up After Six Years In A Coma

BY JENNIFER MADRIGAL

Corona - July 17, 2006 is a day that will live in Diane Ward's heart for the rest of her life. At 9:30am she received a call informing her that her brother, Charles Wolcott, "Charlie", had been killed in a pedestrian vs. vehicle accident. On the drive to Riverside Community Hospital she hoped and prayed that somehow a miracle would happen that would save her brother. "I just looked at the picture of us that I had with me and prayed and prayed," Diane recalls as she tries to explain what awaited her at the hospital. Instead of finding her brother deceased, she found him barely hanging on to life. Charlie would spend the next six years of his life in a coma, fighting his way back to his friends and family. His mother, sister and family were close by his side the entire time, either physically or via phone, and they refused to give up on him. After a few years, he started to slowly emerge from his coma, achieving small goals to some, but monumental goals considering where he came from.

Charlie is now able to mouth words and enjoys visiting with his family and friends. His awakening after a six year coma was a dream come true to Diane, who describes him as, "...a kind and good man; a real good guy that would give you the shirt off his back". Now seven years later, Charlie is able to celebrate the anniversary of this life-altering event by helping to raise awareness about pedestrian-related accidents.

For the last few years the City of Corona has been conducting sting operations to help pedestrians learn how to cross safely and to inform motorists to pay attention to crosswalks and pedestrians. On July 10th, the Corona Police Department's Traffic Bureau conducted a Pedestrian Safety Mobilization during business hours in the downtown area of the city. This mobilization was an early kick-off to the City's Pedestrian Safety Awareness Month, which will be celebrated during the month of August.

The City of Corona's official press release states that: "One of the most dangerous situations for pedestrians occurs when a vehicle is stopped for a pedestrian crossing the street and another vehicle approaches from the rear and overtakes the stopped vehicle." This is exactly what happened to Charlie Wolcott, an accident that forever changed his life. Although pedestrians are required by law to yield the right-of-way to vehicles on a roadway that are close enough to be a hazard, motorists are required to yield the right-of-way to a pedestrian crossing the street within any crosswalk. Pay attention, be aware of the people around you, and take care to find out why a vehicle is stopped before trying to go around it and cross the intersection. A small moment of investigation just might save a life.

ERHS Adds Value To Student Body Cards

BY EMILY LUNDBERG

As summer comes to a close for Eastvale's teens, Roosevelt students can expect to see some changes to their ASB when they return to school.

Instead of being called ASB, Roosevelt's student leaders have decided to change their name to Mustang Student Body or MSB for short. They also added significant value to the ASB cards that have been sold over the past few years.

The new MSB cards will cost $45 and include free entrance to all sporting and drama events, free Powder Puff and Homecoming Dance tickets, a free varsity letter, if eligible, a spirit pack which includes a class color t-shirt and an ERHS foam finger, in addition to discounts on the yearbook, dances, and all other MSB events. If you consider that Homecoming tickets alone normally start around $20 and go up in price from there, ERHS students stand to save far more than they spend on these new cards.

When asked what prompted the change, one Mustang Student Body member said, "We believe in servant leadership and by changing our name and adding more value to MSB cards, we're showing the student body that we really are here to serve them."

School starts Wednesday, August 7th, for River Heights Intermediate School, Ramirez Intermediate School, and Roosevelt High School.

Carrots And Tomatoes: A Love Story At Amy's Farm

By KIMBERLEY SANDER

Ontario – I love my drive to and from work. It's an easy jaunt from Archibald, and then west on Edison toward Chino. The streets are lined with farm after farm, peppered with horses, cows and crops – I'm interested in all of them. On one such trip, I decided to take a small detour south on Bon View to Eucalyptus and visit Amy's Farm. I remembered it from my grandson's amazing tales from a school fieldtrip and a subsequent visit to buy organic produce.

Upon arrival, I caught site of Amy, and asked her if I might write about her farm. She referred me to her father, "The visionary", Randy Bekendam. Randy graciously allowed me to take up his time, and educated me on the principles of organic farming. While we spoke, he prepared red onions, just a short time out of the ground, and the aroma coming from them was intoxicating. My mind was spinning with ideas on how to chef them into a culinary masterpiece. I can't remember red onions ever smelling like this in the supermarket.

Randy's soft-spoken intelligence as he tells me about his farm suggests a lifetime as a vegetable farmer, but he is only five years into this passion.

Art Show At Corona Art Association

STAFF REPORTS

Corona - Corona Art Association and Gallery is having its July/August Art show on display through August 31st for viewing by general public.

On August 13, 2013, Corona Art Association will hold its general meeting. Mr. Kevin Toohey will demonstrate Photography at the general meeting from 7-9pm. General public is invited. General meetings are every second Tuesday of the month.

Corona Art Association is located at 522 Corona Mall, at 6th and Main, Corona, CA 92879. For additional information, call 951-735-3226 or email – coronaarts@att.net. You can also visit coronaartassociation.org.

Like his father and grandfather before him, he was a dairyman. "Six years ago I knew none of this, which is a testimony to how simple it is," he says of organic farming.

Amy's is an organic farm, but they are not "Certified Organic" by choice. The USDA does deem some chemicals as safe. Randy chooses not to use any chemicals for his crops. "All you need is seed, water and natural fertilizer," he says.

"You build your soil. The healthier the soil, the healthier the produce will be. I don't want to kill any of the microbes in the soil. When a plant is stressed due to unhealthy soil, its taste changes. Bugs are opportunists; they will attack a weak plant like a wolf circling a weak animal," Randy teaches me. He likens the health of the farm to the abilities our bodies have to build resistance. He says, "There are no bad bugs or weeds, they all provide a balance. The bio-diversity of everything coming together in nature is what creates a successful farm. You plant seasonally with as much diversity as possible and let nature take its course." Pairing that with crop rotation and companion planting, it all works in concert. Did you know that carrots love tomatoes? Together they attract and deflect just the right balance of bugs and weeds in order to thrive. Who knew?

On the farm you will find the circle of life. The soil is fed by the fertilizer produced from the animals; they, in turn, are fed produce grown from the soil which they helped to produce. I made the slight faux pas of walking over to say hello to a nearby goat. Within seconds every goat and sheep in the pen came at a run toward me. "Animals love me," I'm thinking. "They think you have food for them," says Randy. Whatever. Randy allows me to feed them the clippings from the red onions he has been preparing, and as I do so I can see that every animal is clear-eyed, beautifully coated and healthy. The circle of life is obviously working well as these animals make the onions disappear in seconds.

Come to Amy's Farm and taste your fruits and vegetables the way God intended. Randy says, "Very few know what that taste is like. Healthy eating is like preventative medicine for our bodies." Supermarket crops are often picked long before their peak and allowed to ripen in transit – frequently thousands of miles away. I can just see the nutrients escaping along the way; that fresh smell dissipating.

you can learn first-hand about farming. There is a sense of pride that comes from nurturing something from seed to feed.

To book a tour or just see what produce is presently in the cooler, visit www.amysfarm.com, or call them at (909) 393-2936. You can also arrange for a Specialized Workshop through Melissa@amysfarm.com.

Workshops range from 'Fun on the Farm' to 'Drawing from Life' art classes, to the 'Science of Farming'.

Visiting Amy's Farm is a time-worthy event. Through a family outing or a school field trip, learning how food gets from farm to table can provide a whole new opportunity to get children to eat their vegetables. A carrot is more appetizing when you pull it from the ground; a pea is more appealing in its pod with its siblings. A tomato is more tantalizing with fresh mozzarella, basil and balsamic vinegar...but I digress.

Amy's is also a great place to volunteer. Their volunteer program allows them to do what they do. Just show up some morning at 9:00 a.m. and

As I shook Randy's hand in gratitude and farewell, it had the strength of a man at one with the soil around him. You can tell he loves what he does every day. I walked away enlightened and encouraged to eat closer to nature...and to return to Amy's Farm in the very near future.

3 Common Estate Planning Mistakes To Avoid

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale - From time to time, it's good to review why having a complete, up-to-date estate plan is so important. In addition to confirming our own actions, it can provide us with valuable information to pass along to friends and family who, for whatever reasons, have yet to act. So, here are three common estate planning mistakes to avoid, provided by Charlene L. Usher, Esq.

1. Not having a plan. Every state has laws for distributing the property of someone who dies without an estate plan—but not very many people would be pleased with the results. State laws vary, but generally they leave a percentage of the deceased's assets to family members. (Non-family members, like an unmarried partner, will not receive any assets.) It is common for the surviving spouse and children to each receive a share, which often means the surviving spouse will not have enough money to live on. If the children are minors, the court will control their inheritances until they reach legal age (usually 18), at which time they will receive the full amount. (Most parents prefer their children inherit later, when they are more mature.)

2. Not naming a guardian for minor children. A guardian for minor children can only be named through a will. If the parents have not done this, and both die before the children reach legal age, the court will have to name someone to raise them without knowing whom the parents would have chosen.

3. Relying on joint ownership. Many older people add an adult child to the title of their assets (especially their home), often to avoid probate. But this can create all kinds of problems. When you add a co-owner, you lose control. Jointly-owned assets are now exposed to the co-owner's creditors, divorce proceedings and possible misuse of the assets, and the co-owner must agree to all business transactions. There could be gift and/or income tax issues. And if you have more than one child but only name one to be co-owner with you, fluctuating values could cause your children to receive unbalanced/unintended inheritances.

These three tips are just a few things to consider when making plans for yourself and your whole life's work. It's BEST to work with an attorney who will customize an Estate PLAN for you that is the right fit for your family.

Charlene L. Usher, Esq. is a trust & estates attorney who handles traditional estate planning, Special Needs Planning, Business Succession Planning, & Charitable Planning for more information, please visit www.usherlawgroup.com or contact 877.748.7437.

New call-back program at Eastvale schools

program is planned for October 2013 with the installation of five portable buildings at Clara Barton Elementary and four portable buildings at Rosa Parks Elementary. This will result in potentially 100 additional students returning to Clara Barton and approximately 30 additional students returning to Rosa Parks.

CNUSD would like residents to be aware of this plan because the return of these students to their home school sites may have an impact on the local traffic around the schools. CNUSD will have staff at the school sites this upcoming week to resolve any potential problems that may arise. In addition, CNUSD has contacted the Sheriff's Department with the anticipation of having a "presence" around the campuses. CNUSD, City Hall staff and the Sheriff's Department will work together to solve any issues that may result from the increase student population and associated traffic that may occur at Clara Barton and Rosa Parks this coming week.

If your child is part of the call back program and you have additional questions or concerns, you may reach Clara Barton Elementary at (951) 736-4545 or Rosa Parks Elementary at (951) 736-7305.

Restore Your Body's Balance At The Joint

By KIMBERLEY SANDER

Eastvale – If you're not feeling your best, but can't quite put your finger on what exactly is ailing you, you might consider chiropractic care. Routine sessions can restore your balance and improve your quality of life. The Joint... the chiropractic place, offers just that.

Chiropractic care can sometimes be confusing, but The Joint is a wellness model that provides an alternative approach to traditional medicine; it can even help to improve your health alongside traditional medicine. The Joint's strategy of affordable, effective and convenient care can enable you to reach your full health potential. The relief and prevention of pain can definitely contribute to a happier life.

The licensed chiropractors at The Joint bring over 50 years of experience in their field, and they are selected through an extensive interview and skill assessment process to ensure you are receiving the best care possible.

Michael Bowen, D.C., graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Human Biology and a Doctor of Chiropractic Degree in 1983 from Cleveland Chiropractic College. He has studied many advanced chiropractic techniques over his 30 years of practice and loves taking care of patients of all ages, from infants to those over 100 years old. Dr. Bowen believes that the brain and nervous system control all of your muscles, organs, glands and immune system. If you keep your spine and nervous system in optimum shape, you have the potential for achieving optimum health and well-being.

Ricardo Morelli, D.C., was born in Concepcion Del Uruguay, Argentina, and later moved to Glendale, California. He received his Doctor of Chiropractic Degree at Cleveland Chiropractic College in 1992. Dr. Morelli is proud to have recently achieved a 20-year milestone in the Chiropractic profession. He understands how the body works and how Chiropractic medicine facilitates natural healing and well-being. He is an advocate for moving away from the current sick care model to a true health care model where Chiropractic and other holistic and natural healing arts can be utilized to improve quality of life.

Drs. Bowen and Morelli are keen on opening your mind to chiropractic care and to seeing the positive changes it can make in your life. You can also feel good about the reliability of The Joint with nearly 15 years in business, with nearly 150 clinics in 26 states; The Joint is dedicated to being here for you.

At The Joint there are no appointments necessary, and they provide the hours and pricing to make ongoing care convenient. Your first adjustment can be just $19, with a variety of affordable Wellness Plans available. They are located at 12411 Limonite Avenue*, Suite 610, next to Chipotle in the Eastvale Gateway shopping center. Their hours are Monday through Friday, 10:00am to 7:00pm; Saturday, 10:00am to 6:00pm; and Sunday, 10:00am to 4:00pm. Call them today at (951) 842-3529 to take the first steps toward improving your overall balance of health and happiness.

Norco College Career & Job Fair

STAFF REPORTS

Norco – Norco College cordially invites you to our Fall 2013 Career & Job Fair on Wed., Oct. 2, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. (Please note the time extension to include Corona-Norco USD's half day students!)

For those who have joined us in the past, we welcome you back! New employer participants, we are eager for you to participate. Each fair has consistently grown and we expect this fall's Career & Job Fair to grow even larger.

We would like to offer you the opportunity to join the Greater Corona Valley Chamber of Commerce in becoming a co-sponsor of this event. The cost of sponsorship is only $150 - $300 and is an excellent and affordable way to maximize your company's exposure. Sponsor logos will reach thousands through email blasts and flyers that will be distributed throughout the community. Sponsorships are tax deductible.

We look forward to serving your employment needs and hope to gain your support in making the Fall Career & Job Fair another success.

To register for the Career Fair please email Ashley.Etchison@norcocolllege.edu for an electronic version of the Registration Form. If you have any questions, please call (951) 372-7086.

Get your children ready for school.
Prepare their bodies, not just their minds.

Schoolwork can really weigh on your child. Most children carry backpacks in excess of the weight their bodies can handle, placing undue stress on their back, shoulder, neck and knees and can even lead to injury. Playing sports more regularly, long hours sitting in class and even the emotional stress their bodies take on all contribute to the need for routine chiropractic care. Best yet, we're open after school. Visit The Joint and give your children the chance to start the school year off with every advantage, mentally and physically.

FREE BACKPACK SAFETY CLINIC
Bring your children and their school bags in for a free assessment.
Sept. 14th, from 12PM-4PM While you're here, ask about our affordable family plan.

Crime recap

Grow House was shut down after police obtained new information in their ongoing investigation of grow houses in the City of Eastvale. Officers obtained a search warrant for the residence located in the 14000 block of Ithica Drive. Upon serving the warrant, two suspects were arrested. The residence had been modified for the sole purpose of cultivating, processing, and packaging marijuana. Officers also discovered that a dangerous butane extraction process was being used to produce large quantities of concentrated cannabis. During this investigation, officers seized 149 marijuana plants, 17 pounds of processed marijuana, 30.5 ounces of concentrated cannabis, and packaging material. One of the suspects arrested was booked into jail at the Robert Presley Detention Center. He has been identified as Joseph Lim, 34-year-old resident of Eastvale. Lim is being charged with conspiracy and cultivation of marijuana, producing a controlled substance by chemical extraction, and possession of marijuana.

July 20 - The Jurupa Valley Station in Norco conducted a DUI/Driver's License checkpoint at Hamner Avenue and Commerce Street between the hours of 8:00 p.m. and 2:00 a.m. Checkpoints are placed in locations that have the greatest opportunity for achieving drunk and drugged driving deterrence and provide the greatest safety for officers and the public. The checkpoint had 558 vehicles enter and all 558 were screened, according to police reports. Of those 558 vehicles and drivers, three were arrested for DUI, 16 were cited for operating a vehicle unlicensed, two were cited for driving with a revoked/ suspended license, five citations were issued for other California Vehicle Code violations, and seven vehicles were towed and stored. The Jurupa Valley Station will be conducting another DUI/Driver's License Checkpoint on or about Saturday, August 17, in their ongoing commitment to lowering deaths and injuries upon our streets and highways.

July 29 - City of Eastvale officers responded to a 911 call from a residence in the 7400 block of Carrollton Avenue, in reference to a burglary-in-progress. The residents woke up to find an intruder inside their home who attempted to sexually assault a family member. They took quick action and detained the intruder until police officers arrived and took the suspect into custody. Eastvale investigators arrived and assumed control of the situation shortly thereafter. They determined that the suspect entered the residence with the intent to commit a sexual assault. The suspect was identified as 18-year old Eastvale resident, Isaac Jenkins. Jenkins was arrested and booked into the Robert Presley Detention Center for burglary with the intent to commit a sexual assault, and first degree burglary.

July 30 - City of Eastvale firefighters responded to a house fire in the 7700 block of Stonegate Drive, at about 8:30pm. Once the fire was extinguished, it was determined there were no occupants in the residence. During the post-fire safety check, firefighters discovered what appeared to be a large marijuana cultivation operation and immediately notified the Eastvale Police Department. Investigators confirmed the operation via search warrant on July 31 and seized 596 marijuana plants and 3.5 pounds of processed marijuana. Electricity at the residence was bypassed around the meter, causing the fire and resulting in thousands of dollars of structural damage.

August 1 - Officers of Eastvale's Special Enforcement Team obtained new information regarding a residence being utilized as a Marijuana Grow House. An investigation was launched and a search warrant was obtained. On Thursday, August 1 at 4:00pm, officers entered the residence and determined that it was unoccupied and had been modified for the purpose of cultivating and processing marijuana. Officers seized 100 marijuana plants, two pounds of processed marijuana, packaging materials, digital scales, and $2,700 in U.S. currency. The suspect, Hung Vinh Ngo, 28, of Eastvale, returned to the residence and was arrested without incident for cultivation and possession of marijuana for sale. He was booked into jail at the Robert Presley Detention Center.

The Eastvale Police Department is committed to the safety of the citizens of Eastvale and will be vigilant in investigating all crimes of this nature in accordance with their Zero Tolerance Policy. The investigation is ongoing and they are reaching out to the public and asking anyone with information about this incident to contact Officer Patrick Walls at the Jurupa Valley Station at (951) 955-2600. Citizens may also submit an anonymous tip using the Sheriff's CrimeTips online form.

Satisfied customers at MountainView Tire

Eastvale, the family-owned, independent Goodyear dealer brings its considerable tire and auto service expertise to our city.

"We opened our first store in Duarte in 1987, and now have 30 locations in Southern California," said Chris Mitsos, Vice President and part owner of the company.

MountainView Tire and Service Inc., is more than just a tire store, according to Mitsos.

"We are not just a tire dealer, we are an auto repair facility as well," said Mitsos in an interview last year. "Half of our revenue is derived from tires, the other half from auto service."

"Our customers are treated with respect and get an honest assessment of their automotive needs. We try to demystify the auto service experience," added Mitsos.

Mitsos wants his Eastvale shop to be a one-stop shop for his clients by providing complete auto service for just about anyone who owns a car.

MountainView Tire provides computerized engine analysis, cooling system maintenance, brakes, tires, heating and air conditioning service, along with battery, oil lube and filter services.

"About the only things we don't do are body work and smog checks," said Mitsos.

"This is a family-run business. My brother and I work from 7 in the morning to 6 at night...and our focus has always been our customers" said Mitsos.

"My brother and I handle all complaints personally," said Mitsos. "Fortunately, there aren't many."

Mitsos has a great passion for two things, servicing autos and keeping his customers happy and his business philosophy clearly points this out.

"We want to give our customers the 'wow' experience," said Mitsos. "We want our customers to say 'wow' when they drive away from our shop."

For coupons and discounts, check out their ad on page 24. You can also score Free UCLA football Tickets after buying 4 tires! For more information, see page 24. Clients can also check out their website at www.mountainviewtire.com for additional savings.

MountainView Tire and Service Inc., is located at 6080 Hamner Avenue, Suite 105, Eastvale, CA, 91752 just north of Limonite Avenue. They can be reached at (877) 872-1665 and are open Mon. – Fri, 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sat. 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sun. 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"Open Houses to Maximize Exposure of your Home!"

Gilbert,

We want to thank you for the very efficient and professional manner in how you handled the listing and sale of our daughter's townhouse in Hampton Court in Diamond Bar, CA. Your knowledge of the local market and your advice to us on the listing and sale procedures resulted in a successful sale. You are easy to do business with and we really appreciate your promptness in returning our calls whenever we had a question. We were also impressed with your using all the latest communication systems from FAX, cell phone, Texting, and E-mail to get the job done in a timely manner. This is our 3rd business experience with you including the purchase of Cheryl's condo in Ontario, Debbie's reappraisal of her townhouse, and now the sale of the townhouse. Obviously, we are very satisfied customers. Continued good luck with your real estate business in a very competitive environment. Hope we have the opportunity to cross trails again some day.

Sincerely, Al & Dorene M.

Ordinance cracks down on drug houses

inspection and registration program, as well as launching a city-wide Neighborhood Watch Campaign, an event that kicked off on July 19, 2013 on Springvale Court.

City Manager, Carol Jacobs, stated, "Our message is clear in Eastvale. If you rent your property to an individual or group of people at which illegal activity occurs, then you, the property owner, are responsible. The "I didn't know" defense is no longer acceptable. This team approach will affect positive change in Eastvale."

Mayor Ike Bootsma also vowed, "The City Council is committed to eradicating Marijuana Grow Houses in the City of Eastvale. By working with the Sheriff Department, City staff, community partners, and the residents, we will solve this problem. This type of illegal activity will not be tolerated in the City of Eastvale."

The second ordinance requires landlords, property management firms and real estate agents who rent their Eastvale property or manage the rental of Eastvale properties to obtain a business registration from the City of Eastvale.

The City launched its Business Registration Program on March 20, 2012 and has received tremendous response to the program with over 1,000 businesses currently registered. This program has compiled a comprehensive inventory of businesses in the City of Eastvale, which enhances public safety and helps achieve compliance with federal, state and local regulations.

For more information about future ordinances, read the City Manager's article on page 3.

the City, however, anonymous tips from residents has been most helpful, recently helping to tackle two more grow houses last month. The Riverside Sheriff's Department has provided tips on how to help spot a marijuana house. The tips include looking out for windows that are covered from the interior, lights and televisions on timers, subjects moving in commercial grade electrical equipment during the late night or early morning hours, no signs of normal residential occupation, and the smell of marijuana emitting from the home.

It is also advised to never approach someone you may think is operating a grow house for your own safety. There may be criminal activity involved.

If you, or someone you know, suspects a home of being a grow house, you are strongly advised to call Deputy Javier Morando at the Jurupa Valley Station at (951) 955-2600, or the Riverside County Sheriff's Department Dispatch Center at (951) 776-1099.

Navy Awards $60 Million Contract Extension For Tactical Training

BY NAVAL SURFACE WARFARE CENTER CORONA PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Norco- The Naval Surface Warfare Center, Corona Division announced July 29 that it has awarded a $59.56 million, one-year extension of an existing contract with Virginia-based Northrop Grumman Technical Services, allowing nearly 500 contractors to continue providing operation and maintenance services to the Navy's combined tactical training ranges for up to a year.

Among several key missions for the Department of the Navy, NSWC Corona serves as the Navy and Marine Corps' range systems engineering agent that designs, installs and sustains systems that help commanders know how ships and aircraft perform during training exercises.

Headquartered in Norco, CA, the range systems engineering team of more than 500 Navy civilian engineers and contractors supports the suite of systems installed around the country that provide ground-truth feedback to both pilots, who use rapid feedback in the cockpit to improve training, and Fleet commanders, who use time-space data of vessels and aircraft to certify ships and combat groups going through small to large-force training exercises.

The terms of the modified contract N63394-10-C-5006 stipulate that Northrop Grumman will support training range operations for at least the next six months - with two, three-month options to extend the agreement further if necessary. The contract expires July 22, 2014.

Getting to know L.E.A.F.F.

of Law Enforcement and Fire Fighters living in Eastvale was 1500 and in 2013 that number of L.E.A.F.F. members has grown to around 2500. With the large number of Police Officers and Fire Fighters who call Eastvale home, the group started small and grew to include representatives from virtually every department in four counties and includes: Deputy Sheriffs, Police Officers, Corrections Officers, Parole Agents, Highway Patrol Officers, INS Agents, FBI Agents, Paramedics, as well as all assignments in the various Fire Departments.

The Mission Statement of L.E.A.F.F. is a simple one: To maintain a high quality of life within this community, with the goal of Eastvale achieving the status of #1 safest city. L.E.A.F.F. achieves this by supporting proactive law enforcement, fire safety and code enforcement. They support the community as a whole, especially as it relates to the safety of its citizens. In fact, you will find L.E.A.F.F. members all over the community: starting Neighborhood Watch Programs, calling in suspicious activity, helping raise funds for fallen firefighters or families in need, etc. L.E.A.F.F. tries to help the community out whenever possible and as a non-profit group they have been able to raise funds through donations and fundraisers that have helped local schools, athletic programs and scholarships for individuals interested in law enforcement or fire fighting. Its members also try and help out by backing up the City Council, Mayor and State encouraging a "pro-active" approach to community.

"While members do not engage in doing the actual police work or investigations, their training helps them to keep an eye out for the community and their neighbors," Arrellano states. Many L.E.A.F.F. members are subject matter experts and lend their expertise to helping the City with everything from traffic to reporting incidents, helping out with scene security and effectively reporting suspicious activity directly to local law enforcement.

New L.E.A.F.F. President, Rigo Arrellano, wants to let the community know that L.E.A.F.F. is here to help out the community and to make Eastvale an even better place to live. "We believe in being present and active members of the community. I like to get out there and shake hands, pound the pavement and make sure people know who we are and why we are here." Arrellano also brought up the City of Simi Valley. While it was voted one of safest cities to live in California, partly due to the fact that it is home to a large number of Fire Fighters and Law Enforcement, imagine how great it would have been if those Fire Fighters and Police Officers would have formed a group together. When State, City and local agencies all unite toward a common goal and have a common mission in mind, the possibilities are endless.

has goals of growing and is doing so. One of those goals was to host a Mega Mixer Business Expo in the City of Eastvale.

On July 17th, 2013 the Eastvale Chamber of Commerce, successfully hosted their first Mega Mixer Business Expo. Held at the beautiful Eastvale Community Center, the 2013 Mega Mixer Business included over 30 exhibitors and over 200 attendees. It was sponsored by Lewis Group of Companies, KB Home, Corona Regional Medical Clinic, The Gas Company, Allegra Marketing Print and Mail, American Printing and Promotions, The Joint...the chiropractic place, and Koki's Bouncers & Party Supplies. "The 2013 Mega Mixer was a goal when the Chamber was first founded. I am pleased to see the goal of the Chamber come to life," stated co-founder and Chamber Chairman, Jorge Razo. Board Member and owner of the Eastvale News stated, "It was well organized, classy, fun, and productive. I appreciate it as a resident, as a board member, and especially as a business."

The Chamber is looking forward to hosting future events for our chamber members and the business community. Look for the 2014 Mega Mixer Business Expo.

Pastors' Corners

Coming Home

By PASTOR TIM EATON

A vacation sounds so great. We get stressed out, over-worked, and underappreciated. We feel we have to get away from it all. We may dream of joyful times with friends and family and all the fun we will have on vacation. Hopefully, time away delivers on most of those promises. But a funny thing can happen during time away. Maybe it's too many hours in a car or nights spent in a tent; an unfamiliar hotel, or time with the in-laws. Any of them can make home start to sound better than when we left it.

By the end of a vacation coming home can feel even better than getting away. We miss the little things we didn't notice before we left; the way fresh sheets smell on our own bed, our children's favorite toys at the ready, the staples in our fridge and pantry, the peace of sitting in a favorite chair. Returning to these can make coming home again the best part of a vacation.

Coming home to church can give us an even deeper peace. Maybe something made us want to get away from church. Maybe we drifted away without really noticing. But this vacation can weary us like any other. The signs are there – we have spent to much time rushing around, traveling through life without effect, and wishing we could find rest and peace. If you are weary and burdened you will find rest in Jesus (Matthew 11:28). Like the prodigal son, we will find our Heavenly Father waiting with open arms for us to return home to Him (Luke 15:20).

days apart. You realize it when the doctor needs to take some additional tests or when it takes you a moment to remember how old you are. The brevity of life also makes us look back with crystal clear vision realizing that we there's no pause or instant replay to this thing. We can't relive, re-love, rearrange, redirect or re-focus. You can't redo a marriage or re-raise your children. And as depressing as this sounds, if you're willing to face the truth about life, our own mortality can be a consistent reminder of how God made us to live.

Psalm 90:12 – Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. Just the fact that we only have a limited number of days should make us want to live life for all its worth. Make it a goal to use all your vacation days this year. Invest in a hammock. Spend some time thinking about the things that are important. What's going to happen after this life? Your time is the most precious resource that God has given you. Make the most of it.

I'm There

By PASTOR ROB NORRIS

I have no one else of kindred spirit who will genuinely be concerned for your welfare.

Philippians 2:20

Gary Thomas, author of such inspiring books as Sacred Marriage and Authentic Faith: The Power of a Fire-Tested Life, tells the story of two American soldiers who became fast friends during their preparations for combat in World War I. Though they had known each other only a short time, the camaraderie of battle and their shared dreams of postwar life quickly cemented their relationship.

One day, these two buddies crawled from their foxhole with the rest of their unit in an attack on the German forces. After a valiant fight, the order was given to retreat. But only one of the two friends returned to the trench. The other had been hit by German gunfire and was lying about 50 yards out of reach.

Against his commanding officer's orders, the other soldier crawled out of the ditch to go find his fallen comrade. Hugging the ground and dodging enemy bullets, he worked his way across the bloody, corpse-littered ground until he finally located the friend he sought. Finding him semi-conscious, they were left with only a few seconds together before he died.

When the man returned to the trench with the body of his soldier friend, the ranking officer flew into a rage for this flaunting of his order. "Was it worth it for you to risk your life?"

"Absolutely, sir. Because when I turned him over, he looked up at me and said, I knew you'd come."

That's the kind of loyalty we are called to in all our relationships--especially in our homes and families. Your spouse needs to know without a doubt that when you are needed, you will be there. Your children need to know they can count on you, not just in a pinch, but also in their most routine of expectations. When they need you, can they be sure you'll come?

Live it

How can your marriage and family practically demonstrate this kind of love for one another?

Pray

That the Lord will keep you sensitive to each other, anticipating when you're needed most.

Thanks Eastvale!

By PASTOR STEVE LOO

On June 6, 2010, Sunrise Grace Church officially opened its doors in Eastvale. After over three years in ministering to the community, we said goodbye at our final celebration service on July 28, 2013. From the early days of washing your cars for free at 7-Eleven, hosting community Easter egg hunts at Barron, to launching our church and seeing Christ change lives, we are grateful we could be a living snapshot of God's grace.

Even though we are closing our doors, our trust in the Gospel continues on. We are so grateful to know that God has impacted our lives for eternity.

Thank you to Michael and Diane Armijo for allowing us to contribute to the Eastvale News' Pastor's Corner. Your faithful service to our community is amazing! Thank you to the Eastvale pastors for being a huge encouragement in my church-starting journey. It's been humbling to see your love for your churches and for Eastvale, and my prayer is to see your churches continue to grow in the love of Christ. A huge thank you goes to Clara Barton Elementary for hosting our worship services. It was a joy to serve you. To the countless others who faithfully read this column, prayed for or partnered with Sunrise, THANK YOU. You are a gift of God's grace to us.

As I round out my last Pastor's Corner, I think it right to end off with a benediction: Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only

Our Life

The Best Parenting Lesson I Ever Learned

By JENNIFER MADRIGAL

I live in a home where I am the only female. I am constantly surrounded by feet, armpits and "mystery smells". My fridge is always empty, no one knows where anything is and the toilet is always sticky in the way only a mother of boys will understand. I have bought stock in Clorox wipes and toilet paper and the cashiers at most of the supermarkets know me by name or by reference: that crazy lady with all those boys. My husband and I have tried to raise all of them with the same morals and values and often the same rules, but recently I decided to change things up a bit. While I used to be so obsessed with making sure that everything was equal, I now focus on making sure things are fair.

The idea of parenting each child "fairly" is much more complex than making sure everything is equal. A soccer coach friend of ours (who also has all sons) visually explained this to us by drawing a picture. In the picture there were three different sized boys trying to look over a fence and the question was, "What's better, Fair or Equal"? Of course, we all said, Equal. However, if they all stood on the same and equal box, then only one of them would be able to see over the fence, but if each child had a box customized to their size and thus was given a "fair" box, they would all get to see. Moral of the story, sometimes being fair is so much more effective than being equal, as equality isn't always the answer. What works for one may not work for all, especially when children aren't the same. This little lesson provoked a conversation between the boys and I about how things should happen at our house and I found that they were fond of this idea as well.

Each one of my boys has a distinct and defined personality that differs from the other. One is athletic and tough. One is tender and smart. One is an introvert who is nervous about new things and one has distinct special needs. I cannot approach them with the same approach because they are so completely different and require a unique approach. I now look at them with a new purpose and try to explain to them that I will treat them fairly, but one may be able to do things that another isn't able to do based on their behavior, abilities and personality. Luckily, my boys seem to get this, and while each one still thinks that they have it the worst in comparison, the concept is clear. How many times have you heard a parent lament over why they just can't understand how two kids who were raised exactly the same came out so different? Perhaps it's time we change our parenting style to reflect the needs of each individual child instead of expecting their needs to reflect our parenting style?

"Do It Yourself" Tips

The Eastvale Community News has decided to provide you with "Do It Yourself" tips we found for you to try at home!

If you have a tip you would like to share or if you know of a way to improve one of our tips, please email us at editor@anapr.com and title the email "Eastvale News Tips". Please note that these tips were found online and were based off other people's experiences. DIY Tips courtesy of Andrew Hoover.

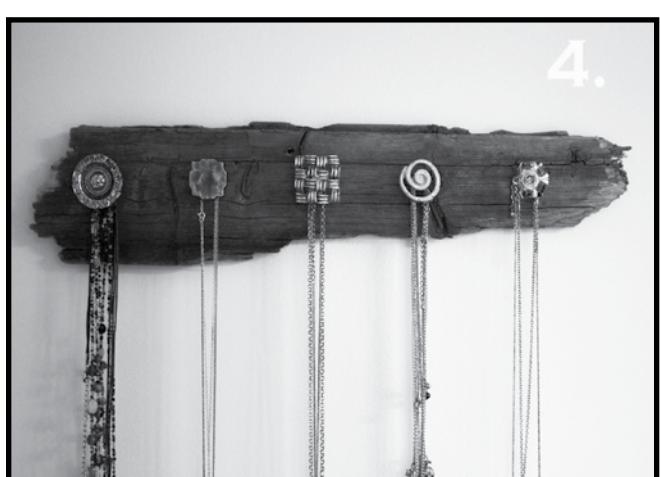

For Your Tools:

Guys, Your tools are an investment, and you need to protect them from damaging elements, especially moisture. Keep tools in your toolbox rust free by storing a few pieces of blackboard chalk in each compartment that contains metal tools or other hardware.

For Your Closet:

Ever wanted a fun and unique looking way to hold your necklaces instead of the usual wire hooks on the wall? Well this is what you've been looking for! What you will need for this project is a piece of wood (we prefer old looking wood or even driftwood for a fun rustic look) and some dresser/drawer knobs. To create this drill some holes into the wood where you want the knobs to be placed, then simply screw in the knobs and you have your very own necklace holder!

For Your Home:

Do you love candles? Well how about coffee? If you answered yes to both of those then you'll enjoy this neat and easy project that will make your house smell amazing for relatively cheap. Coffee scented candles! To make them get a small cup or even a small candle holder. Next, fill it up with coffee beans. Finally, add a small tea light candle in the middle, the heat from the candle will warm up the beans and make your house smell great!

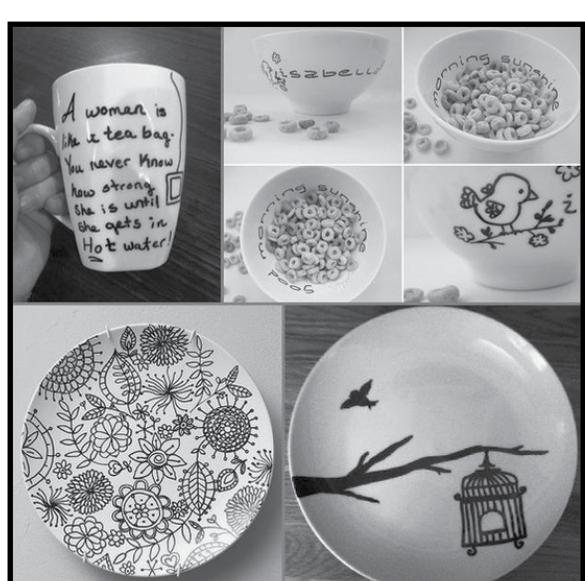

For Your Home:

Making pancakes is always a fun experience but it can sometimes get messy ladling out gobs of pancake batter. For a quick no-mess way of making pancakes, a simple household item can be your best friend. A ketchup bottle! Simply wash out an old ketchup bottle and pour the pancake batter into it and then squeeze out the batter directly into the pan, it's quick, clean, and gives you the right amount of batter each time.

For Your Coffee:

Looking for a fun gift idea for a friend or loved one? Or just looking for something fun to do for yourself? Ceramic Sketching is the new up and coming way to give your ceramic dishes a fresh new look. The process is incredibly simple to do and is only limited by your own artistic abilities. What you will need is a permanent marker of whatever color you desire and a ceramic dish whether it's a cup, bowl, plate, etc. Write or draw something onto the ceramic dish, when you're happy with the result put the dish into the oven at 350 degrees for 30 minutes, let the oven cool, then take out your new permanently designed dish. It is completely dishwasher safe as well.

Bike MS Is More Than A Ride

By SARAH ARMijo

Eastvale - Multiple sclerosis (MS) interrupts the flow of information between the brain and the body and it stops people from moving. Symptoms range from numbness and tingling to blindness and paralysis. Your memory may also fail for no apparent reason. The symptoms of MS are different, and devastating, for everyone - the only certainty is that it will affect yet another person every hour of every day.

Today, there is no cure for multiple sclerosis, and with diagnosis occurring most frequently between the ages of 20 and 50, many individuals face a lifetime filled with unpredictability. However, Bike MS is a series of 100 extraordinary cycling events across the county organized by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, that help raise funds to not only support research for a cure tomorrow, but also to provide programs which address the needs of people living with MS today.

Local resident, David Liefer, has registered for the MS Bike Tour because he wants to do something for the people who have been diagnosed - and because he wants to do everything to prevent more people from learning what it means to live with this disease.

Help Liefer reach his goal for his team, Team Jacobito, who are riding in honor of a dear friend, and a victim of MS. "Your gift helps provide local programs and services for people affected by MS, and funds cutting-edge research, putting us closer to realizing our promise to STOP MS in its tracks, RESTORE lost function and END MS forever," said Liefer. Visit <http://main.nationalmssociety.org/goto/DavidLiefer> to help them reach their goal. Every dollar counts!

"We can fight this disease by simply riding a bike, because we have chosen to help

City Council recap

the Council.

The first discussion was regarding the speed limits for certain streets. This ordinance would cause sections along Archibald Avenue to have the speed limits lowered to 45mph from 50mph due to a survey conducted that showed a large number of accidents along that stretch of road. The other street to have speed limits reduced was a section of Hamner Avenue, also being lowered to 45mph.

The next discussion was on the use Eastvale city vehicles. Eastvale resident, Dickie Simmons, brought up some issues that he felt should be acknowledged by the City Council, however, most of his concerns have already been enacted within the City.

Councilman Jeff DeGrandpre brought up the rules of decorum regarding any appointments within the City. Further discussion on this topic is pending.

The final issue was concerning the use of a facilitator to assist the Council Members in settling their differences in meetings. This topic was previously brought up by DeGrandpre, who felt it was a necessary element of a more professional meeting. However, when the estimated costs were proposed, DeGrandpre retracted his proposal, deciding to opt for other alternatives to settle differences, such as a retreat.

The City of Eastvale holds its regular City Council Meetings at 6:30 p.m., on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month, at Rosa Parks Elementary (12831 Whispering Hills Drive, Eastvale).

VALVOLINE TRANSMISSION SERVICE

$159.95
MUST PRESENT COUPON TO GET THIS PRICE

SERVICE NEEDED: After 30,000 miles, transmission fluid begins to turn brown in color and oxidize due to the contamination of time and heat. Deposits form around the transmission's many moving parts. As a result, valves stick and gears slip or are sluggish and chatter as they shift.

SOLUTION: Rather than just draining the contaminated fluid found in the bottom of the pan, special equipment cleans the entire transmission and its torque converter, while new fluid and premium conditioner are added. One of the hardest working parts of your vehicle will shift smoothly and effortlessly for many more trouble-free miles.

Most vehicles. No additional discounts apply. Synthetic transmission fluid extra. Redeem at Mountain View Tire location. See store for complete details. Exp. 8/31/13
