SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY RELEASE

San Bernardino – The County will continue to fight the state's efforts to grab $9 million set aside to rebuild fire-ravaged Cedar Glen. The Board of Supervisors today voted unanimously to appeal a May 27 Sacramento Superior Court ruling that would allow the state to disperse $9 million the county had loaned to the Cedar Glen rebuilding effort.

"That loan was a promise by the county to the people of Cedar Glen," said Board of Supervisors Chair Janice

Pacheco Selected To Walnut City Council

STAFF REPORTS

Walnut – At the Walnut City Council meeting on Wednesday night, the Council selected a familiar face to fill the vacant seat: former state Assemblyman Robert "Bob" Pacheco. The Council nominated Pacheco and then voted 3-0-1, with Councilman Eric Ching abstaining.

Before running for state office,

Pacheco served on the Walnut City Council in the 1990s for two years. Pacheco has been involved in the community for many years and that was one of the reasons why the council members were drawn to selecting him. In addition, Pacheco's political experience and con-

Diamond Bar – The Diamond Bar City Council recognized three Los Angeles County Sheriff's deputies last month for capturing a suspect that was wanted for local gas station robberies.

Deputies Danta Moore, Franklin Novelo, and Ray Huang were recognized for their efforts in arresting Edward Anthony Sanders outside the Arco AM/PM gas station at Brea Canyon Road and Lycoming St., just seconds after he committed a robbery.

Saunders, 31, was taken into custody on June 23 and is believed to have committed at least three armed robberies within four days at gas stations in Diamond Bar and Walnut, according to the LA County

Two Year Closure For Nogales Street

BY KIMBERLEY SANDER

City of Industry – According to the Alameda Corridor-East Construction Authority (ACE), construction has begun on the Nogales Street Grade Separation and Road Widening Project in the City of Industry and unincorporated areas of Rowland Heights. Once completed, the project will provide a train bridge over Nogales Street, and underpass for vehicular traffic and the widening of Gale Avenue and Walnut Drive North.

The goal of the project is to alleviate traffic congestion in that area and eliminate possible vehicle collisions with trains at the current crossing.

Although major construction began this past May, a Construction Alert from ACE says that Nogales Street is expected to be closed in the summer of 2014 for approximately two years. Prior to that, a detour route with a temporary railway crossing will be completed to connect local north/south traffic with Nogales Street.

The first year of construction will provide street widening for Gale Avenue and Walnut Drive North, the underground utility

24 Maternity Hotels Cited In LA County

NEWS RELEASE

La County - Twenty-four confirmed Maternity Hotels were cited in Los Angeles County, but overall, new complaints from the public about suspected birthing centers have decreased significantly, according to a new quarterly report released last week by the Chief Executive Office of Los Angeles County.

In total, the multi-agency taskforce, consisting of various County departments including Regional Planning and Sheriff's, as well as Mandarin and Cantonese translators, has inspected 82 locations throughout the County and was able to gain access to 70 properties suspected of operating maternity hotels. Numerous violations were found at these locations including unsafe health conditions, unpermitted room conversions, and properties operating as boarding homes without proper licensing. In the last three months, only three new complaints about suspected maternity hotels were logged.

"The inspections conducted by the taskforce have proven to

The Power of a Child

By MICHAEL ARMIJO

We go through life and we grow, we build, we conquer, we reach our successful arenas, our niche in life. We overcome things we never dreamt we could possibly overcome. We accomplish the impossible. Then we reflect and feel this power about ourselves, the power of controlling our lives and accomplishing the unbelievable. We finally become strong. We become forceful, we become dominant. We're feel that we're in control of our own destiny. And then one day, by an act from God, a 60 pound 4 foot 1 inch person rips every sense of power from you that you've tried all your life to obtain.

The Power of Love

I've felt helpless in my life, but I've always felt that I could overcome anything life gives me. I've always felt that I could survive any amount of pain my body could ever endure. I've felt that I am stronger than most, and smarter than many. But strength, intelligence, and endurance cannot compete with elements that have come into our lives that seem to have come as an act from God. And it has to be an act from God because man cannot make us feel this level of the power of love.

The Change of Life

When her tiny voice cried out, you could hear the weakness in the tone. She felt frail, lethargic, and warmer than she'd ever felt before. You could sense the virus creeping into her weak little body; she lay tired and motionless as her fever rises to 102. Your intelligence kicks in and you start the bath water running. Your strength motivates you to carry her to the water, in hopes of battling the illness that is trying to overcome your bundle of joy. Your endurance rises to the occasion and you stay up the entire night by her side trying your best to maintain your composure. But deep inside, you've never felt more afraid and helpless in all of your life.

Is It Worth It?

After her fever hits 104, and then 104.5 AFTER the bath. After you've seen the paramedics leave and you're on your way to the hospital. After you've spent another sleepless night by the bedside. You wonder if it all is worth it. You wonder if having this short little element in life is worth all the giving, the sharing, the loving, and the hurting. You just wish you wouldn't have to endure THIS part of the responsibility.

You sit slumped over on a chair with your head in your hands exhausted and lifeless. Your mind is wandering and wondering if it ever ends. Then you feel this soft gentle touch on the palm of your hand as her tiny fingers interlace with your own. You hear this frail voice gently say, "I love you daddy", and the tears gently roll from her eyes, down her cheeks, and your eyes follow suit.

The Hidden Message

You realize that you need this shiny little smile from a fragile little person. You need to feel the warmth and experience the joy that comes from a little girl. You need to understand the soft little hand that fits completely into your palm. Without it we cannot sense the warm rays of sunlight that touch our spirit, the uplifting feeling of joy that soothes our hearts. The embrace of a little girl that can dry a thousand tears and that can make a smile shine brighter than the deepest star. And then finally you sense why you must stay with her all through the night, and all through her life. Because when I see her, when I feel her, when she is near, she brings me to a world that others only dream about. She takes me to a level in life that only a child could take you; a level that can make you hear the magical music that's buried deep inside every early morning sunrise. A level that can only be reached through the strongest power of life, the power of a child.

City Council Commends City Employee For Heroic Deed

CITY OF WALNUT

Walnut — During the July 24, 2013 Walnut Council Meeting, the City Council presented numerous certificates and commendations to City of Walnut Recreation Leader, Larry Gordon, for properly using an automated external defibrillator (AED) to revive an unconscious patron at the Walnut Gymnasium/Teen Center.

During his shift on the night of July 12, 2013, Larry noticed a patron collapse on the basketball court and it was quickly determined that the patron was in cardiac arrest. 9-1-1 was called while Larry grabbed the facility AED, and a bystander began CPR on the patron. Larry then applied the AED to the patron and administered a shock, reviving the patron. L.A. County Fire Department Engine 146 and Squad 61 were dispatched to an unconscious patient on the basketball court at the Walnut Gym/Teen Center. When emergency personnel arrived, the patron was conscious and sitting-up. Emergency personnel transported the patron to Pomona Valley Hospital where he was discharged from three days later.

Emergency personnel commented that if not for the quick actions of Larry and the bystander prior to the arrival of the fire department, the patron would not have survived his cardiac arrest.

Mayor Antonio "Tony" Cartagena said, "I am proud that Larry is part of the Walnut family, and his heroic deed shows how important CPR/AED and first aid training is for all of us."

Larry received a commendation from the City Council as well as certificates from Senator Bob Huff, Assemblyman Curt Hagman, and Supervisor Gloria Molina's office.

For additional information please call Public Information Officer, Fabiola Huerta at (909) 595-7543 ext. 305. For information about the City of Walnut, please visit our web site at www.ci.walnut.ca.us.

"Those who attend our grand opening event will learn about what we have to offer and see how much fun it could be for their children to be a part of the Kiddie Academy family," said Tina Anand, owner of Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar. "The variety of activities available here at the Diamond Bar location are endless and we encourage children to learn, play and explore daily."

Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar recently had a very successful ribbon cutting on July 19 with the attendance of Diamond Bar Mayor Jack Tanaka, Mayor Pro-Tem Ron Everett, President of the San Gabriel Valley Chamber of Commerce Michael Gregoryk, Vice President of Marketing from the Kiddie Academy corporate offices Wendy Odell Magus, and other members of the community showing their support. They hope to have the same community support at the Grand Opening Summer Carnival Celebration.

Kiddie Academy is a popular and rapidly growing child care center that offers both a fun and safe learning environment that's taught by an experienced staff.

The passion of Kiddie Academy is to deliver the highest quality childcare possible. This passion, and their franchise's 30 years in business, has earned them a leadership position in education-based childcare. It's what drives them to positively shape the lives of children, families, and communities everywhere.

The director and owner of Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar opened up an academy that provides a secure and reliable learning experience for the children in Diamond Bar.

"The community of Diamond Bar is very close to our hearts because Gina [Director of Kiddie Academy] and I grew up here. We wanted to open up a place where the community can leave their children and feel happy to know that their children can be taken care of," said Anand.

At Kiddie Academy, they never take a single moment of your child's growth potential for granted. They feed your child's curiosity and instinct to learn with days filled with age-appropriate activities designed to treat every experience as an opportunity to learn.

Only Kiddie Academy provides the kind of care that focuses on days filled with learning and fun, the key ingredients of their Life Essentials curriculum. Their proprietary Life Essentials curriculum also focuses on social/emotional, physical and cognitive outcomes which are aligned with state preschool standards. These standards are based on skills, knowledge and abilities that children achieve through developmentally appropriate activities and experiences.

They are also a nationally networked franchise, which ensures strict standards and a consistent experience for your child. From family style dining to character education, their developmentally appropriate curriculum gives your child a full day of learning no matter what he or she is doing. Some of the best learning happens without your child even knowing it!

Kiddie Academy has also grown to be a premiere preschool on the east coast for the past 30 years. As one of the newest members of their franchise, Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar is bringing this commitment to quality early childhood education to the west coast.

Even though the Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar is a brand new school, they have a very well-educated and experienced staff. The combined teaching experiences of the staff are almost 50 years, with the director and teachers being previous Principals and teachers at local schools.

Kiddie Academy in Diamond Bar also has a professional chef on-site that cooks fresh meals every day. "We have a full-time Chef dedicated to cooking well-balanced nutritional meals for our children," said Anand.

Kiddie Academy also has a state of the art security system. "All of the parents have their own pin code, so that way only they can check their children in and out," said Anand.

Enrolling in extra-curricular activities is a must at Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar. They offer a variety of classes including foreign language, tae kwon do, cooking demonstrations, gardening, yoga, music and so much more. They also have computers in the older children's classrooms, according to Anand.

All extra-curricular activities are even included in the tuition!

In addition, Kiddie Academy offers Preschool Education for infants (6 weeks) through Kindergarten and offers Private Kindergarten. Right now, you can get free registration and two weeks free at Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar.

Kiddie Academy of Diamond Bar is located at 21385 Cold Spring Lane, Diamond Bar, CA 91765. You can reach them at (909) 444-4848 or visit their website at www.kiddieacademy.com/diamondbar. They are located off Diamond Bar Blvd. and Cold Spring Lane.

JDC focuses on photography as well as cinematography, and are willing to shoot any kind of event ranging from weddings, birthdays, quinceañeras, and sweet sixteen's, as well as photographic sessions with families and models.

JDC's philosophy is that they believe your event is a story. "We want our clients to feel like they are in a professional movie, not just a video," says Sandoval. "We want our photos to be a captured

Sandoval and his crew have been filming and photographing for a little over three years, teaming up with several photographers and cinematographers to help tell their clients' stories through their lenses.

JDC started with the simple idea that people's stories are hap-

Deputies honored by Diamond Bar City Council

Sheriff's Department.

After Saunders robbed a gas station at the AM/PM off Brea Canyon Rd. and Diamond Bar Blvd., Captain Jeff Scroggin said that they were able to get a great surveillance photo of Saunders. Deputies Moore, Novelo, and Huang then went around the area showing the picture to local businesses and gas stations.

On the night before Saunders was arrested, Deputy Moore went to the Arco Station and showed the clerk a surveillance photo of Sanders. A news release reported that Moore told him to be on the lookout for Sanders because he had committed other robberies in the area. Within two hours, the clerk saw Sanders in the parking lot and he appearance to be milling around, waiting for the customers in the store to leave. The clerk immediately called the Walnut Station to report seeing him. Moments after hanging up, Sanders walked in and robbed the clerk with a handgun. As he was walking out through the parking lot with an undetermined amount of cash, the deputies arrived and arrested him.

Evidence of other crimes was found in Sanders' car, which he had parked across the street in another parking lot. The Deputies checked with other police agencies and Scroggin said that Sanders is believed to have committed a total of 11 robberies. The semi-automatic handgun Sanders used in his robberies had been stolen in a residential burglary, according to the LA County Sheriff's Department.

Capt. Scroggin told the members of the Council that these deputies usually work the graveyard shift and he appreciates them for patrolling the streets while everyone is sleeping in order to keep the community safe.

"I'm very proud of my graveyard shift team," said Scroggin at the City Council meeting. "These guys are awesome and did a great job," he added.

Mayor Jeff Tanaka presented the certificates to the deputies on behalf of the Diamond Bar City Council and Diamond Bar community. "We applaud your work ethic and thank you for your exemplary services to the Diamond Bar community," said Tanaka.

Sanders appeared in Pomona Superior Court on July 15, where he pleaded not guilty to all of the charges. He faces one count of kidnapping to commit another crime, three counts of second degree robbery, three counts of possession of a firearm by a felon, one count of carrying a loaded stolen firearm, and one count of receiving stolen property, according to the the LA County District Attorney's office.

Sanders is being held on $1 million bail and his next court date is Aug. 7.

Straight Talk With Danice

DEAR DANICE AKIYOSHI ND

I recently got engaged. My fiancé proposed to me at a dinner party given by my best friend. It was a complete surprise to everyone who was there, including me. When he got down on one knee, with his hand shaking he opened the ring box and presented it to me. Everyone was shocked, and it happened so fast. Two people had the smart thinking to pull out their phones and take pictures and short videos as it was happening. They sent these on to me, and I posted them on my social media site, announcing my engagement. These pictures and short video are all I have to remember my engagement. I was speechless when my best friend asked me to remove the pictures because she was captured in them and so was her house. She is a very private person, and rarely posts anything on social media. She said she doesn't like total strangers seeing her on social media. I think she is being unreasonable and selfish. This was a big event for me and I want to share my happy memories. Am I wrong to ignore her and leave the pictures up?

Carmen
Dear Carmen,
This is not a matter of right and wrong. It's a matter of your preference versus her preference. You stated that your friend is a really private person. You also feel she is being unreasonable and selfish. Obviously, she is not really a selfish person since she had you and a few other friends in her home for a dinner party. Is she being a little unusual? Maybe... Have you ever wondered what made her such a private person? Does she respect your idiosyncrasies?

As I said, right and wrong are not at play here. If you don't take the post down, is your friendship in jeopardy? If she is your best friend, would you want her to be a part of your wedding party? Based on her unique personality style, is it time for a new best friend? Do you have several differences or only a few? I think it's time to do a little mental homework, Carmen. I hope the two of you work this out.
Congratulations on your engagement.

A Familiar Face

BY MARK HOPPER

I have this theory that whenever I go to the local Costco store I will meet someone I know. It has almost become a game. Who will I see when I go to Costco today?

home. It is not uncommon to meet someone you know when you are boarding a flight at the airport or boarding a cruise ship on vacation. Recently, my wife and I were on a long plane flight. As I walked by a couple in our section, I noticed they had a University of Arizona blanket with them. We lived in Tucson many years ago and I attended the U of A. So I could not resist commenting on their U of A blanket. Yes, they were from Tucson. Yes, they knew the U of A motto - "Bear Down". We enjoyed talking for a few minutes. Nice folks. However, my wife did not get to meet them. So, when we arrived at our destination and were getting off the plane, I pointed out the Tucson couple to my wife. She recognized the woman immediately. My wife remembered that this woman was an author and speaker. In fact, she had spoken at some women's events at our church in Tucson many years ago! When the man told me his name, I remembered him, too. He had led a large discipleship ministry in Tucson and we had met on several occasions during our Tucson days! What are the odds that you will meet some people that you have not seen in over 25 years on a plane flight half way around the world? What a small world!

I hope the next time you go to Costco or the next time you fly across the country, you watch and see if there is someone you know. You may be surprised at who you meet!

Getting Ready To Start School

BY NANCY STOOPS

In just a few weeks, our care free summers will end and school will begin. The lazy late nights will be replaced by endless hours of homework and studying. Very soon, sleeping late during the week will come to an end and rising early and on time will be the goal. Don't wait until the evening before to change behavioral patterns. Start right now on adjusting sleeping schedules and give your child or teen an advantage. It's really hard to make that sleeping change all at once and in one evening. Getting organized correctly can be such a help for creating an organized student. A good notebook with tab dividers and a separate folder for each subject within the dividers can be very helpful. A pouch with the necessary writing implements: a hole puncher, stapler and whatever else will help is also very necessary. I think some type of planner or organizer to write assignments down can really help as well. Help your child or teen figure out why they didn't meet the academic goals they had for last year. Teach them to set daily, weekly, semester and annual goals that are realistic and obtainable. It's important to understand that many times just doing class and homework isn't enough and that studying is an important part of academic success. I work with many young people in my practice and they seem to have a hard time asking their teachers for help because they don't want to appear stupid in front of their peers. Help your student find ways to get the help they need and in a way that they are okay with. Remind them to tell you right away before they are failing and can't raise that grade. I wish you success this year!

be a successful deterrent to new maternity hotels setting up in our neighborhoods and communities," said Supervisor Don Knabe, whose motion created the task-force and called for an ordinance to regulate maternity hotels in Los Angeles County.

A proposed ordinance to regulate maternity hotels was not recommended at this time because the Department of Regional Planning is still conducting inspections. The Department can still issue notices of violation where maternity hotels are operating illegally because under current County codes, boarding houses are not allowed in a single-family residential zones with more than five persons unrelated to the operator.

Canady is accused of being a pimp/human trafficker who exploits women and children for financial gain. The victims are required to turn over all payment they receive for sex acts from sex purchasers to their pimp.

Prior to July 25, 2013, the defendant is accused of driving 19-year-old Jane Doe #1, 16-year-old Jane Doe #2, and 15-year-old Jane Doe #3 to an area known for commercial sex on Beach Boulevard in Anaheim.

The defendant is accused of dropping off the victims and instructing them to engage in acts of commercial sex. Undercover officers of the Anaheim Police Department (APD) observed two $9 million could make a real difference in Cedar Glen, and the county will fight to keep its promise."

When the state abolished redevelopment agencies throughout the state in order to redistribute their funding to various state and local government agencies, it announced its intention to sweep up the $9 million that remained of a $10 million loan the county had made to Cedar Glen in 2005 as if it was redevelopment money.

On February 27, the county filed a lawsuit against the state pointing out the $9 was county money, not redevelopment money, and that it should be returned to the county so it could be invested in Cedar Glen, most of which was destroyed in the 2003 Old Fire.

The $10 million loan to the Cedar Glen Redevelopment Area was intended to help build roads and a new water system needed to allow residents burned out by the Old Fire to rebuild their homes.

The Board of Supervisors on February 12 adopted a resolution reaffirming the county's commitment to use the funding to rebuild Cedar Glen.

trafficking sweep.

This case was investigated by APD and the FBI. Deputy District Attorney Daniel Varon of the HEAT Unit is prosecuting this case.

nctions to state and federal legislators were also reasons why the council members considered him.

Ten candidates applied for the Council appointment to fill the vacant seat due to the resignation of Councilmember Tom King. Each candidate gave an oral presentation and told the Council about their qualifications and goals if they were picked to be a member of the Council. They also answered the council members' questions regarding a variety of topics in Walnut.

After talking with the candidates during the almost three hour meeting, the Council tried to decide how they were going to pick the applicant that they thought was the most qualified. Councilman Eric Ching made two suggestions regarding the voting process, but both failed to get support. City Attorney Michael Montgomery also made a suggestion to use their automated green light buttons, but the council members didn't support that as well. Then, Mayor Antonio "Tony" Cartagena suggested to keep the tradition of someone nominating a candidate and voting afterwards.

First, Ching nominated Dr. Howard Wang, who ran for council in 2010, but that motion failed. Ching then nominated James Swartz, who serves on the Parks and Recreation Commission, but that motion failed as well.

Then, Councilwoman Mary Su nominated Pacheco. She talked about his community involvement and pointed out that he can bring a lot of state and federal resources to Walnut.

Cartagena also spoke in support of Pacheco before the Council took the vote. Cartagena agreed that his community involvement and political expertise make him a good candidate. He also talked about how Pacheco has already contributed to the City of Walnut and has proven himself in previous actions.

Pacheco was sworn in to office by his wife, Gayle Pacheco. Pacheco's term ends in April 2014, but he still plans to run for the seat when his term is over.

After he was sworn in, he talked about the other nine candidates' talent, heart, and love for the city and he suggested getting together with the applicants to form an advisory committee.

He also talked about the City's budget and how he feels he can help get the City some money that the states owes Walnut in the form of intergovernmental transfers, according to local reports.

"Open Houses to Maximize Exposure of your Home!"

Gilbert,

We want to thank you for the very efficient and professional manner in how you handled the listing and sale of our daughter's townhouse in Hampton Court in Diamond Bar, CA. Your knowledge of the local market and your advice to us on the listing and sale procedures resulted in a successful sale. You are easy to do business with and we really appreciate your promptness in returning our calls whenever we had a question. We were also impressed with your using all the latest communication systems from FAX, cell phone, Texting, and E-mail to get the job done in a timely manner. This is our 3rd business experience with you including the purchase of Cheryl's condo in Ontario, Debbie's reappraisal of her townhouse, and now the sale of the townhouse. Obviously, we are very satisfied customers. Continued good luck with your real estate business in a very competitive environment. Hope we have the opportunity to cross trails again some day.

Sincerely, Al & Dorene M.
