VLF: Gov Brown Says No

By K.P. SANDER

Riverside County - On Sun., Sept. 28, Governor Jerry Brown vetoed the bill that would have restored funding that was diverted from California's four newest Riverside County cities: Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, Menifee and Wildomar.

The fate of the legislative bill expected to restore Vehicle License Fees (VLF) to these cities has had a disappointing outcome. Senate Bill 69 - sponsored by Senator Richard Roth

(D-Riverside) – proposed to move an estimated $18 to $19 million in property tax money normally marked for education to the four cities. SB69 stemmed in part from a 2011 decision by California lawmakers to transfer millions in VLF funds from cities as part of the AB109 prison realignment process that shifted these costs from the state to counties. This was

Reward For Serial AK-47 Bandit Who Shot Chino Officer

STAFF REPORTS

Chino – The Federal Bureau of Investigation has announced a $100,000 reward offered in exchange for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the AK-47 Bandit, who is linked to the robberies of six banks in four states, and the attempted murder of a Chino Police Officer using an assault rifle.

FBI offices across the nation are announcing publicity efforts and new video relative to a serial bank robber who shot a Police Officer in Chino in 2012 after robbing the California Bank & Trust on Feb. 29. Following this armed robbery, a police officer patrolling the area came upon the suspect fleeing the scene. The suspect fired upon the officer, seriously wounding him. Prior to the bank robbery, a threat was called into the 911 dispatch center from a payphone in the general vicinity of the bank by a male caller.

Rare Virus May Head For Riverside County

By SHAUNDA GOEGBUER

Riverside County - According to the Center For Disease Control (CDC), from mid-August through Oct. 6, nearly 600 confirmed cases of a rare respiratory virus known as Enterovirus 68 (EV-D68) have been documented in 43 different states and the District of Columbia.

Some State Labs may also have confirmed cases, but they are not included in the CDC's official count unless they are confirmed specifically by the CDC.

The CDC's current confirmed cases started in the states of Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, and Missouri, and now include Alabama, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

The virus appears to be rapidly making its way across the United States and could find its way to Riverside County before the end of October.

Optics, Inc., which was traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol EYE, was added to an indictment that had previously named former professional baseball player Douglas DeCinces and two of his associates.

According to the United States Attorney's Office, the case, which was initially filed in 2012, alleges that Mazzo was the source of non-public information that DeCinces and his associates used to trade EYE stock in the midst of a takeover bid by Abbot Laboratories.

The 41-count superseding indictment filed on Sept. 24 in United States District Court charges Mazzo with providing DeCinces with confidential information in advance of Abbott's 2009 acquisition of Advanced Medical Optics. DeCinces and his associates allegedly used the non-public information to purchase shares of EYE, which increased from approximately $8 to $22 as a result of the acquisition.

The indictment further alleges that Mazzo previously provided DeCinces with inside information in relation to Advanced Medical Optics' 2007 acquisition of an Irvine medical device company, IntraLase Corp. (NASDAQ: ILSE). DeCinces allegedly used this inside information to purchase IntraLase stock, and to tip a friend to purchase shares, ahead of the announcement that Advanced Medical Optics was purchasing the company. IntraLase stock rose approximately ten percent after the announcement of the deal.

The superseding indictment names Douglas V. DeCinces, 64, of Laguna Beach, who currently is the president and CEO of a real estate development firm in Irvine; David Parker, 62, of Provo, Utah, who was a friend and business partner of DeCinces; and Fred Scott Jackson, 68, of Newport Beach, a real estate attorney who was friends with DeCinces.

The four defendants indicted in this case will be summoned to appear for arraignments in United States District Court in Santa Ana.

The indictment charges Mazzo with 13 counts of insider trading, 13 counts of tender offer fraud and one count of securities fraud.

DeCinces is charged with 19 counts of insider trading, 19 counts of tender offer fraud, one count of securities fraud and one count of money laundering.

Parker and Jackson are each charged with three counts of insider trading, three counts of tender offer fraud, and one count of securities fraud. Parker additionally faces one count of money laundering and criminal forfeiture.

The securities fraud count carries a maximum statutory sentence of 25 years in federal prison. Each of the insider trading and tender offer fraud counts in the indictment carry a maximum statutory sentence of 20 years. The money laundering counts each carry a maximum penalty of 10 years.

DeCinces reportedly settled the case without admitting or denying the allegations, agreeing to pay $2.5 million in fines and not contest the IRS' seizure of what were alleged to be insider trading profits. Jackson, without admitting or denying the allegations in the lawsuit also settled with the Securities and Exchange Commission, returning his profits and paying a penalty. A trial for Mazzo and Parker is scheduled for August 2015 in United States District Court in Santa Ana.

The investigation in this case was conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and IRS Criminal Investigation. The Securities and Exchange Commission provided assistance during the investigation.

CreditDonkey – a credit card comparison website that publishes data-driven analyses to help customers save money and make savvy financial decisions – recently published a study that evaluated the best cities to raise a family in Southern California.

The criterion used to determine the top cities was based upon populations of 25,000 plus; education levels; housing costs; household types; commute times; and residency. CreditDonkey studies have shown that the more educated residents are, the higher their quality of life seems to be.

Walnut, or Rancho de Nogales as it was originally known (Ranch of the Walnut Trees) – ranked at number nine out of ten in this particular study. Overall, the top cities highlighted are: 1) Poway;

2) Manhattan Beach; 3) South Pasadena; 4) Lake Forest; 5) Moorpark; 6) Rancho Santa Margarita; 7) Rancho Palos Verdes; 8) Cypress; 9) Walnut; and 10) Santee.

The City of Walnut has also been ranked in Money Magazine's "America's Best Small Towns" study in 2009 and 2011.

VLF: Gov Brown says no

done to help counties absorb these new costs. The removal of these resources greatly impacted newer municipalities that relied heavily upon VLF funds. Because state law requires full funding for education, that money would have to have been repaid from the general fund.

Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, Wildomar, and Menifee, all of which have incorporated since 2008, have worked with a lobbyist for the past two years trying to get the funds restored, but to no avail. In a providential act, Eastvale dropped out of the lobbying earlier this year, with Mayor Ike Bootsma stating that there were better ways to spend that money.

Many, including Riverside County Supervisor, Second District, John Tavaglione, had hoped to see the bill succeed. Tavaglione has worked tirelessly for the county and on this project in particular. At their regular board meeting on Tues., Sept. 30, he had some strong words in response to the veto.

John Benoit, Riverside's Fourth District Supervisor, began the discussion on the veto saying that this was the third time the Governor has vetoed similar legislation. The four cities were told they would get an extra slice of the VLF to help them incorporate, and then the state changed the rules after the fact. The last time the Legislature voted to override a veto was in 1979, during Brown's first term as governor. Benoit asked if there were legal avenues to explore.

"The courts may take a different view," Benoit said regarding Brown's veto.

When Tavaglione took his turn at the board meeting to comment on the Governor's veto, his quiet eloquence did not mask his anger over the situation. He stated he would not delay pursuing legal action, and recommended that they send a letter to Senator Roth – whom he called a "true professional" – strongly suggesting a lawsuit.

"Senator Roth has worked

"This is a slap in the face to this county and the four cities that have worked very, very hard to become incorporated."

- Riverside County Supervisor John Tavaglione

diligently on this and many other actions, and was literally slapped in the face on this bill. I fully concur on the lawsuit," said Tavaglione.

In 2010-11, the state was rapidly shifting responsibilities to the counties (including AB109, and Health and Human Services). With that shift, it became increasingly difficult for counties to provide municipal services to unincorporated areas. Incorporation was encouraged, with the VLF added in to help financially. When a city is counting on that funding as a significant portion of their operating budget, it becomes difficult, if not impossible, to retain independence.

Tavaglione ended his board meeting comments on the veto by saying, "Those of us who were around during the Edmund G. [Pat] Brown, Sr. administration, remember that he was a true governor. He used true infrastructure for building roads and bridges. Jerry Brown is not his father's son, I will tell you that. He has not represented us well, and I'm embarrassed to say he is our governor. This is a slap in the face to this county and the four cities that have worked very, very hard to become incorporated. This was a miserable, cold-hearted action."

In Sunday's message regarding the veto, Governor Brown stated, "I do not believe that it would be prudent to authorize legislation that would result in long term costs to the [state's] general fund." Tavaglione says the governor is using his billion dollar High Speed Rail as a priority.

Steven Aguilar, a candidate for Eastvale City Council, in a recent Facebook post said, "For Jerry Brown to meet with Riverside County officials in January and say he doesn't understand what the big deal is with these four new cities is absurd. Jurupa Valley is in dire need of a financial boost from the State. Eastvale, Menifee, and Wildomar would have been in a better position than the cities are today. Jerry Brown needs to realize that having a city disincorporate under his term is NOT the best way to be remembered. Every constituent from all four cities needs to elect the best representation that will determine the sustainability of each city."

While Eastvale may persevere, other cities may not be so fortunate.

Michele Nissen, Public Information Officer for Eastvale, says City officials have been prudent in their budgeting without relying on the VLF funds.

"We have been very conservative in our budget decisions (past, present and future) and have not counted on getting the VLF money back. The major impact to the City is that the loss of VLF money takes away our ability to provide more police officers and other services," said Nissen.

The loss of VLF funds was hardest on Jurupa Valley, which was the last of the four cities to incorporate, just two days after the shifting of VLF funds by the state in 2011. The new city lost nearly half of its general fund budget during its first year. It has since cut expenses and delayed some payments to Riverside County. But without restoration of the VLF funds, the city expects to run out of money by July 2015; perhaps a few months longer. As a precaution, city officials reluctantly began the lengthy disincorporation process this past January.

If Riverside County pursues the lawsuit, we have definitely not heard the last of this very controversial issue.

Reward for serial AK-47 bandit who shot Chino officer

Investigators believe the suspect employed a diversionary tactic in an attempt to delay officers responding to the bank robbery.

The suspect has also been linked to bank robberies in Washington and Idaho, with the most recent incident happening in Nebraska City, Nebraska on Aug. 22.

During this most recent robbery at the First Nebraska Bank, the suspect carried a duffel bag and an assault rifle with a drum magazine similar to the weapon seen in his earlier robberies. The suspect proceeded to remove cash from the tellers' drawers and directed employees to comply with his demands. The suspect then fled the bank with the stolen cash.

Agents are partnering with multiple agencies across many states, and investigators believe the suspect may continue to travel extensively to commit additional crimes.

The suspect is described as a white male, 25 to 40 years of age, 5'9" to 6'0", approximately 180 to 230 pounds, with a large, stocky build. He possibly has blue eyes, and speaks with a deep, loud voice that carries no accent. He brandishes an AK-47 automatic assault rifle with a drum magazine. During some of the robberies, the suspect wore a black balaclava-style ski mask, black gloves, and navy blue body armor. He has also been seen with a green mesh vest with the word, "Sheriff," on the back, and a Sheriff's star-type badge pinned to the front of his closing. He has been reported to drive a grey, four-door, 2009-2011 Nissan Maxima with dark-tint windows and stock chrome rims, and a red/orange Jeep Liberty or Patriot SUV with a tire mounted on the back.

The suspect has committed crimes including robbery, attempted robbery and/or attempted murder in Chino, California; Sacramento, California; Vacaville, California; North Bend, Washington; Rexburg, Idaho; and Nebraska City, Nebraska.

The reward of up to $100,000 is being offered collectively by multiple entities that each attach a separate set of criteria that must be met in order to be distributed (FBI, up to $50,000; City of Chino, up to $20,000; California Bank & Trust, up to $10,000; and East Idaho Credit Union, up to $20,000).

The FBI is urging residents in all states to take a close look at the photographs and listen to the audio that has been made public. Video, audio, images and additional information can be found by visiting <http://www.fbi.gov/news/stories/2014/september/help-us-catch-the-ak-47-bandit>.

The suspect is proficient with an assault weapon and will not hesitate before shooting someone to avoid capture. He is considered heavily armed and extremely dangerous. Refrain from taking any independent action. Anyone with information regarding this suspect (or someone that meets the descriptions or has access to this type of gear or weapon), or is familiar with these vehicles, is asked to contact 1-800-CALL-FBI.

Rare virus may head for Riverside County

documented and isolated in the State of California back in 1962. Until recently, no new major outbreaks have occurred. The virus starts out with symptoms similar to a common cold, including runny nose, coughing, sneezing, fever, body and muscle aches; but it can quickly escalate to wheezing and cause difficulty breathing in those infected.

Infants, children and teens are the most likely to contract the virus due to a lack of immunity to similar viruses. Children with no historical asthmatic indications are reportedly experiencing symptoms such as wheezing. However, children with a history of asthma are at a significantly higher risk for developing severe respiratory illness caused by the virus.

There is no cure for the illness, but over-the-counter medications may be helpful. Parents and caregivers should look for signs of wheezing, difficulty eating or speaking, or blueness around the lips; and should particularly be watchful with asthmatic children as symptoms can develop unexpectedly.

Should severe symptoms develop, hospitalization may be necessary.

Since the illness is likely spread through coughing, sneezing, or touching contaminated surfaces, healthy hygiene is encouraged - such as washing hands for at least 20 seconds - and avoid touching the face, especially the eyes, nose and mouth. Refrain from sharing drinks or eating utensils, and disinfect items frequently touched such as toys, door knobs, and light switches.

The CDC is continuing to collect information from states to better understand and assess the situation of EV-D68 and the respiratory illness caused by this virus.

For more information about the Enterovirus 68, visit www.cdc.gov.

ly from Bellflower, the Voortman family - who has always been in the egg ranching business - moved their operation to Ontario in 1951.

Voortman's has a small-town farm ambiance, with the latest in technology. Their happy chickens are enjoying their newly remodeled home; and their egg-processing machine can handle about 36,000 eggs per hour at its peak. If the average bird lays one egg about every 26 hours, that equals a lot of chickens at the Voortman ranch!

Did you know that you can tell how fresh an egg is by how high the yolk stands up in the frying pan after you crack it? Voortman's will have your over-easies standing tall. Their fresh eggs are the highest in quality, with dark, nutrient-dense yolks. You will immediately notice a difference in your cooking and baking.

Have you ever wondered how long the eggs in the grocery stores have actually been sitting around? Despite the use-by date, there is really no way to know how long ago they were produced. With Voortman's, the eggs are selected daily, on site, and readied for you in their store.

Third-generation egg rancher, Eddie Voortman, says, "We are a local, family-owned business that provides fresh, quality products to the public."

Customers of Voortman's rave about their all natural, cage free eggs, touting the freshness, and great pricing. One customer said, "They make the fluffiest scrambled eggs!"

The eggs come in all sizes and colors, depending on your needs. Whatever you choose, you will not be disappointed.

Voortman's is centrally located just minutes from Chino and Eastvale at 13960 Grove Avenue in Ontario (just north of Edison). You can reach Voortman's at (909) 465-1319; and Like them on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Voortmans-Egg-Ranch>.

Stop by any time Monday through Saturday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and see their ad at right.

VALVOLINE TRANSMISSION SERVICE

SERVICE NEEDED: After 30,000 miles, transmission fluid begins to turn brown in color and oxidize due to the contamination of time and heat. Deposits form around the transmission's many moving parts. As a result, valves stick and gears slip or are sluggish and chatter as they shift.

SOLUTION: Rather than just draining the contaminated fluid found in the bottom of the pan, special equipment cleans the entire transmission and its torque converter, while new fluid and premium conditioner are added. One of the hardest working parts of your vehicle will shift smoothly and effortlessly for many more trouble-free miles.

Most vehicles. No additional discounts apply. Synthetic transmission fluid extra. Redeem at Mountain View Tire location. See store for complete details. Exp. 10/31/14.
