DB Amending Massage Parlor Regs

Diamond Bar – Prostitution worries are prompting the City of Diamond Bar to amend its regulations regarding massage parlor businesses.

Local governments are being given new laws in the fight against organized prostitution, and cities like Diamond Bar are working to make obtaining permits more difficult for businesses that would offer illicit services under the guise of massage parlors.

Prostitution rings being housed in massage parlors might be a pop culture image in movies and TV, but the threat has become a major reality in Los Angeles and Orange counties - so much so that Governor Jerry Brown signed Assembly Bill 1147 back in September to fight the epidemic.

Following Brown's lead, the Diamond Bar City Council approved a 45-day moratorium

No NFL In LA? Hold That Thought

BY GLENN FREEMAN AND K.P. SANDER

Industry – While it is true that NFL Commissioner, Roger Goodell, recently said that the league will not support relocation of a team in Los Angeles for the 2015 season, there is reason to speculate that the local football future looks promising.

Goodell's statement was directed at three teams in particular: the Rams, Raiders, and Chargers.

These outfits have lease terms and clauses that will be expiring, and all have been mentioned as possibly looking into a move to the nation's second-largest television market. There is movement, however, by Rams' owner, Stan Kroenke.

Speculation of a move by the Rams ramped up last year after Kroenke purchased a 60-acre parcel in Inglewood adjacent to Hollywood Park. The San Diego Chargers – who draw a significant amount of fans and sponsors from the Los Angeles area – are reportedly staying put while they look at their own stadium negotiations. And Oakland Raiders owner, Mark Davis, was approached recently by San Antonio for relocation. According to ESPN.com, Davis was "impressed" with the city's pitch. All of this makes the Rams move to Inglewood look pretty viable.

Goodell's statement does not keep teams from filing an application to relocate for 2015. Yet it's highly unlikely any team that files for 2015 will garner enough support needed to relocate given the Commissioner's directive. Instead, Goodell indicated that 2016 may be a more favorable time for relocation. Barring a miracle, however, a new stadium to house a relocation would

Did You Know?

By K.P. SANDER

Martin Luther King, Jr. had a dream.
“I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: ‘We hold these truths to be self-evident - that all men are created equal...’

Departing from prepared text, King delivered his 17-minute - most famous - speech in front of the Lincoln Memorial on Aug. 28, 1963, during the March on Wash- ington for Jobs and Freedom.

According to Wikipedia, Martin Luther King, Jr. was an American pastor, activist, humanitarian, and leader in the African-Ameri- can Civil Rights Movement. He was born Michael King on Jan. 15, 1929, in Atlanta, Georgia. His father changed his name to honor the German reformer Martin Luther.

King attended Morehouse Col- lege, Crozer Theological Semi- nary, and then Boston University, obtaining a Ph.D. in 1955. Dr. King became a Baptist minister and civil rights activist early in his career. He helped found the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in 1957, and served as its first president.

King spent his adult lifetime struggling against segregation, poverty and racial inequality - always striving to keep his Chris- tian beliefs in the forefront – and helped organize peaceful, but profound, marches in Washing- ton and Alabama.

King had the opportunity to visit Gandhi in India and study his stance on peace. He men- tioned his example in his ad- dress when receiving the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964, hailing the “successful precedent” of using non-violence “in a magnificent way by Mohandas K. Gandhi to challenge the might of the British Empire... He struggled only with the weapons of truth, soul force, non-injury and courage.”

As the victim of violence, it makes his assassination all the more poignant that his promo- tion of non-violence as the best way to challenge might did not carry him past 39 years.

In late March 1968, King went to Memphis, Tennessee in sup- port of the black sanitary public works employees who had been on strike for weeks looking for better treatment and wages. His flight out of Memphis was delayed because of a bomb threat, and in response he had some prophetic words to say as he addressed a rally at the Mason Temple and delivered his “I’ve Been to the Mountaintop” speech.

“...Longevity has its place. But I’m not concerned about that now. I just want to do God’s will. And He’s allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I’ve looked over. And I’ve seen the Promised Land. I may not get there with you. But I want you to know to- night, that we, as a people, will get to the Promised Land. So I’m happy, tonight. I’m not worried about anything. I’m not fearing any man. Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord.”

He was booked into the Lor- raine Motel in Memphis, room 306. On April 4, 1968, at 6:01 p.m., Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was standing on the motel’s second-floor balcony when he was shot. The bullet entered his cheek, smashed his jaw, and went through his spinal cord before resting in his shoulder. He was rushed to St. Joseph’s Hospital, and after emergency chest surgery he was pro- nounced dead just an hour after the shooting, at 7:05 p.m.

On Nov. 2, 1983, from the White House Rose Garden, President Ronald Reagan signed a bill creating a federal holiday to honor King. It was first observed on Jan. 20, 1986, and on Jan. 17, 2000, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day was offi- cially observed in all 50 states.

King was known as one of the greatest orators in American history.

prohibiting the establishment, expansion or relocation of mas- sage establishments in order for City officials to amend its municipal code to ensure that all massage parlors are free of prostitution.

According to Mayor Steve Tye, the moratorium was creat- ed with public safety in mind.

“The City plans to develop and codify new zoning, land use and business license regu- lations on massage establish- ments in an effort to mitigate any potential negative effects associated with the use, all in a manner consistent with AB1147,” Tye said.

Originally, SB731 and AB619 were created to professional- ize the massage industry by creating uniform standards for massage practitioners and therapists in California. The two bills established a voluntary certification process for massage professionals under the California Massage Therapy Council (CAMTC), effectively blocking cities from denying land use controls pertaining to massage estab- lishments.

The end result, through- out California, has been an increase in prostitution being well hidden behind faux massage establishments.

With AB1147, city govern- ments no longer have to com- ply with the CAMTC and are free to once again allow or deny massage establishments based on their merit.

Tye said he believes that the temporary moratorium will lead municipal codes that ensure that illegal prostitution fronts never have a place in the City.

“The moratorium will help the City by halting establish- ment of new massage-related businesses until the City de- velops amendments to our municipal code to establish appropriate local regulatory measures - as permitted by AB1147 - that are consistent with new state law,” Tye said. “This will better ensure that massage establishments in Diamond Bar are legitimate and regulated effectively for overall public safety.”

Furthermore, Tye noted that the moratorium was not created out of desperation to rid Diamond Bar of prostitu- tion since the City has had no prostitution arrests in any of its massage parlors.

Tye also indicated that the moratorium will be in effect for 45 days, beginning Jan. 6, but that the prohibition period can be extended two times- once for 10 months and 15 days, and a second and final time of one year.

Tye said that to ensure the safety of Diamond Bar resi- dents, City officials will “take as much time as necessary to get it right.”

resulting in tragedy. On Sun., Jan. 4, at approximately 2:15 a.m., San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department (SBSD) Deputies from the Big Bear Station discovered Cimbaluk's snow-covered vehicle at the Woodland Trailhead in the mountain town of Fawnskin. According to SBSB, Deputies and volunteers began an exploration of the immediate area, but because of the snow and extreme overnight temperatures, they suspended their search until daylight. On Mon., Jan. 5, the search for Cimbaluk continued, with 25 search and rescue members searching the area around the North Shore Parking Lot where her car was found, as well as the Woodland Trail. Patrol Citizens handed out flyers in surrounding communities, and SBSB began aerial searches of the area. After suspending activity for the night, the search resumed again on Tues., Jan. 6, with more than double the number of search and rescue members actively looking for Cimbaluk, including assistance from Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and Kern counties. The search continued, and on Thurs., Jan. 8, at approximately 10 a.m., a body was located in the water near the South Shore area of Big Bear Lake from an aerial exploration. Personnel responded to the area and confirmed it to be a deceased female. The Coroner took charge and was able to positively identify the body as that of Lisa Ann Cimbaluk. Whether Cimbaluk became lost or injured on the trail, or was the victim of foul play, is not known. SBSB will continue its investigation into her death, and hopefully be able to piece together the final days of Lisa Cimbaluk. Anyone with information is urged to call the Sheriff's Department at (909) 866-0100.

One victim was treated at the scene, and two were transported to a local hospital for treatment. At approximately 3:10 a.m. on Jan. 1, one of the victims – Security Guard, Richard Williamson, 48, of Riverside, was pronounced deceased at the hospital. tacted the San Dimas Sheriff's Station. Further investigation found the victims to be Shirley Isom, 74, and Armie "Troy" Isom, 89. According to LASD, a multitude of detectives and forensic specialists have been involved in the investigation since the beginning. The expansive residence of the victims and its large-scale surrounding property led to a crime scene investigation that spanned several days. In addition, detectives have interviewed family members and many area residents in an effort to determine the identity of the suspect(s) and a possible motive. At press time, no definitive conclusions have developed and diligent investigation will continue. Detectives are working to identify and locate a Hispanic male who was seen walking on the roadways in the area around the time the crime was discovered. He was wearing a hooded jacket and was carrying a backpack on his back. It is unknown if this man is connected to the crime, but detectives are seeking to interview him.

LASD held a Press Conference on Jan. 7 to discuss the double-murder investigation thus far, and to seek the public's assistance in identifying a suspect. Anyone who has information about the person of interest, or anything to do with this crime, is asked to call the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Homicide Bureau at (323) 890-5500. not be completed for the 2016 – or 2017, for that matter – season.

While officials in St. Louis are working to keep the Rams - USA Today recently reported that Missouri Governor, Jay Nixon, has sought advisement on options to “ensure that St. Louis remains an NFL City for years to come,” – Kroenke is moving behind the scenes.

On Jan. 5, Kroenke and the redevelopment company for the former Hollywood Park racetrack announced plans to incorporate an 80,000-seat sports stadium into an already approved multipurpose entertainment venue.

Hollywood Park as it currently stands.

The fully capitalized project – which was approved by the city of Inglewood in 2009 – has a total of 4 million square feet awaiting retail, office, hotel, residential and other options in design. The stadium would not only provide an ideal location for an NFL team, but other sports (think soccer) and large-scale events (think Staple Center) could take place there as well.

Residents in the city of Inglewood must vote approval of the arena, but officials from Hollywood

Park Land Company say the proposed stadium will come to fruition whether an NFL team makes the move to the Greater Los Angeles area, or not. Kroenke's venture does not guarantee anything. It could mean a move for the Rams or simply a capital venture for billionaire Kroenke.

The St. Louis Rams – who played in Los Angeles (and later Anaheim) from 1946 to 1994 – are reportedly less than happy with their current situation. With Nixon looking for ways to keep them, and Kroenke (possibly) looking to move them, at this point there is no official nod in either direction.

Kroenke's control of a new stadium project raises an eyebrow in the direction of Greater Los Angeles, and even though many stadium proposals have come and gone in the last 20 years, this encourages a more concentrated hope for a local NFL team.

The Law Offices of Dominic Chacon

of Dominic Chacon are here to help.

Chacon graduated from Southwest University School of Law in 2003, and has been practicing ever since. When he decided to start his own law firm, Chacon opted not to specialize in any one particular area of law.

“It’s a general law practice. We wanted to appeal to a broad range of people,” said Chacon. “We wanted to be a one-stop shop.”

Chacon wants to provide assistance with all facets of the law, from business legalities to divorce and everything in between; he didn’t want to limit his ability to help someone.

“We want to be able to help with all of life’s legal problems,” he said. “By opening a general practice, we are able to establish and maintain quality and familiarity.”

The Law Offices of Dominic Chacon specialize in Family and Immigration Law, Corporation Formation, Criminal Law, Bankruptcy, Personal Injury and Worker’s Compensation. They also work with clients on an individual basis, which makes it more personalized and more affordable.

Chacon feels that the diligence, energy and responsiveness of his office are not only their best assets, but they are essential to his company and the relationships with his clients.

“When you walk out of our office, you are definitely informed about your situation, or the direction your suit will go,” Chacon said. “We can’t predict everything, of course, but we use the words ‘I don’t know’ effectively. And what we don’t know, we find out.”

Whatever legal situation you might find yourself in, put your mind at ease and contact the Law Offices of Dominic Chacon. They are located at 2341 S. Azusa Avenue, West Covina, CA 91792, and can be reached at (626) 839-8852, via email at ldominicchacon@yahoo.com, or visit www.ldominicchaconlaw.com. # Delicious, authentic cuisine at Mandarin Taste

Taste provides a family-friendly atmosphere that keeps customers coming back again and again.

“We are like a family restaurant,” says manager, Chi Young, when describing how their customers feel when visiting. “People are always smiling here,” he adds.

Mandarin Taste has thrived because they take pride in their recipes, and work hard to bring you authentic Chinese cuisine. They specialize in Peking Duck, and the Ginger Lobster served at Sunday Brunch is a delicacy you’ll return for again and again. Mandarin Taste is well known for their Wonton Soup, and customer favorites are the Crispy Shrimp, Walnut Shrimp, and the Fried Dumplings.

The Champagne Sunday Brunch is very popular, and features a variety of delectable dishes in an all-you-can-eat buffet presentation. The champagne is all-you-can-drink, too!

The Mandarin Taste owners and staff want everyone who comes to their establishment to relax and enjoy themselves over the delicious food in their pleasant ambiance. If you don’t have time to linger, you can call in a delicious order to go.
