Chino Hills Man Arrested for Kidnapping, Rape

STAFF REPORTS

Chino Hills – A Chino Hills man, along with two other men, have been arrested for various crimes after using a social media app to lure kids.

The three men, in their 20's, were arrested Monday, after police found a girl in a Chino Hills home who followed leads on a social media app, Ontario PD said.

The three men -- Irving Galvan, 22 from Chino Hills, Encino Limon, 21, from Corona and Eric Trejo, 25 -- were all in police custody.

The girl, whose age was not released, was believed to have been kidnapped, held against her will and sexually assaulted, police said.

Galvan was arrested at his home on suspicion of kidnapping, rape, child molestation, and false imprisonment.

Limon was arrested on suspicion of child molestation.

Trejo was arrested in San Bernardino after officers accused him of using the app to contact the same girl. He was arrested on suspicion of contacting a minor with the intent to commit a sexual offense.

Police believe there are more victims and ask if anyone who has had contact with the suspects to call Ontario Police Department at (909) 986-6711 or Detective Chris Ables at (909) 408-1642.

Chino Groom Beaten at Reception

STAFF REPORTS

Chino - A Chino man was brutally beaten at his wedding and later died last month according to police

Joe Melgoza, 30, died the day after his wedding, from blunt force trauma to the head, at Chino Valley Medical center.

Two uninvited men, who were wedding crashers, came into the wedding reception and were asked to leave. They came back later, about 2 am, with baseball bats and beat the groom for unknown reasons. The incident occurred at the bride's sisters home in Chino.

Rony Aristides Castaneda Ramirez, 28, and his brother, Josue Daniel Castaneda Ramirez, 19, were arrested without incident Sunday afternoon. No formal charges have been revealed so far.

Melgoza was found in the backyard of a nearby home, and was taken to a nearby hospital where he died, police said. He has an 11-year-old daughter, of whom he had sole custody, the family told NBC Los Angeles.

The investigation is still ongoing.

Laws Impacting: From Rent Control to Hairstyles Take Effect

STAFF REPORTS

California – New laws take in effect this month and some in July ranging from rent control and spanning to hair styles. Here is a list of the new state laws that will take effect on January 1, 2020, broken down by Senate Bill (SB) and Assembly Bill (AB) for your reference:

WORKPLACE

SB 3: Minimum wage

Another pay hike is on the way for minimum wage workers. The minimum wage in California goes up by one dollar to $12 an hour for workers at companies with 25 or fewer employees and to $13 an hour for workers at larger companies.

AB 5: Independent workers

While aimed directly at gig workers, this new law may also apply to many more contract or independent worker in California. Under AB-5, workers would be considered employees and not independent contractors if the employer controls the work, directs them in the course of their work or if the worker's job is part of a company's core business. Uber and several other businesses are suing to stop Assembly Bill 5.

SB 188: Hairstyles

California becomes the first state to ban workplace and school discrimination based on a person's natural hairstyle or hair texture, with the Crown Law. Protected hairstyles include braids, twists and locks.

SB 142: Lactation accommodations

While California has had a law requiring employers to provide breaks for nursing mothers, many were forced to express breast milk in a bathroom stall or office closet. This new law requires companies to provide appropriate lactation accommodations that is close to the employee's work area, has electrical plugs and is free of intrusion.

AB 51: Arbitration agreements

Starting January 1, workers can't be forced into mandatory arbitration by an employer. The law bans mandatory arbitration agreements with employees. The law does not apply to arbitration agreements entered into prior to January 1, 2020.

SB 1343: Sexual harassment

Requires businesses with at least five employees to provide sexual harassment training to

Staff Reports

Diamond Bar – A late night crash woke neighbors in a Diamond Bar neighborhood when a solo crash occurred at 2:45 am last week.

The crash occurred when a 19-year-old Rancho Cucamonga teen suffered serious injuries after his car hit two light poles and a fire hydrant on North Diamond Bar Boulevard and Soltaire Street in Diamond Bar.

Deputies responded to a report of a collision and found an unresponsive driver in the front seat of a sedan, according to Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Lt. Mario Avola. In addition to the light poles, he said the car also struck a hydrant, which damaged a water line.

Avola said firefighters removed the man from the car and took him to Pomona Valley Hospital Medical Center. The man's injuries included a skull fracture and a ruptured diaphragm.

Autism Mom: Happy New Year!

BY MELODY KRAEMER

Here we are in a New Year, a new chapter. We have hit the teenage years in our household. Not only do we have the typical hormonal changes of a teenage boy, but we also have autism mixed in with that.

Will we survive? Most likely, we will, though it will take a lot of prayer and patience.

The days have not been carefree and they have been quite long.

As I look back on the year, that saying comes to mind, "The days are long but the years are short." Nothing could be further from the truth

As a reminder to myself, I need to cherish each moment (the good and bad), and love each day (though it may not always be easy).

Never put off tomorrow what you can do today. Because before you know it, you will blink, look up and your child will be 30 years old living on his own.

I know because I also have a 30-year-old living on his own.

I thank God that I am blessed to love, to hold, to laugh, talk with my little ones now before they get older and move on. I remember the moments they were up all night and thought to myself, will I ever get through this? I did and now I look back erage bird lays one egg about every 26 hours, that equals a lot of chickens at the Voortman ranch!

Did you know that you can tell how fresh an egg is by how high the yolk stands up in the frying pan after you crack it? Voortman's will have your over-easies standing tall. Their fresh eggs are the highest in quality, with dark, nutrient-dense yolks. You will immediately notice a difference in your cooking and baking.

Have you ever wondered how long the eggs in the grocery stores have actually been sitting around? Despite the use-by date, there is really no way to know how long ago they were produced. With Voortman's, the eggs are selected daily, on site, and readied for you in their store.

Third-generation egg rancher, Eddie Voortman, says, "We are a local, family-owned business that provides fresh, quality products to the public."

Customers of Voortman's rave about their all natural, cage free eggs, touting the freshness, and great pricing. One customer said, "They make the fluffiest scrambled eggs!"

The eggs come in all sizes and colors, depending on your needs. Whatever you choose, you will not be disappointed.

Voortman's is centrally located just minutes from Chino at 13960 Grove Avenue in Ontario (just north of Edison). You can reach Voortman's at (909) 465-1319; and Like them on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Voortmans-Egg-Ranch>.

Diamond Bar Bank Robbed

STAFF REPORTS

A Diamond Bar bank was robbed Saturday morning with the gunman leaving with only $1,000 cash.

Chase bank, on Golden Springs and Diamond Bar Boulevard, was held up when a man simulated a handgun and demanded cash, a Sheriff's sergeant said.

The bank, located at 334 S. Diamond Bar Blvd, was robbed at about 10:50 am Saturday morning when a suspect ran to a waiting vehicle. Twenty minutes after the 9-1-1 call from the bank, a grey mustang was believed to be connected to the robbery. The vehicle was seen near Mission Blvd and Huntington street. The vehicle and driver were found to not be connected to the robbery, according to Sgt. Anderson of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Walnut/Diamond Bar Station.

The suspect was described as a white man in his 50's, wearing a grey hat, grey hooded sweatshirt and sported a reddish beard and mustache, Anderson said.

its employees within six months of being hired, and every two years after that.

SB 83: Paid family leave

New parents will have more time to care for their child. Benefits under Paid Family Leave will increase from six weeks to eight weeks starting on July 1, 2020.

HOUSING

AB 1482: Rent control

Communities without their own rent control laws will now be covered by statewide rent control protections. The law limits rent increases to 5 percent each year plus inflation, but never above 10 percent total. The law does not apply to housing built in the 15 years prior. The limit is a rolling number so the date housing is excluded changes every year.

AB 652: Religious displays

You have more protections to display religious items like menorahs or crosses outside your home. The law prohibits landlords and homeowner associations from banning the display of religious items on entry doors or door frames. The items cannot be larger than 26 by 12 inches.

SB 222: Housing discrimination

This law expands existing law to protect veterans and military personnel against housing discrimination.

PRIVACY

AB 375: Online privacy

Want to know what information companies like Facebook or Google are collecting about you. The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) gives internet users more control over their data. Among other things, the law gives users the right to know what data is collected, the right to reject the sale of your information and the right to delete your data.

MARRIAGE

SB 30: Domestic partners

What's good for same-sex couples is good for heterosexual couples. This law allows heterosexual couples to register as domestic partners instead of getting married. Currently, only heterosexual couples age 62 or older were allowed to register as domestic partners because of social security benefits. The new law could help couples with combined higher incomes avoid the federal marriage tax penalty.

EDUCATION

SB 419: School suspensions

Students in elementary school can't be so easily suspended for causing trouble at school. The law bans schools from suspending students in grades 4-8 for disrupting school activities or defying teachers and administrators. Students in grades K-3 already have this protection. High school students must wait until 2025 for the same benefit.

HEALTHCARE

SB 104: Healthcare for undocumented immigrants

California becomes the first state in the nation to offer government-subsidized health benefits to young adults living in the country illegally. The law expands the Medicaid program to include low-income adults age 25 or younger regardless of their immigration status.

AB 2119: Transgender youth

Transgender youth in the foster care system will get appropriate health care. The law is the first in the country to include access to gender-affirming medical services, mental health counseling, hormone therapy and surgery.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

SB 273: Statute of limitations

Extends statute of limitations for domestic violence felonies from three to five years.

SB 439: Juvenile hall

This law changes the age that a minor can be sent to juvenile hall. Minors under 12 who commit non-violent crimes would be released to his or her parent or legal guardian instead of being sent to juvenile hall. The law does not apply to minors who commit murder, rape, or great bodily harm.

SB 970: Human trafficking

Operators of motels and hotels in California must provide training to teach its staff how to identify victims of human trafficking.

ANIMALS

SB 1249: Animal testing

Prohibits the sale of cosmetic products with ingredients that were tested on animals after January 1, 2020. The law does not affect products sold globally where animal testing is required by law.

AB 1762: Dog areas

The California Department of Parks and Recreation has until July 1, 2020 to establish a comprehensive list of state parks that allow dogs, including the specific areas that allow dogs and the total miles of trails that are open to dogs.

WILDFIRES

SB 167: Public safety power shutoffs

Requires utilities like PG&E to devise plans on reducing the negative impact of planned power shutoffs to first responders and people with disabilities.

AB 247: Tree trimming

Gives the California Public Utilities Commission more oversight over tree trimming efforts by utilities. Power companies would have to submit timely reports on their brush and tree trimming work.

SB 209: Wildfire warning center

Establishes a wildfire warning center to broaden the state's ability to predict and prepare for wildfire. The center would rely on a statewide network of automated weather stations and fire detection cameras.

TECHNOLOGY

AB 1707: Smartphones in polling places

Voters may use handheld electronic devices to help them cast their ballots at polling places, as long as they don't violate other election laws.

A Lifetime of Wellness

NANCY STOOPS

We all desire to be well, mind, body and spirit. It takes daily work to accomplish such a feat. We think about our minds and how busy they are and how do we quiet them and get rid of all of that noise. My answer is daily meditation. I think really learning how to meditate is one of the hardest things to learn. I recently launched a new wellness website at NancyStoopsMFT.ORG that offers a series of six guided meditations. It even includes a way to go through each part of your body and clean out what shouldn't be there. Once you subscribe you will also receive a daily wellness message.

Wellness is not something that happens over night it literally is a permanent lifestyle change. Yes, it does include daily meditation. It also includes listening and paying attention to our bodies. Exercise is such a necessary part of wellness. We must keep our bodies moving for them to feel good. We must also take a look at what we are putting in them. Good nutrition is essential for a body that is expected to run well. Because most foods are processed and lose nutritional value vitamins and supplements are essential. Water is a must to cleanse our bodies.

We must also take a look at what we want spiritually. I believe our relationship with our creator is sacred. I think it is unique and special for each individual. I also believe that it is another key to a lifetime of wellness. So, make today the day you begin your journey down the road to wellness. Take my hand and let's walk this road together and subscribe today at NancyStoopsMFT.ORG and let me help you grow into who you are intended to be!
