COVID-19 Updates for Eastvale

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale - The City of Eastvale has provided several updates over the last few weeks related to COVID.

The biggest change is that Eastvale restaurants are now open with COVID compliant exterior dining. Visit Eastvale-Gateway.com for more information. Also, both Cedar Creek and Dairyland Park splash pads are now open daily from 9:30am to 5:30pm.

In addition, there have been several mask giveaway days at Eastvale City Hall over the last month. The County of Riverside initiated a "Masks are Medicine" campaign, which encourages all residents and visitors to "join the fight against COVID-19 by pledging to avoid social gatherings and to wear a face cover whenever leaving the home," stated the City. The County generously donated masks to the City so that they could provide them to resi-

Riverside County has also partnered with Inland Empire nonprofit, Reach Out, to launch two new programs to help slow the spread of coronavirus through art. For the full news release, visit: <https://bit.ly/3hX-kV3s>

On Sept. 15, it was announced that Riverside County residents whose employment was affected by the COVID-19 pandemic may receive up to $800 in assistance thanks to a state grant received by the Riverside County Workforce Development Division. The funding is available to "help provide supportive services for jobseekers enrolled in the agency's various workforce assistance programs." On Sept. 11, Corona-Norco Unified School District (CNUSD) announced that the school Board plans to bring back small groups of traditional/remote students (not to exceed 16) to all campuses for intervention and support within the parameters outlined by the CA Department of Public Health.

"These small groups will focus on assessments, interventions, and support to our students with disabilities (Special Education), Foster, Homeless, English Learners, and Socio-economically Disadvantaged (Expanded Learning) students," stated Dr. Lin.

"The implementation for small group return is aimed to begin with a pilot phase on September 28th followed by a Phase One implementation on October 5th. The program will go to the Board for approval next Tuesday, Sept. 15th. More information will come in the following weeks with further details of these programs."

Additionally, the Board voted to approve a Resolution to transition to an in-person instructional model, which may include a hybrid format. Necessary equipment and PPE have been purchased to ensure proper sanitation of classrooms and school sites. Physical barriers, mass temperature scanners, and upgraded filtration systems in CNUSD's HVAC systems have been installed at all sites.

Pastor's Corner: Wrestling?

DENNIS MORALES

"O LORD, how long shall I cry, And You will not hear?" Habakkuk 1:1

Pandemic, panic, division, and the question, "How much longer, Lord?" At some point, some of us have wondered, "Where is God?"; We may even have thought that it seems like evil is winning and God is silent. Habakkuk shows us that we have a choice as to how we respond to the difficulties in our life. It's obvious by the language of Habakkuk at the onset, that he begins to wrestle with God in prayer (Habakkuk's name actually means wrestle). Have you ever felt like your prayers are like wrestling prayers? Habakkuk was troubled by the moral and spiritual decline of the world around him and he wanted answers. God answers Habakkuk, but it's probably not the answer he is looking for. God says, "I'm working, but if I told you how, you wouldn't believe it" (Hab1:5). God said He would use the wicked Chaldeans to judge Judah. God's response troubled him even more because it meant things would get worse. Habakkuk didn't understand God's response, but he says later "the just shall live by faith" (Hab 2:4). Habakkuk would learn that understanding how God works is not his job, trusting Him is. If God told you everything He is doing and how He would do it, would you be able to understand it? Would you accept it? Scripture says God doesn't think like us (Isaiah dining customers. Yoshiharu Ramen was featured as "Best Ramen in OC" by OC Weekly and No.1 Ramen in O.C. by Orange County Register, according to the City. "They offer authentic Japanese ramen that is Hokkaido, Japan region style, rice bowls and appetizers in a family friendly and modern setting."

On Sept. 11, the City announced that 99 Ranch Market and Cravings Food Hall is coming to Eastvale. This grocery store and food hall will be located at the Station in the Goodman Commerce Center, on Cantu-Galleano Ranch Road and Hamner Avenue.

"With over 50 locations nationwide, 99 Ranch Market, the leading Asian grocery store chain, is known for its unique Asian grocery selections, popular snacks, authentic sauces, and much more," stated the City. This 99 Ranch March will offer a wide range of produce, meats, live seafood, and a full-service bakery and hot deli. Cravings by 99 Ranch Market will also be joining the Station. Cravings will serve an assortment of local and global foods in individual and bulk sizes. With nine vendors, the food hall presents a mélange of Asian, Mexican, and American tastes.

These new additions join the City's first Ramen restaurant, Yoshiharu Ramen Bar, and popular Taiwanese dessert concept, Meet Fresh, which is coming to the Station in Spring 2021. Chick-Fil-A is also joining these restaurants at The Station and is currently under construction.

On Sept. 9 at the City Council Meeting, the City introduced their new Planning Technician Melissa Manzo. Welcome Melissa!

On Aug. 29, JCSD Parks and Recreation Department announced that Friday Flicks and Food Trucks will begin on Sept. 18th at Eastvale Community Park. Gates open at 6 p.m. for an ultimate Drive in Movie experience. Each vehicle will be asked to pay $20 each and pre-registration is required. Register at: bit.ly/32sk4ks. Jurassic Park will be playing on Sept. 18 and Jumanji The Next Level will be playing on Sept. 25.

On Aug. 25, the City shared the groundbreaking photos of the first hotel in the City of Eastvale. This hotel is "part of the Hamner Place Development and will be a 4.5 star hotel with an amazing rooftop bar/restaurant, resort style cabana pool area, conference/event center and only vegan food option hotel in western Riverside county, amazing views over SilverLakes and the Inland Empire, and much much more," stated the City.

Pastor's Corner: The Man In The Mirror (Part Two)

MARK HOPPER

In my previous article I shared about how we need to take a look in the mirror and see what changes we need to make in our own life. The words of the song Man in the Mirror and the story of the pastor with the rebellious daughter really drive home the principle that change needs to begin with you.

Many years ago I attended a helpful seminar on leadership. I picked up some useful ideas on how to be a more effective leader of our staff and our church. One of the speakers was Ken Blanchard, he was well known for his best-selling book – The One Minute Manager. He shared an illustration that he often used with business leaders that has been very helpful to me as a husband, pastor and leader.

He said that when things are not going well, a foolish manager will look out his office window and place the blame on his workers. Why are sales and production declining? The employees must not be doing their jobs. On the other hand, when things are going well, a foolish manager will look in a mirror and congratulate himself for the great job he is doing.

Blanchard went on to say that when things are going well and sales are up and production is growing, a wise manager will look out the window and recognize the success is due to the hard work of his employees. And, when sales are down and production is declining, a wise manager will look in the mirror and ask himself – What am I doing wrong? What steps do I need to take to help our business improve?

There is a passage in the Bible where King David ignored the warning of his own advisors and demanded that his staff count the number of troops under his command. This action resulted in the death of a number of innocent people. David realized his mistake and asked God to forgive him and stop the devastation and destruction.

He accepted responsibility for his arrogant behavior (Second Samuel chapter 24).

If things aren't going well in your life or business, let me encourage you to take a good look in the mirror. Ask yourself - what changes do you need to make in your life? Accept responsibility and change what you are doing. And if things are going well in your life or business, I hope you will give the credit to God and to the people who have made it possible. They will be glad you did and you will too.

Autism Mom: Frustration

MELODY KRAEMER

Philippians 4:6-7 NIV6

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. 7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

I'm frustrated, are you frustrated? I wake up, click my heels together, and say, "I wish we had school on campus." Though nothing happens, maybe it's because I'm not wearing ruby red slippers. Does anyone know the way to "OZ?"

Distant learning is not something my kids are not getting adjusted to at home. I know it's hard for the teachers and staff as well. The principle of their school stated this is all uncharted waters, but everyone is doing their best.

Some children are probably doing wonderfully, though not the case in many families. I know how these parents feel, I am one of them. Have we looked at the impact of how it's affecting our children, on the spectrum or not?

Many children I have interviewed have expressed that they are angry, sad, bored, miss their friends, and are scared.

There are so many emotions flying around for our little ones.

We always think our children are resilient and happy in their childhood. But on the contrary, they are experiences far more than they may be showing. Kids may not be open to how they are feeling, for not wanting to disappoint mom or dad.

Kids may think they don't want to share their feelings since mom and/or dad may already be upset over this pandemic.

Some kids can't even express what they are feeling. As parents, we need to hug our children more, reassure them they are awesome, and we will get through this. It's time to remind them they will see their friends again and never give up hope. It's a time to remind them God is in control and won't leave us. We have to remember kids may not share their feelings fully, so sit down and have a heart to heart with them, if that's feasible. If not just stay as positive as you can.

Staying positive is not always easy through this pandemic. For me anyway, but I see my children and look into their eyes, and it confirms they are trusting me to protect them, love them, and stay positive. So I smile and remind them they are the absolute best, and we are in this together along with everyone else. We all need to keep praying, keep loving, and stay positive. God is good and will take care of us and we should not be anxious about anything.

Take This Time to Become Your Best Self

NANCY STOOPS

I know many of you are struggling with the Pandemic and all that goes with it. Think about how many times you wished for sometime for yourself. Well now you finally have it. Use this time that we are all needing to stay home and lower the number of cases as a way to improve yourself. Think about what it would feel like to become your best self.

Take out a piece of paper and fold it in to three sections. In the first section write all your qualities you want to keep. In the second section write all the qualities you don't want anymore. In the third section write down all of the qualities to wish you add to your already wonderful self. Now set some goals on how to start working on your plan. For example, if you are feeling depressed start exercising and keeping a mood journal. Each day write down how you are feeling and why you are feeling that way. Look for the day you feel better and create a recipe based on what you did that day to make you feel better. You can do the same thing with anxiety. Write down all of the lies that are causing you fear and then find the truth through evidence from your past. Think about all that you have already survived. Meditation can be a very effective tool as well to quiet our minds and combat anxiety.

Use this difficult time to your advantage. Take this time to work on you. I also recommend taking time to enjoy nature. Witnessing a beautiful sunrise or sunset can be a very wonderful way to adjust one's attitude and mindset. Please know I have faith that we will all come out better versions of ourselves and grow from all that we are dealing with. Please don't lose faith in yourself or this amazing world that we are so very blessed to live in!!!!

INCIDENT: Driving Under the Influence (DUI) Checkpoint Planned

INCIDENT DATE: August 28, 2020

WHERE: Undisclosed location in the city of Eastvale

The Riverside County Sheriff's Department/Jurupa Valley Station conducted a Driving Under the Influence (DUI) / Driver's License checkpoint on August 28, 2020. The checkpoint was in the 12000 Block of Limonite Avenue between the hours of 8:00 p.m. and 2:00 a.m. The checkpoint yielded the following:

- 824 cars screened.
- 24 citations for unlicensed drivers.
- 3 citations for suspended license.
- 2 driving under the influence arrests.
- 3 misdemeanors warrant arrests.
- 11 vehicles were towed.

Details:
City of Eastvale, Calif. – The

Riverside County Sheriff's Department/Jurupa Valley Station will hold a Driving Under the Influence (DUI) and Driver's License Checkpoint on Friday, August 28, 2020 from 8:00 pm to 2:00 am at an undisclosed location within the city of Eastvale.

Checkpoint locations are chosen based on a history of DUI crashes and arrests. The primary purpose of checkpoints is not to make arrests, but to promote public safety by deterring drivers from driving impaired.

During the checkpoint, deputies will look for signs that drivers are under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs. The safety of our community is and always will be our mission. Driving under the influence is dangerous and puts a further strain on critical resources.

The Riverside County Sheriff's Department reminds the public that impaired driving is not just from alcohol. Some prescription medications or over-the-counter drugs may interfere with driving.

Always follow directions for use and read warning labels about "driving" or "operating heavy machinery," which includes driving a vehicle. While medicinal and recreational marijuana are legal, driving under the influence of marijuana is illegal.

If you plan on drinking or taking medications that may impact your ability to drive safely, plan on staying at home.

Drivers charged with DUI face an average of $13,500 in fines and penalties, as well as a suspended license.

Funding for this checkpoint is provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, reminding everyone to "Report Drunk Drivers – Call 9-1-1".

INCIDENT: Assault with a Deadly Weapon

INCIDENT DATE: August 15, 2020

WHERE: 6400 block of Peri-

dot Court, in Eastvale

On Saturday, August 15, 2020, about 9:52 A.M. deputies responded to a residence in the 6400 block of Peridot Court, in the city of Eastvale, in reference to a report of an assault with a deadly weapon.

Upon arrival, deputies located a female adult who sustained multiple gunshot wounds. Deputies learned the shooting was related to a domestic disturbance. The suspect fled from the residence prior to the deputies arrival. The female victim was transported to a local hospital where she was treated for her injuries.

The Jurupa Valley Stations Investigations Bureau responded and assumed the investigation.

During the course of this investigation, multiple witness interviews were conducted, and corroborating evidence helped identified the suspect as Malik Minnix (49 of Eastvale), who was on Post Release Community Supervision (PRCS) during the time of the incident.

An arrest warrant for Minnix has been issued and the Sheriff's Department is requesting the public's help regarding the whereabouts of Malik Minnix.
