CNUSD Schools Reopen

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale - In February, it was announced that the Corona Norco Unified School district was officially in the Red Tier of the Governor's Blueprint for a Safer Economy. Therefore, in addition to reopening Elementary Schools, CNUSD now has the green light to reopen Intermediate and High Schools in a hybrid model (limited capacity) in alignment with county guidelines. The official return date was March 22nd.

CNUSD has a safety plan in place for students returning to school, including reduced capacity, thorough cleaning of classrooms, and safety precautions. They posted a video to their Facebook page with a few quick reminders for parents as they prepare for their students' first day back. In that video, they also reminded parents that every Friday is 100% remote learning.

In addition, the "hybrid model for secondary schools has been changed to allow for students to receive on-campus, in-person instruction two days a week," according to CNUSD.

Crime Recap

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale/Norco - In the last month, a few incidents took place in the City of Eastvale and the City of Norco. The incidents are listed below, courtesy of the Riverside County Sheriff's Department.

INCIDENT: Gang Member Arrested with a Firearm

INCIDENT DATE: March 6, 2021

LOCATION: 5400 block of Homecoming Circle, Eastvale

DETAILS: On March 6, 2021 at 4:32 am, Eastvale deputies responded to the 5400 block of Homecoming Circle, in the city of Eastvale, for a report of suspicious males wearing ski masks. On arrival, the males were seen in a vehicle driving northbound on Hamner Ave. Deputies attempted to stop the vehicle but it fled northbound on Hamner Ave at a high rate of speed. A vehicle pursuit ensued and the suspects began throwing guns out of the mov-

Our Life: Fear of the Light

BY MICHAEL ARMIJO

Doug was a simple guy who had worked hard to be "normal." His upbringing wasn't the best, but Doug beat the odds and found life within his spiritual realm. He found God and decided that his true place in life was with Him; he wanted to come out of the darkness and stand strong into the light.

One day Doug stood in line at the mini mart when a young woman walked in. He immediately noticed her long brown hair, her beautiful eyes, and her slightly crooked smile. She raced in, dropped a fifty-dollar bill on the floor, and she didn't notice a thing.

As he hesitated, Doug remembered his obligation to be honest. He remembered that he attends church on Sunday, and for that he just has to do what's right. But he didn't. The little voice in Doug's conscience whispered: "Pick up the money put it in your pocket."

He picked up it up, placed it in his pocket, and turned the negative into a positive by bragging about how "lucky" he was.

Soon after, he re-examined his actions and tried to justify them. He thought to himself: "God wanted me to have this money; he knew how much I needed it." And then the guilt set in. He wasn't comfortable attending church on Sunday, and began to run from his guilt by not caring anymore. Doug was now lost to guilt and temptation.

Several weeks went by and Doug's dishonesty grew. He felt content about his new place because he received things he didn't earn; he took things that he didn't deserve. His cheating the system helped him receive tangible items that he usually couldn't afford. And then one day a friend invited him back to church and Doug was faced with a very powerful decision: Do I continue my wicked ways, or do I go back to the light?

If Doug was to give up his newfound lifestyle, he would then have to change what he was taking from others. He would have to exchange his financial riches for spiritual ones. Honesty would once again have to prevail in his life. All the taking, which had grown into an unstoppable disease, would have to subside into giving. But Doug was afraid of doing what was right.

I believe that honesty doesn't just "happen," and to many, honesty has to be taught. To find a 'God'- which is a true icon of honesty- is just an uncomfortable feeling that's unfamiliar and sometimes uneasy to people.

And although life has given me unpredictable waves that have created confusion within my own life, I sometimes still believe. And sometimes, I HAVE TO believe. I believe that there's something out there, a higher power, an incredible universe that shines brighter than ever imaginable. I believe that when we smile uncontrollably, when we feel the presence of happiness, we draw from this power that fills our hearts with a specific peace. There are times when it's unexplainable, when you just can't pinpoint why. And I believe that it's at those times we truly feel the power and the benefit of this light.

And I hope for Doug, and for many others who have subsided into the darkness of life, that they overcome their fears. The fear of feeling content about love, affection, honesty, truth, intimacy, and the fear of anything that's good. Because this life we live each day really is a good one, once when we pursue the truth. When we're able to be honest and content about who we really are, where we're going, and what we believe in. These are the elements that I believe, are the true ones that keep us free from sin, free from pain, and free from being fearful. Once we overcome these fears we're able to openly feel the glorious rays that come from that wonderful place, which one day will guide our hearts and minds away from the deep, dark place that's filled with the darkness filled fear of the light.

Inland Christian Home: quality environment for Seniors

owners who profit from its operation and all the revenues received are reinvested into the operations of the facility.

As the baby boomer generation continues to age, it is important to know they have options. The aging process is not always an easy one and, at times requires the assistance of others. Inland Christian Home offers a community that assists in many ways. Its primary mission is to provide quality, affordable, individualized care to seniors in a Christian environment, making it a place you can feel right at home.

Inland Christian Home, being licensed as a Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) through the Department of Social Services, provides many different levels of care which include Independent Living, Assisted Living, Memory Care, Adult day care, Skilled Nursing and Rehab and Custodial Home care Services. The availability of different levels of care and service arrangements on the same grounds, offers seniors very unique advantages. Our philosophy is to encourage our residents to live as independently as possible at the lowest level of care. Our residents' individual needs and desires are always considered in the arrangement of these services. We want Inland to be their home, not the facility in which they live, where all are treated as individuals and they participate and are given choices in how they live.

The availability of different levels of care and service arrangements on the same grounds offers residents some very unique advantages. Residents can continue to reside at the community even though their abilities may change. Resident and their families have the comfort in knowing that their needs will be met. Inland Christian Home is a close-knit community that promotes the maintaining of social relationship residents have with other residents, friends, and family.

Inland Christian Home also provides services to those who prefer to stay in their own homes. Custodial Home Care services make it possible by providing assistance with housekeeping, cooking, shopping, meal preparation, bathing, and dressing through educated caregivers.

Inland Christian Home is here to promote aging in place, and gives seniors the ability to live at the lowest level of care even though their abilities change and their families have the comfort in knowing their needs will be met; making it a place you can feel right at home.

Inland Christian Home is located at 1950 S. Mountain Ave. in Ontario. To learn more about their facility or to schedule a tour, call (909) 467-6153 or (909) 983-0084 visit www.ichome.org.

Cancer

MARK HOPPER

I am confident that everyone who reads this article knows someone who has had cancer in the past or has cancer now. There is an endless list of cancers that are being treated today. Lung cancer, breast cancer, liver cancer, pancreatic cancer and many more.

When you get off the elevator on the second floor of the St. Jude Cancer Center in Fullerton, California you can only go in two directions. If you turn to the right you will enter the doors of the Women's Center where women go for annual checkups, mammograms and other procedures. However, if you turn left, the hallway leads to the Infusion Center where patients receive chemotherapy to treat their cancer.

Cancer became part of our family in 2006 when my wife was diagnosed with breast cancer. We knew other people who had cancer but now it had entered our lives. We entered a new world with a new vocabulary of words and terms unfamiliar to us. We met doctors, nurses and staff who assured us that we were not alone. Many other patients had successfully gone through cancer treatment and survived.

The months following her diagnosis included surgery, reconstruction, and chemotherapy. She took a leave of absence from her teaching job. She lost her hair and experienced side effects from the chemotherapy.

Shortly after my wife's diagnosis a friend gave me a book that helped me better understand this journey. The Breast Cancer Husband by Marc Silver is about his wife's journey. He included interviews with doctors, patients and spouses. It was extremely helpful starting with the size and stage of the cancer to treatment options and much more. I encourage every couple dealing with Breast Cancer to buy this book.

In the following years there have been many ups and downs. The cancer returned in 2011 requiring more surgery and chemotherapy plus radiation. In 2016 the breast cancer metastasized to other organs including her bones and adrenal gland. Cancer activity increased again in 2020. Her doctor used newly developed medicines and treatments that did not exist when her journey began fifteen years ago. Jeanne has led a support group in our home for many years to encourage men and women dealing with various types of cancer. Let me encourage you to get help if cancer enters your home. Find a support group. Be willing to share your story with others. Pray for those who are hurting and look for ways to help them. You will be glad you did and they will too.

Read 365 more stories and articles (one for every day of the year) in the book Let Me Encourage You by Mark Hopper. You can purchase two copies for only $30 plus postage ($5). Buy one for yourself and one to give to a friend. Order your copies at markh@efreedb.org.

His Work

DENNIS MORALES

"We are His Workmanship..."
Ephesians 2:10

When Solomon began to build the Temple, he was given specific instructions by God. Scripture says that "... it was built with stone finished at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built." (1 Kings 6:7). God did not want the clanking, sanding, and chiseling of the stone to be heard at the Temple site. The stones that were used to construct the temple were prepared at a different site, then they were brought together at the site of the Temple. God used people to build the temple, but He did not want the "work of people" to be heard. God wanted to convey, as much as possible, that the temple was of God and not of man. God often works silently, though effectively in our lives. Sometimes the sounds of the world may attempt to drown out the work of God. The enemy will try to discourage you and instill fear in you. He will try to discourage you and get you to think upon false hope. Paul the Apostle writes that "we are Gods workmanship." The word in the Greek for "workmanship" is "poiema." We get our English word poem from this word. God is seeking to do His work in you. To bring you faith over your fears and to bring strength from struggle. God is doing the work. We can clean up our appearance, but the real work is done on the inside. God goes right to the heart of the problem, which is the heart. A poet or artist would seek to express themselves through their work of art. God, being the ultimate Artist and Creator, seeks to express Himself through you. Give the Lord your trust and have faith the He is working silently and effectively in you.

Autism Mom

MELODY KRAEMER

Being a mom of two autistic boys is more challenging than I want to admit. There are days when I say I got this, and then there are days when life brings me to my knees, hands folded tightly, head bowed, asking for God's help and telling Him I can't do this anymore.

The daily struggles of raising an autistic child can take a toll on the spirit of the soul.

The easiest of tasks we take for granted can be the most mundane, frustrating moment in time. Simply as looking at my child and asking, where are your shoes? My child will stare back at me and repeat, where are your shoes? With no comprehension of what was just asked.

My boy will not feed himself unless he can pick up the food with his fingers. High locks are put on the door because, giving a chance, he would run out like a dog with no fence. I grow very weary and tired by the end of most days, though my heart is filled with love. My boys may be a handful daily, and I often shout out to the heavens though I am blessed to be their mommy.

My boys are a gift to me from heaven above, and God chose me to love and raise them. I may feel defeated and depleted at times, but I know God's with me every step of the way.

Galatians 6:9 ESV

And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.

Help is Here Free Counseling is Available

NANCY STOOPS

For the past twenty -five years I have run a free counseling group every Monday evening from 6-8p.m. I also run free counseling groups the first and third Friday of every month from 9a.m.-11a.m. Before the pandemic I was able to run the groups in city buildings face to face and now I run them on Zoom. To get the link to each group weekly just send me an email at nancyjstoops@verizon.net and a message telling me you would like the link to join my group. We talk about everything from stress, to providing tools to help with your child's homework. You can just come to the group and tell me what you need some help with. If you are bashful you can just join and listen. I even offer a guided meditation at the end of the groups.

These are very difficult and trying times but you are not alone and support and tools are available through these free groups. We also do a lot of laughing and just have a good time. If you can't stay for the entire group that's also fine. I see so many people struggling right now and I just want to offer years of expertise in helping others resolve their problems and live better lives. We all need help from time to time so don't let your pride get in your way of joining. In a counseling group we have many opportunities to learn from each other's experiences and knowledge as well.

I invite you and your children or anybody you know that could use some support to come to the groups. You might actually find a better and healthier way to live and get things done for you and your family. I come from being a teacher so I can really help your kids as well and I have a bachelor's degree in child development. I hope you will reach out and email and remember asking for help can be a refreshing way to deal with your problems.

booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center for being a gang member in possession of a firearm, possession of an unregistered firearm, and convicted felon in possession of a firearm.

Anyone with additional information is encouraged to contact Deputy Hubbard at (951) 955-2600.

INCIDENT: Residential Burglary

INCIDENT DATE: February 27, 2021

LOCATION: 6000 Block of Mulan Street, City of Eastvale

DETAILS: On Saturday, February 27, 2021, about 2:53 P.M., deputies responded to the 6000 block of Mulan Street in the city of Eastvale in reference to a burglary in progress. Residents in the area called to report the suspect breaking into a residence through a rear window. While deputies were responding to the location the suspect, later identified as 19-year-old Henry Brice, resident of Rancho Cucamonga, was seen by residents fleeing the house in a vehicle. Witnesses were able to direct responding deputies to the vehicle as it fled, a traffic stop was conducted, and Brice was taken into custody without incident. A search of Brice's vehicle revealed a loaded pistol in the passenger compartment. Brice was arrested for residential burglary and possession of an unregistered firearm and subsequently booked into the Robert Presley Detention Center.

The city of Eastvale's Neighborhood Watch Program was instrumental in the apprehension of the suspect in this case. By immediately reporting suspicious persons and activity to law enforcement, being observant about activity occurring within neighborhoods, and being good witnesses, a suspect was apprehended and future crimes may be prevented.

Anyone with information on this case is encouraged to call Deputy John Shepherd at the Jurupa Valley Station by calling 951-955-2600.

INCIDENT: Prohibited Weapon / Manufacturing Narcotics Arrest

INCIDENT DATE: February 26, 2021

LOCATION: 5800 Block of Hamner Avenue, Eastvale

DETAILS: On February 26, 2021 at 2:41 A.M., deputies assigned to the city of Eastvale conducted a pro-active enforcement stop of a vehicle near the 5800 block of Hamner Avenue in the city of Eastvale. During the course of the traffic stop, deputies arrested Noah Christopher Reed (19-year-old resident of Eastvale) for possessing an illegally manufactured firearm. Further investigation at Reed's residence yielded evidence indicative of manufacturing illegal narcotics. Reed was booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center for charges related to illegal possession of a firearm and manufacturing narcotics.

Anyone with additional information is encouraged to contact Deputy Hubbard of the Jurupa Valley Station at (951) 955-2600.

INCIDENT: Marijuana Indoor Cultivation Warrants

INCIDENT DATE: February 20, 2021

LOCATION: Multiple locations throughout the city of Eastvale

DETAILS: Members of the Jurupa Valley Station's Special Enforcement Teams (SET) representing the cities of Eastvale and Jurupa Valley have been aggressively targeting illegal indoor marijuana grows throughout the cities of Eastvale and Jurupa Valley in 2021.

Deputies assigned to the SET team received complaints from residents of the city of Eastvale regarding possible illegal indoor marijuana cultivations. The Eastvale SET deputies investigated and determined that properties located in the 6640 block of Leanne St., and the 7000 block of Wells Springs St., city of Eastvale, had been converted to support illegal indoor marijuana cultivation and there was evidence that marijuana plants were being cultivated on the properties.

On February 20, 2021, at 9:00 AM, members from the Jurupa Valley station's SET team served two marijuana cultivation related search warrants on the properties located at the above addresses within the city of Eastvale. During the service of the search warrants, deputies recovered approximately 2750 marijuana plants and several pounds of processed marijuana from the locations.

Yi Bao Feng, 64-year old resident of the city of Eastvale, was arrested for illegal marijuana cultivation, maintaining and operating a drug house, possession of marijuana for sales. Subsequently, he was booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center:

Eastvale Community Enhancement and Safety, along with Southern California Edison responded to the location's and they conducted their own separate investigations into various building and safety code violations.

Anyone with further information about this incident or if you suspect drug activity in your area, please contact the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's station. The Eastvale Special Enforcement Team can be reached at 951-955-2600.

Voortman's Farm Fresh Eggs

their newly remodeled home; and their egg-processing machine can handle about 36,000 eggs per hour at its peak. If the average bird lays one egg about every 26 hours, that equals a lot of chickens at the Voortman ranch!

Did you know that you can tell how fresh an egg is by how high the yolk stands up in the frying pan after you crack it? Voortman's will have your over-easies standing tall. Their fresh eggs are the highest in quality, with dark, nutrient-dense yolks. You will immediately notice a difference in your cooking and baking.

Have you ever wondered how long the eggs in the grocery stores have actually been sitting around? Despite the use-by date, there is really no way to know how long ago they were produced. With Voortman's, the eggs are selected daily, on site, and readied for you in their store.

Third-generation egg rancher, Eddie Voortman, says, "We are a local, family-owned business that provides fresh, quality products to the public."

Customers of Voortman's rave about their all natural, cage free eggs, touting the freshness, and great pricing. One customer said, "They make the fluffiest scrambled eggs!"

The eggs come in all sizes and colors, depending on your needs. Whatever you choose, you will not be disappointed.

Voortman's is centrally located just minutes from Chino at 13960 Grove Avenue in Ontario (just north of Edison). You can reach Voortman's at (909) 465-1319; and Like them on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Voortmans-Egg-Ranch>.

Stop by any time Monday through Saturday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Eastvale 2nd safest city in Riverside County

Safest from page 1

County Sheriff's Department, Sheriff Chad Bianco, and the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station for making this ranking possible by keeping our community safe!" stated the City on their Facebook page.

The City also announced that Law Enforcement response times were down in Eastvale, compared to previous years.

"Public Safety has always and continues to be a top priority for the City Council," stated the City. "During last year's 2020-2021 fiscal year budget cycle, the City Council made an investment in our public safety staffing levels by increasing our overall personnel with the Riverside County Sheriff's Department from 16.33 to 17.33 overall personnel. Due to that investment we've now seen a decrease in overall response times in every priority type call this past year!"

The City said the decrease in numbers are encouraging but they won't stop there. "The City Council and City staff continue to evaluate our public safety staffing levels to keep Eastvale as one of the safest cities in California," stated an online news release.

Now that Measure A is in place, the City also plans to grow the city revenues and "continue to look for ways to enhance public safety and quality of life in Eastvale!"

FLUSHING

A POWERFUL TOOL TO DELIVER HIGH QUALITY WATER TO YOU

Jurupa Community Services District's flushing program keeps your water quality high and our water distribution system in tip-top shape. Flushing is an essential water system maintenance strategy that is required by the CA Department of Public Health.

FLUSHING EXPLAINED

The flushing process follows three steps:

- 1 Flushing rapidly forces water through water main pipes.
- 2 The water is quickly released from fire hydrants.
- 3 The water then flows through pipelines, into gutters and back into the groundwater system.
