New Eateries Coming Soon

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale - The City of Eastvale has announced several new eateries coming to Eastvale!

On April 3, the City announced that Plant Power is expected to arrive in Eastvale this coming Fall/Winter 2021. Plant Power is opening a new location at the Hamner Place, located at the corner of Hamner Ave and Schleisman Rd.

Plant Power offers signature 100% plant based

Don't Support Panhandling in Eastvale

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale - Many have noticed an increase in panhandlers in the City of Eastvale. Community members have shared pictures of panhandlers in the shopping centers, restaurants, roadways and freeway off ramps. The panhandlers will have different signs, indicating they are homeless, out of work, or even raising money for funeral arrangements. Many residents will give willingly to those on the side of the road, while others are skeptical of the legitimacy of the signs since there have been several scammers in the surrounding areas.

The Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station issued a statement stating they do not encourage panhandling in Eastvale. The statement said the increase in panhandlers is "partially due to the great support that they receive from our wonderful citizens." However, sheriff officials state that giving money to panhandlers can cause several issues such as:

- Disorderly conduct issues and H&S safety concerns
- Harassment and intimidation
- Drug and alcohol abuse
- Distracted drivers / accidents
- Increase in trash / debris
- Business loss

The station's Problem Oriented Policing Teams have made a difference in reducing panhandling, but the community's help is still needed. If you encounter a panhandler that is

Road Enhancements Off Citrus/Harrison

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale - The road off Citrus Street and Harrison Avenue will have a few upgrades soon. At the last City Council Meeting on March 24, the City Council approved roadway safety enhancements at the Citrus Street and Harrison Avenue intersection and along the Citrus Street corridor. "The work will enhance existing traffic signage, lane striping, and lane/intersection visibility," stated the City.

"The overall goal of the work is to encourage safe driving practices along Citrus Street and enhance the visibility and signage at the Citrus Street and Harrison Avenue intersection," stated the City.

All traffic signage and striping enhancements at the Citrus and Harrison intersection will be implemented through ongoing maintenance, according to the City. However, the striping enhancements along Citrus Avenue will be completed during the annual asphalt overlay Capital Improvement Project anticipated in Summer 2021.

The City posted several pictures of how the streets will look after the enhancements. Many residents expressed their

Crime Recap

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale/Norco - In the last month, a few incidents took place in the City of Eastvale and the City of Norco. The incidents are listed below, courtesy of the Riverside County Sheriff's Department.

INCIDENT: Assault with a Deadly Weapon

INCIDENT DATE: April 3, 2021

LOCATION: handler Street x Hall Avenue, Eastvale

DETAILS: On Saturday, April 3, 2021, at 8:45 PM, deputies from the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station responded to the area of Chandler Street crossing Hall Avenue, in the City of Eastvale, regarding a shooting investigation. The investigation revealed that an unknown suspect fired several handgun rounds at a passing vehicle from a dark color van as they approached the intersection of Chandler Street crossing Hellman Avenue. The hand-

Tint Your Windows At Mr. Tint

STAFF REPORTS

Norco - Car window tinting is one of the best ways to improve the look and comfort of your vehicle. You can protect the interior of the vehicle from sun damage by tinting the windows. Sunlight and heat can cause your interior, like seats and the dashboard, to fade, crack and deteriorate. Window tinting reduces the sunlight allowed into the vehicle, which in turn reduces how hot it gets inside your car. Likewise, homes and offices heat up during the day, and trying to keep

Our Life: Proud of Myself

BY MICHAEL ARMIJO

I remember closing my eyes, trying my hardest to embrace the way I felt. I wanted to burn into my memory the tremendous feeling of enchantment that overwhelmed me. The way I felt that evening, I wanted it to last a lifetime.

It wasn't just dinner and cocktails with some co-workers. It wasn't just the significant evening for someone special, a celebration of achievement. The evening meant more to me than it did to the person being honored. It was an evening that I was proud to be included, a time that I had the opportunity to feel how important it was to be where I was that evening. A time to be proud of myself.

I memorized the slow, soft song; my wife in my arms, slowly moved along the shiny, wooden, dance floor. I remembered glancing through the enormous window, gazing over the breathless view of the city; it was a clear day and the hilltop gave us the view of a lifetime. I remember peeking around the room, sharing the moment with people whom I respected, I admired, I felt very proud of being associated with. And I will never forget the feeling I had; the feeling of pride to be able to be in a room with such igniting people; to be in a room with people I had tremendous respect for.

When I tried to remember the last time I felt this way, it took me back to 7th grade. I remember failing all my classes and my teacher, Yvonne Contreras, took my hand and led me to a place inside myself; the place filled with pride. She told me that I do deserve to be number one; that I do deserve to be the best and to feel proud of myself. And I did find that path because I ended up "Student of the Year." Straight A's and on the honor roll. Unfortunately, that feeling was taken from me. Abuse and neglect took those happy moments from my life to the dungeons of sadness and pain.

But these last several years I've worked hard, unconditionally, trying to make a difference in the lives around me. Just as Miss Contreras did, I've tried to take people by the hand and to lead them to that path inside. I've endured the sacrifice of helping others, encouraging people and trying to live the life of the achiever; trying to show people that it can be done.

You see, this meant so much for me because of where I've been and who I was; this meant so much to me because I've always dreamt of feeling the satisfaction of truly contributing to life. Contributing without condition, without ulterior motives. To truly give from my heart and reap the rewards of my success. I've waited for the day that told me my accomplishments were worthy of my intentions.

And that evening, an evening I will forever hold dear to my heart, I stood there with peers of mine whom I respected. I stood there by a breathtaking view with the woman I've loved for over 20 years. I stood there proud of what I've done and why I've done it. I stood there, with a tear in my eye, knowing that I could, and have, made a difference in the lives around me. And just as I felt when I won that 7th grade award of "Student of the Year," I had finally earned a feeling that no one could ever take from me. I found the path to that place where no one could ever touch me. I earned the right to experience the fulfillment of what I've done with my life – to actually feel that ever so radiant emotion of truly, and unconditionally, feeling proud of myself.

Cancer (Part 2)

MARK HOPPER

I mentioned in an earlier article that I was given a book that was very helpful to me when my wife began her journey with breast cancer. Breast Cancer Husband, by Marc Silver addressed many subjects that most men and women know very little about. There are many medical terms and treatments that are unfamiliar to most people. This book really helped equip me and my wife to better understand some of the challenges that were ahead.

Marc Silver not only addressed the medical side of cancer but he also provided helpful information about the emotional and physical side of cancer. He shared lessons and insights that he and his wife learned along the way. For example, he shared about the fatigue and other side-effects that come with cancer treatments. Chemotherapy and radiation can take a toll on your wife and reduce the amount of energy she used to have. He learned that he needed to be more helpful around the house and help more with cooking and cleaning.

He also addressed how life will change because of cancer. Things that used to seem so important in the past don't seem so urgent now. He shared that you will spend your time and money differently. I have always been known as pretty conservative when it came to spending money. But cancer changed my perspective. I think I am more willing to spend money and enjoy things now than I did before cancer. Every day is a gift and we plan and spend differently than we did before.

Another thing you learn about cancer is that you are not alone. There are thousands of families and individuals that have cancer in their homes. The waiting room at the doctor's office is filled with patients. You will see adults of all ages in the hallways of the medical center. It is a quiet, resilient company of people who have a life threatening disease in common.

There is a verse in the Bible that says, "God comforts us in our distress so that we may comfort others too" (Second Corinthians 1:4). Pastor Rick Warren says - God never wastes a hurt and your area of ministry will probably be in the area of your greatest hurt. Let me encourage you to look for ways to comfort others who are on a cancer journey. Don't go through cancer alone. Find a church and support group near you. Read a book like the Breast Cancer Husband. Open your Bible and read some of the Psalms too. You will be glad you did and I will too!

Read 365 more stories and articles (one for every day of the year) in the book Let Me En- courage You by Mark Hopper. You can purchase two copies for only $30 plus postage ($5). Buy one for yourself and one to give to a friend. Order your copies at markh@efreedb.org.

Giant Faith

DENNIS MORALES

"Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him."
1 Samuel 17:32

David was a very young man and had just been anointed king of Israel. God considered David, with all his flaws, a "man after God's heart." What made him a man after God's heart? It was his faith. Scripture says that "without faith, it's impossible to please God" (Hebrews 11:6). Faith is a big part of what we are as Christians. We are first of all saved by faith, then we called to "walk by faith" (2 Corinthians 5:7). There will be obstacles to faith throughout our journey of life on this Earth. David is just anointed king, not having obtained the throne yet, but already facing a giant in route to the throne. God is in the business of building us up for a greater work. Part of building us up is allowing us to be placed in situations where our faith must be exercised. Where can you get this faith? You draw faith from God's word (Romans 10:17), then applying it to life.

Where do you put your faith today? When challenged, it will be a good indication. Goliath was a gigantic 9 feet and 6 inches of solid muscle with armor from head to toe. Goliath mocked the Israelites all day long and they were scared. David comes on the scene and says "Why isn't anyone fighting him? He's mocking God!" David knew God was able to defeat this giant. So, a young shepherd boy, never battle tested, makes the move to battle the giant. Is there a giant of a problem in your life today? Do you find yourself gripped with fear? David knew nothing was too big for his God. He takes five smooth stones (he only needed one, but Goliath had four brothers), then wields a slingshot. Armed with faith and a sling, David is victorious. God guided the stone that killed the giant. What are you up against today that God cannot handle? It's been said, "one, with God, is the majority." "If God is for you who can be against you" (Romans 8:31). Trust Him today. Jesus said even a little faith is big enough to move a mountain (Matthew 17:20).

Due to school closures, Calvary Chapel Eastvale is temporarily meeting in a "Drive In format" at American Heroes park and also on Facebook Live at 8:30am and 10:30am. All mid-week services can be viewed on Facebook Live at 7pm. Download our online bulletin to stay current at calvaryeastvale.org.

Autism Mom

MELODY KRAEMER

April is Autism Awareness Month. But if you ask me, every month/every day should be Autism Awareness.

We need to spread awareness and acceptance of Autism. The more people that know fully about it and teach their child about Autism, the more it can be accepted and recognized.

As a mom of two autistic boys, I worry about my boys. They are little now, but what happens when they are grown up. It's already enough that kids stare when my boy flaps and jumps around; what is even worse when other parents act as if my child has a contagious disease. Or make comments such as, "What is wrong with him?" "Will he outgrow this stage?" "You should disciple him more?" "How did he get Autism?" "My brother's wife, sister's child has Autism, so I know all about it? and more. I have heard it all.

Some people are kind and loving towards my boys. Others have no clue about Autism and hide their child from them. My heart breaks when that happens. I have heard people are scared of the unknown, so let's make awareness and acceptance of the autism world more prominent.

The more educated society is, the easier it will be. There is so much ground to cover, and though awareness of Autism has come a long way, it has a long way to go.

Next time you see my boy, or an autistic child, wearing headphones, flapping, and/or dancing, he's not there to hurt anyone; he's in his world. Be kind always. Sometimes the signs aren't so obvious, such as with my oldest. The last thing you ever want to say at this point is "He doesn't look like he has autism."

Autism (ASD autism spectrum disorder) doesn't have a look and affects 1 in 54 children.

Many websites have resources to learn more about ASD (ASD autism spectrum disorder). Spread the word, spread awareness.

Colossians 3:12 NIV: Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

Right now, I am doing a fundraiser/walk this month with the Autism Society Inland Empire. Join our team, or if you feel inclined to donate, that would be wonderful <https://bit.ly/3s-V6DGj>

Find your Way to Permanent Mental Health

NANCY STOOPS

May is mental health month and a great time to improve ourselves. I would like to tell you about some upcoming events. The city of Walnut will be hosting two very important events. The first one is on Saturday May 1st from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and is a mental health drive-thru event. Each car will receive a bag filled with lots of handouts and resources. I will be there wearing my mask and talking to people in each car about my free support groups and addressing any concerns and questions. I would also like to say that I'm fully vaccinated and had no side effects at all and highly recommend getting vaccinated! The second event will be on Saturday May 22nd from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and take place at the Walnut Teen Center as well. I will offer a guided meditation in the gymnasium and a sage ceremony outside. Sage is believed to eliminate all negative energy. After all we have survived, I highly recommend both! Limited spaces will be available for these exciting events. Registration begins on April 5 at 9 a.m., so make sure you get your space A.S.A.P. To register and to obtain additional information call (909)444-7959.

I also run groups every Monday evening from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and the 1st and 3rd Friday of every month from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and believe it or not they are free and on zoom. To obtain your link for any group email me at nancyjstoops@verizon.net. I also lead guided meditations as part of these groups. These groups are a great way to come and gain some tools and support as you work through these difficult times. These groups can help children, teens, adults, parents and seniors. Remember you are not the only one struggling and that asking for help is a refreshing way to deal with your problems. I hope to see you at these events and on zoom at my groups and remind you that you are not alone!!!!!!

INCIDENT: Marijuana Cultivation Warrant

INCIDENT DATE: March 30, 2021

LOCATION: 14000 block of Sleepy Creek Dr., Eastvale

DETAILS: Members of the Jurupa Valley Station's Special Enforcement Teams (SET) representing the cities of Eastvale and Jurupa Valley have been aggressively targeting illegal indoor marijuana grows throughout the cities of Eastvale and Jurupa Valley in 2021.

Deputies assigned to the SET received complaints from residents of the City of Eastvale regarding a possible illegal indoor marijuana cultivation taking place out of a residence in the 14000 block of Sleepy Creek Dr. in Eastvale. The SET deputies investigated and determined there was probable cause to author a search warrant for the residence.

On March 30, 2021, at 12:30 PM, members from the Juru-pa Valley station's SET team served a cultivation related search warrant at the property located at the above address within the City of Eastvale. During the service of the search warrant, deputies recovered approximately 700 marijuana plants and several pounds of processed marijuana from the location.

Yi Ying Chen, 48-year old resident of the City of Eastvale, was arrested for illegal marijuana cultivation, maintaining and operating a drug house, possession of marijuana for sales. Subsequently, he was booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center:

Eastvale Community Enhancement and Safety, along with Southern California Edison responded to the location and they conducted their own separate investigations into various building and safety code violations.

The Jurupa Valley Station continuously strives to ensure the citizens of Jurupa Valley, Eastvale and the unincorporated areas, live comfortably and their quality of life is unimpeded. As a reminder, "Community Policing" involves partnerships between law enforcement and community members. Business owners and residents are encouraged to report criminal activity directly to law enforcement by calling Sheriff's Dispatch at (951) 776-1099, or by calling 911 if the matter is an emergency.

Anyone with further information about this incident or if you suspect drug activity in your area, please contact the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's station. The Jurupa Valley or Eastvale Special Enforcement Teams can be reached at 951-955-2600.

INCIDENT: Identity Theft Arrests

INCIDENT DATE: March 15, 2021

LOCATION: 3400 Block of Hamner Ave, Norco

DETAILS: On Monday, March 15, 2021, at 12:31 PM, Norco deputies responded to the report of a victim's stolen identity being used at a local hotel in the 3400 block of Hamner Ave, Norco. Upon arrival, deputies identified the three suspects as Juan Morfin (35 years of age from the city of San Bernardino), Francine

Fuerte (54 years, Transient), and Kellie Hailey (35 years, from the city of Corona) occupying two rooms rented illegally using the victim's identity.

Deputies initiated an enforcement stop of the suspect vehicle, occupied by Morfin and Hailey, after they were seen leaving the hotel. Upon contacting Morfin, deputies learned he was on parole. Hailey, the passenger, also had an active felony arrest warrant. A search of the vehicle revealed a large quantity of counterfeit credit cards, identification cards containing stolen personal information of numerous victims, and equipment used to manufacture credit cards and identification cards. Fuerte was located within the hotel room in possession of a large quantity of methamphetamine.

All three suspects were arrested and booked into the Robert Presley Detention Center for Possession of Methamphetamine for sales, Commercial Burglary, Organized Retail Theft, various Felony warrants and parole holds.

In total, deputy's recovered, 2.476 lbs./1123.2 grams of methamphetamine, $6,041 in US currency, equipment used to create counterfeit credit cards and identification cards, stolen checks, stolen mail and items containing stolen identities of others.

Anyone with information on this case is encouraged to call Deputy Kelley Howell at the Norco Sheriff's Station by calling (951) 270-5673.
