In late 2022, Eastvale SET deputies began investigating

The suspect "walked into the store and grabbed as many items as she could and left the store with approximately $1,000 worth of product without paying," stated a Riverside County Sher-

Mommy Dearest

MICHAEL ARMIJO

She stood in the doorway, her sad eyes, her frail frown. Her clothes were soiled, her heart had an obvious pain. She was a mess, and yet through her fragile simplicity, her tiny eyes expressed her childish innocence that somehow found a secret path to escape.

When you looked at her surface, you could see a meager little child in an irresponsible environment. Her physical appearance was a nauseating sight that would make the average person look away. But for some reason I knew that beneath this vision of pain, sorrow, and suffering, I'd find a warm and shining spirit with a refreshing yearn for love and acceptance.

Yet when I sat there and felt overwhelming combination of sadness, affection, and compassion, I wondered why? Why am I able to sense such feelings within my life? Why was I so sensitive to the needs of love and acceptance? Why do I seek the goodness that sits within the bad; how am I able to look at life with love and forgiveness? I believe that I now know why.....

My father pushed, pushed, and pushed again for survival. He wanted us to exist, to make it through this world until we reach the next. But my mother, she had a different agenda. She didn't demand success, she demanded compassion. She made us realize an important factor in life, a factor that stays within our hearts, fueled by love and nurtured by kindness.

You see, I feel that a father gives you tools to survive life, but a mother gives you tools to feel life. I believe that mothers around the world give us the elements of love and kindness, and they do this with their actions, not just with their words. They practice what they preach, and they preach with their practice. They don't tell us how to live, they just live.

I am thankful that I do have a mother. Mom has helped me be a kind person. Mom has assisted me in becoming a loving individual. She's taught me to see the light and enjoy its warmth. She's educated me with visions of love and care, and to duplicate those feelings with actions of my own. She has taught me by her warm hugs and her tender concern. With her protective instincts, and her forceful love. She's taught me how to hold hands and comfort my children. She's endured my mistakes and consoled me when needed. Picked me up when I've fallen and held me while I cried. There wasn't a crime in the world that would've kept her from loving me. Mom has given me so many qualities that I hold dear to my heart. With her actions, and her intent, with her love. Yes, mom has been the best, the greatest, the most wonderful, because mommy is the dearest.

After the program, the Taste of Eastvale event will take place and feature the best food in Eastvale.

Sell your casa with Gil Rivera

Commission for Sellers includes 2.5% to the Buyer's Agent and 1.5% to Rivera's office. Most Realtors negotiate a 6% commission because they have to split the fees with their brokerage. But, as Rivera is the Broker, he passes on the savings to the Seller. This will save Sellers thousands of dollars in commission fees. His team offers full service for that discounted rate including high quality flyers, professional photos, open houses (as allowable by Seller), and extended advertising coverage on the Internet and social media.

Now, more about what you're getting from Gil Rivera at SellYourCasa.com: It's important to know all aspects of your business. For Gil Rivera from SellYourCasa.com, he absolutely knows every aspect of buying and selling a home. He is a reliable, experienced, and an affordable Realtor, Broker, and Certified Appraiser.

Rivera sells houses, condos, and two to four unit investment properties in Riverside, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, and Orange counties. He just recently sold another home in Eastvale last month. He also does real estate appraisals for banks, estates, trusts, divorces, attorneys, refinances, home purchases, and probate/inheritance for tax purposes. In addition, Rivera has assistants that work with him who are fluent in Spanish and Chinese, helping to reach people of different dialects all over Southern California.

Rivera's philosophy is to "treat my clients the way I want to be treated." In fact, Rivera said that he became a Realtor because he did not like the way his Realtor treated him when he was buying his home. Rivera shows respect for his clients at all times. He listens to what they say, so that he can better serve them.

Rivera also does not push his Buyers into a sale. Rivera said, "I always tell Buyers: 'You will know right away when we walk into the house that's meant for you'. Whether it takes a week or months, my Buyers will always be satisfied with their purchase and never pressured into it."

Rivera's current promotion is, "We will SELL your house in four weeks at highest value! We only request a listing period of four weeks, while most other Realtors ask for a six month listing." Rivera says that "Buyers need to know that they do not need to pay their Realtor any fees for representing them on a purchase. The Buyer's agent is paid by the Seller, not the Buyer.

Check out Rivera's website at <http://www.SellYourCasa.com> to see how many different cities Rivera has sold in and for additional information about his company. You can also call the toll free number at (877) 888-SOLD (7653), or cell phone number (909) 967-4525. audience-participation content, giving you plenty to do and opportunities to learn about 1450-1600 A.D. history. The festival will have live performers, interactive demonstrations and games, music, German-inspired food, shopping of unique handmade items, and much more!

This festival has been around for 25 years, with the first festival taking place in 1998. "Entertaining families and friends for such a long time is a true privilege and a testament of our fantastic vendors, entertainers, and staff," according to their website.

The Koroneburg Festival is a themed event that traditionally celebrates the artistic and cultural advancements made in Renaissance Europe. "Most festivals focus on England and Queen Elizabeth, but we do things a little differently

At this festival, you and your family will be welcomed by a community of people who are "passionate about entertaining, educating and creating amazing experiences that you can't get anywhere else." It is also not a requirement to dress in a costume, but some will dress up to join in on the fun!

The Koroneburg Renaissance Festival will be held at 14600 Baron Drive in Corona.

They will be open on the following dates:

- May 27-29: Military Appreciation Weekend – This weekend is dedicated to recognizing current and retired

Time for a Chat?

Reverend Wayne Chu

Proverb 2:6 For the Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;

I recently downloaded the latest Bing browser from Microsoft which comes equipped with GPT-4, an AI software used for chat. After I asked it a few questions, I found myself quite impressed. It was able to understand what I asked and was capable of gathering information from the internet and formulating a good answer to my questions. While I feel that it is an excellent tool for learning, I also see that we need to use it with discernment.

AI, if used properly, can increase efficiency by automation and improve decision-making process. Many expect a tremendous change to the world coming, just like the Industrial Revolution or the Information Revolution. However, many worry that it will eliminate a lot of jobs. Even more, the biggest fear of AI is related to its most powerful feature, which is machine learning, meaning it can learn and improve itself. Someone may ask, will there be a day when AI learns everything, it will become so powerful that it can control or even destroy humans?

All of these questions are difficult to answer but the concern is valid. It is urgent for the authorities and regulators to set up policies and laws to guide and limit the development of AI. We do not want AI to fall into the hands of those who would use it for their own gain without considering the impact on others.

Another immediate issue I see is that we tend to overestimate the power of AI and assign tasks to it beyond its capability. The biblical sense of wisdom (intelligence) is not just knowledge; it includes the ability to see the connection of things that seem unrelated and combines pieces of knowledge to make decisions in life. As we all know, life is filled with ambiguity and decision-making is beyond knowledge and calculation.

Eventually, the problem of AI is the problem of humans. How should we use technology and how should we not use technology? It is more pressing for us to seek the LORD as He is the One who gives us this true wisdom and all knowledge, including AI.

A Mom's Kiss

Pastor Dennis Morales

"I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also." 1 Timothy 1:5

When the great painter Benjamin West was a young boy, he decided to draw a picture of his sister. He got out bottles of ink and succeeded in making a mess. When his mother got home, she said, "What a beautiful picture," and kissed him. Later in life he said, "That kiss made me a painter."

Paul writes to his protégé, Timothy, encouraging him as a pastor and faith leader. In doing so, he acknowledges the influence of his grandmother and mother upon his faith. I love how Paul speaks of "sincere faith." The greatest and lasting influence of Timothy's mom and grandmother was their sincere faith. It wasn't forced, it wasn't showy, it was pure. Timothy saw faith through their hardships, and even through the supposed unbelief of his father. Timothy saw it was real because his mom and grandmother knew Jesus was alive and real in their lives.

If, as a mom, you are feeling underwhelmed with how you have been handling your role, or feeling as if you're not making a difference, remember your kids are being shaped by the Lord. So, keep praying for them and never give up praying. My mom never stopped praying for me, despite my fierce rebellion, and I am eternally grateful for her diligence. Moms don't underestimate your influence in this world starting with those whom God has put in your care. Your faithfulness to the Lord, strength, courage, and unconditional love all have good and eternal consequences. You have every reason to be confident because God is using you. (Your impact is greater than you may see right now). Your kiss (of sincere faith) has the potential to make soon to be men and women, men and women of great faith. So, Mama-bears assemble! (A little Marvel humor, sorry). Scripture says "her children will rise up and bless her..." (Proverbs 31).

Give Grace

Melody Kraemer

The other day I went out to pick up something, and the person didn't have it out for me. Now it wasn't just next door; it wasn't down the street. It was across town. I had packed up my kids and taken them over there, and I was not happy to find out it wasn't left out for me and the person was not home.

I was a little upset that I had wasted my time, especially since we had agreed on a pick-up time.

I drove away thinking I was not returning and how rude this person could be.

I didn't care about the item anymore. All I thought why how inconsiderate this person was.

I was halfway home when a text said, "I'm so sorry, my day has been crazy, and I just got home. It's out now; come whenever you want."

I didn't want to go back. I was upset that someone had wasted my time. I was upset that this person didn't do what we agreed on.

At that moment, I felt my heart was being cold. I told myself I'm far from perfect, I forget things, and I live in a crazy world.

What if the shoe was on the other foot? I would want understanding and grace. The word grace kept flowing through my mind.

I turned around and went back to pick it up. It was a heated blanket for my boy; his had broken.

I handed it to him, and he hugged it all the way home with a smile. He plugged it in when we got home, and I had one happy autistic boy.

All it takes at times is to calm our thoughts and give grace because, when we do, the outcome will bless us.

Psalm 103:8: The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love.

Stop and Smell the Roses

Mark Hopper

My wife and I try to go for a walk every day. Sometimes we walk through a park but most of the time we simply walk through our neighborhood. We enjoy greeting other people walking along the streets and sidewalks. We also like to see the different houses along the way and admire the lawns and landscaping.

We have noticed more and more people have removed their lawns and installed artificial grass. It looks very nice and doesn't require a lot of water or work to maintain. Other homeowners have replaced their lawns with crushed granite and desert succulent plants. These look very nice too.

However the thing that really caught our attention this spring is the number of neighbors who have roses blooming in their yards. I never really noticed how many homes had roses. There are an endless variety of roses with different colors and the blossoms which seem to be unusually large this year. Some of them are huge.

The rose bushes have dark green leaves and look very healthy. We think it may be the result of the heavy rains we had this winter. The precipitation must have enriched the soil and produced a bumper crop of beautiful roses.

One day as we were walking we saw a woman trimming back some of her bountiful rose bushes. We slowed to admire them and commented on how wonderful they looked. The woman said she appreciated our words and promptly gave us a handful of fresh cut flowers.

We carried those with us on the rest of our walk and then put them into a vase when we got home. I am looking at these beautiful flowers in our family room as I type this story. It has been amazing to see how large the blossoms have become and the colors are spectacular. We are thinking about going back and asking for more on our next walk!

There is a verse in the Bible that reminds us God created the heavens and the earth. He created an endless variety of plants, animals, sea creatures and birds for us to observe and enjoy (Genesis Chapter One). Let me encourage you to stop and smell and enjoy the roses in your neighborhood this spring. You may want to plant some at your house too. You will be glad you did and your neighbors will too.

Thefts at Eastvale businesses

iff's news release. For several months, "SET deputies tracked retail thefts and identified the unknown suspect to commit several grand thefts throughout the Inland Empire."

SET deputies later identified the suspect as Gardenia Herrera, 31-year-old resident of Perris, and arrested her on March 5, 2023. Herrera was subsequently convicted and is serving a 4-year sentence.

Eastvale SET deputies continued this investigation working with local agencies and retail loss prevention members. They discovered several suspects linked to organized retail thefts throughout the Inland Empire. One of those suspects was Veronica Damian Estrada, a 39-year-old resident of Moreno Valley. Eastvale SET deputies arrested Estrada on April 26 in Moreno Valley.

Upon arrest, deputies located

"several thousand dollars worth of stolen items in her vehicle," stated a news release. "Deputies served a search warrant at Estrada's residence and located thousands of stolen retail items estimated at $40,000 dollars in retail value. Estrada was subsequently booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center for several felony charges related to organized retail theft."
