ERHS Principal Arrested

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale – After an Eleanor Roosevelt High School (ERHS) teacher was arrested in 2023, an investigation determined the ERHS Principal allegedly didn’t follow mandated reporting laws and he was arrested in February 2024.

In April 2023, investigators with the Riverside County Sheriff’s Office, Special Victims Unit, received a report that a teacher was allegedly having inappropriate contact with students. The teacher was identified as Chad Costello, 44-year-old resident of Anaheim. Costello was hired in August 2021 as the ERHS Theater teacher but was placed on administrative leave in April 2023 when the allegations came to light. He was arrested on November 16 in the city of Anaheim and was booked into the Robert Presley Detention Center. According to Riverside County jail records, he is being charged with two felony counts of sexual battery, four misdemeanor counts of sexual battery for purposes of arousal, and four counts of misdemeanor annoying or molesting a child.

“An additional investigation was launched to determine if mandated reporting laws were followed correctly,” according to a Riverside County Sheriff’s Department (RCSD) news release. During the investigation, evidence was obtained that determined laws were not properly followed. “The investigation revealed that a school administrator, Greg Anderson, a 44-year-old resident of Eastvale, failed to report incidents to law enforcement,” according to the news release. Anderson was arrested on February 9

34 Citations Issued For Phone Violations

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale – The Riverside County Sheriff’s Department, Jurupa Valley station conducted a driving enforcement operation on January 24, 2024 and cited 34 drivers for hands-free cell phone violations.

“Despite repeated efforts to warn drivers about the hands-free cell phone law, some drivers continue to use their phones while operating a vehicle,”

Riverside Sheriff’s Office Deputy Comstock said in a news release. “Our ultimate goal is to change behaviors that help make our roads safer.”

There has been distracted driving laws in California since 2008. “Under current law, drivers are not allowed to hold their phone or other electronic device while driving,” stated the

Riverside County Sheriff’s Department (RCSD) news release. “This includes talking, texting, or using an app.”

If you use a handheld cell phone, you will be fined. However, if you violate the law a second time within 36 months of the first conviction, a point will be added to your record.

“If you have an important

phone call or need to program directions, pull over to a safe parking spot,” stated RCSD. “Before driving, either silence your phone or put it somewhere you can’t reach.”

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Sell Your Casa With Gil Rivera

STAFF REPORTS

Southern California – What does 4% opposed to 6% really mean? If you’re selling your home, you’ll pay a 6% commission to the realtors. But with Gil Rivera from SellYourCasa.com you’ll only pay 4% for the SAME AMOUNT OF WORK! So if your home sells for $500,000, at 6% you’ll fork over $30,000 for commission. With Gil Rivera you’ll only pay $20,000 for both realtors to split. That’s a savings of $10,000!!

Gil Rivera offers a 4% Total Commission for Sellers. For more information, call (877) 888.SOLD (7653), email GRiveraEmail@gmail.com, or visit SellYourCasa.com. Call today for a free market evaluation.

Prince Charming

Michael Armijo

I thought it was a war movie, or maybe a history movie; the previews were very realistic. Children played ball while the large planes flew overhead. The camera shot followed the bombs as they landed on the enormous ships. I could see the determined look in the crewman's eyes as he fired the machine guns at the planes in the sky above. It seemed like a pretty cool action movie, but I was taken by deep surprise as a love story unfolded while watching, "Pearl Harbor."

In another scene, a young woman departed from a train, and you couldn't help but notice the beautiful glow on her face. She smiled, convincingly, and carried herself as though her life was like a child's dream. The gleam in her eye, the uncontrollable smile, the happy pitch in her voice - she was most definitely in love.

As she approached a man, he stood there, handsomely, in his compelling uniform. With flowers in hand, hat in place, and his love beaming like a proud 10-year-old home run hitter, he obviously desired to be near her. He was in love; free from judgment, free from dysfunction. He stood there and confessed his love for her, and she believed him, because he meant it. He meant every syllable, every vowel, and every adjective that came out of his mouth. He loved her as no other. He loved her unconditionally.

When I saw the reflection of his heart on her face, when I saw her overcome with the power of emotion, I noticed how she felt, and then it came to me. It was obvious that she felt the way she did because he loved her, completely. He stood there in his fairytale book stance, and he proved he was, undeniably, her Prince Charming.

The look in her eyes, the love in her smile, was just captivating. It was right then that I knew he was responsible for her love, and I understood that as men, we are responsible for our partner's love. It's our responsibility to provide a strong, loving arena for the one we love, so they have no choice but to feel life is like a Hollywood movie with a storybook ending. I also realized that it's been years since I've seen that movie-like emotion in my wife's smile. And something surprising came to me: I am now Prince Charming.

I wondered what it would be like to be someone who was capable of giving their heart to someone else, unconditionally, uncontrollably. I wondered what it would take to love someone and to feel free from fear, to give it all up, opening up to possible pain.

I wanted to be like that actor. I wanted to be someone who was capable of all that emotion. But more surprisingly, I wanted that stature in life, and not for me, but for my wife. I wanted to become something that I wasn't, so that I could someday stand there like that actor did, at the train station, while my wife's heart beamed with love for me. I wanted to be free from all of life's historical pains, egos, anger, frustration, and unhappiness, so that I could be responsible for her undying love. I wanted her to have this life because deep in my heart I know she deserves it. She deserves to feel the way that young woman did at the train station. She deserves every minute of that joy.

Yes, it was just a movie. But to me, today, it's real life. Because of a simple, believable moment manufactured by Hollywood, I'm doing all I can to give my wife the love that she deserves. I'm trying my best by forgiving past pain and experiences. I'm letting go of agony that bad love once provided. I'm leaving all the insecurities and the egos in the past. I'm giving her my heart. I'm holding her hand. I'm opening her doors. I'm becoming more patient. I'm learning how to apologize more often. I'm being her friend, and I'm letting her be my friend. I call her, sometimes just to tell her "hi," or "I love you," and I have no ulterior motive. I am working so hard to earn her trust, to prove to her that I'm capable of loving. I'm learning how to love again.

And I know that a day will come when she'll smile brightly. She'll stand there, and her eyes will glisten with happiness. Her hand will clasp my own. Her hug will be trusting and convincing. She'll whisper in my ear that she loves me. And she will smile uncontrollably. Then I will know in my heart that that I've finally provided her with her fairytale, her movie-like love. And when that day comes I will be able to feel her heart from a million miles away, and I'll know that I've finally become her Prince Charming.

taught and trained RVT students at a well-respected So. Cal university. Currently, ACS has five licensed RVT's on staff supporting two full time veterinarians and helping to train the abundant veterinary assistants. Dr. Victoria Impett and Dr. Kimberly Simpson bring a collection of experience and expertise to the staff, with skills in soft tissue surgery, ultrasound and radiology and enhanced diagnostic skills. The entire staff, including service desk, boarding, grooming salon and spa, maintenance and administration have been handpicked for their work ethic and compassionate attitude towards the clients and their pets.

The building that houses ACS is unique and impressive. At over 20 thousand square feet, it contains an in-house pharmacy, a well-equipped lab with state-of-the-art diagnostic capability, new diagnostic equipment as well as ultrasound and radiology, two modernized surgical suites, seven exam rooms, a well-designed medical treatment area, a fully staffed and modern boarding facility, and ample parking. The size of the ACS hospital was designed to be an efficient working hospital and a teaching facility. The education of ACS clients is paramount as it supports a closer human-pet bond. The size of the ACS building allows for the hosting of continuing education classes for other veterinarians and RVT's; taught by experts in varying veterinary disciplines. This philosophy of giving back to the community and the profession via education has always been a key principle of the vision of ACS.

ACS has been selected by Norco Animal Services for veterinary care, L.A and Riverside County Sheriff's departments for boarding canines, various rescue organizations, and professional training programs including Platt College. Platt College's Veterinary Technology Program trains students who desire to become RVT's. The program utilizes the surgical facilities at ACS to enable surgical scrub nurse and anesthesia monitoring training for their students.

Animal Care Services offers full service veterinary care, boarding and grooming services. The staff consists of a team of professionals and individuals that are compassionate and dedicated to preserving and enriching the bond between pets and their human families. They promote education and are guided by empathy, honesty, commitment, collaboration and unwavering determination to serve the needs of patients, clients, and team. Their commitment is to continually evaluate how they are doing, with the aim of increasing client satisfaction by improving the quality of animal care through teaching, research, and the implementation of new technology.

Animal Care Services is located at 3119 Hamner Ave, Norco, CA 92860 and can be reached at (951) 371-7120. You can also visit their website at www.animalcareservices.com. View their ad on page 11 for a new client coupon.

Rivera's Sellers love the fact that he offers a discounted commission, but with full service. Rivera's offer of 4% Total Commission for Sellers includes 2.5% to the Buyer's Agent and 1.5% to Rivera's office. Most Realtors negotiate a 6% commission because they have to split the fees with their brokerage. But, as Rivera is the Broker, he passes on the savings to the Seller. This will save Sellers thousands of dollars in commission fees. His team offers full service for that discounted rate including high quality flyers, professional photos, open houses (as allowable by Seller), and extended advertising coverage on the Internet and social media.

Now, more about what you're getting from Gil Rivera at SellYourCasa.com: It's important to know all aspects of your business. For Gil Rivera from SellYourCasa.com, he absolutely knows every aspect of buying and selling a home. He is a reliable, experienced, and an affordable Realtor, Broker, and Certified Appraiser.

Rivera sells houses, condos, and two to four unit investment properties in Riverside, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, and Orange counties. He just recently sold another home in Eastvale last month. He also does real estate appraisals for banks, estates, trusts, divorces, attorneys, refinances, home purchases, and probate/inheritance for tax purposes. In addition, Rivera has assistants that work with him who are fluent in Spanish and Chinese, helping to reach people of different dialects all over Southern California.

Rivera's philosophy is to "treat my clients the way I want to be treated." In fact, Rivera said that he became a Realtor because he did not like the way his Realtor treated him when he was buying his home. Rivera shows respect for his clients at all times. He listens to what they say, so that he can better serve them.

Rivera also does not push his Buyers into a sale. Rivera said, "I always tell Buyers: 'You will know right away when we walk into the house that's meant for you'. Whether it takes a week or months, my Buyers will always be satisfied with their purchase and never pressured into it."

Rivera's current promotion is, "We will SELL your house in four weeks at highest value!"

We only request a listing period of four weeks, while most other Realtors ask for a six month listing." Rivera says that "Buyers need to know that they do not need to pay their Realtor any fees for representing them on a purchase. The Buyer's agent is paid by the Seller, not the Buyer.

Check out Rivera's website at <http://www.SellYourCasa.com> to see how many different cities Rivera has sold in and for additional information about his company. You can also call the toll free number at (877) 888-SOLD (7653), or cell phone number (909) 967-4525. He also currently has large freeway billboard signs throughout the San Gabriel Valley and Inland Empire. Call today for a free market evaluation.

Magnitude

Pastor Dennis Morales

1 John 4:9 "In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him."

No doubt we live in earthquake territory. Some people react differently to such a seismic event. I have lived in California all my life, so I barely react unless it's an earthquake of higher magnitude. I usually turn to the news a try to find out what the magnitude force of the earthquake was and where it was centered. After an earthquake, we may hear that it was a "magnitude 4.0" which is the measure of energy concluded by a Richter Scale. Magnitude is defined in mathematics as the relative size of an object. In Astronomy, magnitude is a measure of brightness and brightness differences. This got me to think upon the love of God. There is no measure for God's love. The Bible says "For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord"(Romans 8:38,39). We can conclude that no measure of life, no measure of power, no measure time, no measure of space, can outdo any measure of God's love for you. If you feel abandoned, misjudged, maligned, or if you are just feeling weighed down today, Jesus said in love to give Him your burdens and He will give you rest (Matthew 11:28). In faith, He has forgiveness and healing in His hands because His love for you is immeasurable and unending (Numbers 14:18). That's something you can feel in heart and mind. The magnitude of God's love for you is nothing less of remarkable.

Music (Part One)

Mark Hopper

It is interesting how music has such an influential role in our thoughts and emotions. Our daily lives are filled with music on the radio in our car, over the PA system at work and in our own homes. We often talk about how music is so important to teenagers but it is also enjoyed by young children and older adults too. Music is played in shopping malls and in elevators. It is heard at clothing stores, grocery stores and restaurants. Golfers now play music in their carts on the golf course. Music is heard in warehouses and tea rooms, movie theaters and the dentist office.

It is everywhere.

Recently a popular singer was performing at Sofi stadium in front of a sellout crowd for six nights in a row. The new stadium holds over 50,000 people and hosted the Super Bowl last year. I'm sure even more people were seated on parts of the playing field for the concert. Ticket prices were hundreds of dollars. Many fans paid much more to attend this event.

Music effects our mood. It can be a calming presence in a funeral home or it can stir our patriotic spirit at a baseball game. It can be a welcomed wakeup call in the morning or set a romantic mood at the end of the day.

My wife Susan introduced me to a musician named Mantovani. I do not remember hearing his music when I was growing up. But he was well known for his arrangements of many popular songs. His full orchestra played music from musicals like Sound of Music and Man of La Mancha. He also played music from some of the sound tracks from movies like Camelot and The King and I. Mantovani's music provides a relaxing atmosphere in our home. Instead of listening to the news on TV we enjoy hearing songs performed by his orchestra.

There is a passage in the Bible where King Saul struggled with depression and anger.

He was on an emotional roller coaster. One of his aides suggested they find a musician who could calm the king's heart. They found a gifted man named David who played the harp. His music soothed the King's spirit. (Read First Samuel Chapter 17).

Let me encourage you to bring some good music into your home. It can set the mood and soothe your soul. Turn off talk radio in your car and listen to some pleasant music in traffic. You will be glad you did.

Growing Up

Melody Kraemer

We all have heard the phrase, "growing up is hard to do." But what is even more challenging is watching your kids grow up. They get a little older daily, and you aren't needed in their lives as much. They reached that Preteen age where yesterday you were "mommy"; today you are "mom."

What happened to the bright-eyed kids excited to go outside and play? When did they get so big that a kiss goodbye at drop off school is a no-no? Now it's screen time, video games, and friends.? When it used to be, I'll miss you, mommy, along with the biggest hug.

Yes, watching babies grow up and move on is heartbreaking, but as a parent, we do our best to raise our children to be good humans out in the world while trying to protect them from the evil around them. All we can do is love our children unconditionally, just as Christ loves us.

As a mom of six, I have four that have flown the coop, and I am so proud of them. I take great pride in who they are. Watching them grow was hard, but letting go was the hardest. My two youngest, who is autistic, will be home for a while, though watching them grow, get bigger, and want to be independent is hard. Hug your babies, cuddle, hold them, and carry them, because one day will be the last time they will be held in your arms or on your shoulders.

And before you know it, you will be mom/dad or even Bruh. Every day I'm thankful I still get called mommy here and there.

Proverbs 22:6 NIV: Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.

Deciding To Start Therapy

Nancy Stoops

Deciding to start therapy can be a very hard decision. It's hard to admit to ourselves that we can't do it on our own and that we need some help. The truth is even though we take care of ourselves sometimes we need the help of a good doctor or an antibiotic and sometimes surgery. I have always referred to myself as an emotional surgeon. What I mean by this, is that I open you up and help you begin to deal with all of those dysfunctional feelings that are making you feel so bad and so stuck. Starting therapy takes an incredible amount of courage and is a sign of strength not weakness. Please never feel embarrassed that you feel have run out of options and that now you need some help to get through some things.

Over the years I have worked with people 2-91 years of age dealing parenting, drugs, anxiety, depression, autistic spectrum disorders, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, appropriate sexual boundaries and so many other issues. Between my groups and my private practice I have literally helped thousands of people learn how to live a happy and balanced life. I want my clients to be healthy mentally as well as physically and spiritually healthy. I think all three of these go hand in hand to maintain permanent well-being.

A good place to start is by visiting one of my groups and seeing if you like my style before you start spending your hard earned money. Keep in mind my co-therapist is a registered therapy dog named Jaida. If you are a dog lover you will have a great team on your side while you are doing some very necessary healing or just getting some tips on how to live more fully!!!
