9 Arrested At Local DUI Checkpoints

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale/Norco – Nine people were arrested at recent Driving Under the Influence (DUI)/Driver's License Checkpoints that took place in Eastvale and Norco.

The first checkpoint was on Friday, August 2, on Hamner Avenue and Third Street in Norco between 7 pm and 3 am.

The Riverside County Sheriff's Department, Norco Station, arrested two people for driving under the influence of alcohol and one person for a felony arrest. Five Field Sobriety Tests (FSTs) were conducted, 14 citations were issued for unlicensed drivers, and two vehicles were stored and impounded, out of the 551 vehicles screened.

The second checkpoint took place on Friday, August 16 on Schleisman Road and Archibald Avenue in Eastvale between 7 pm and 3 am.

The Riverside County Sheriff's Department, Jurupa Valley

Station, arrested five people for driving under the influence of alcohol and one for a miscellaneous misdemeanor. Thirty-eight Field Sobriety Tests (FSTs) were conducted, 23 citations were issued for unlicensed drivers, and six vehicles were stored or impounded out of the 1,106 vehicles screened. Seventy-four vehicles were also subjected to a secondary screening.

"DUI checkpoint locations are determined based on reported incidents of impaired driving-related crashes," according to a Riverside County Sheriff's Department news release. "The primary purpose of DUI checkpoints is to promote public safety by taking suspected impaired drivers off roads."

Both the Norco and Jurupa Valley stations remind the public that "impaired driving is not just from alcohol. Some pre-

New Cell Phone Policy At CNUSD

STAFF REPORTS

Eastvale – The Corona Norco Unified School District (CNUSD) is working on implementing a new cell phone policy, but they are asking for parent, student, and staff feedback.

The new cell phone policy is expected to "enhance the educational environment and focus during instructional time" says a CNUSD news release.

"In alignment with State Legislation AB 272 & AB 3216 (proposed) all Districts are expected to have a cell phone policy in place by July 2026," stated the news release. "Additionally, Governor Newsom has requested School Districts take action sooner than the deadline and has granted Districts the authority to regulate smart phones during school hours."

CNUSD announced that they started working on implementing this new policy under the direction of their Board of Education.

The District's hope is to "maximize student learning through elimination of distractions during instructional time. This may look different at various grade levels and at different schools." They stated that the new policy will not ban cell phones on campus, but instead will aim to limit cell phone use while on campus and during instructional time. They discussed that most phone poli-

Tint Your Windows At Mr. Tint

STAFF REPORTS

Norco - Car window tinting is one of the best ways to improve the look and comfort of your vehicle. You can protect the interior of the vehicle from sun damage by tinting the windows. Sunlight and heat can cause your interior, like seats and the dashboard, to fade, crack and deteriorate. Window tinting reduces the sunlight allowed into the vehicle, which in turn reduces how hot it gets inside your car. Likewise, homes and offices heat ed commission, but with full service. Rivera's offer of 4% Total Commission for Sellers includes 2.5% to the Buyer's Agent and 1.5% to Rivera's office. Most Realtors negotiate a 6% commission because they have to split the fees with their brokerage. But, as Rivera is the Broker, he passes on the savings to the Seller. This will save Sellers thousands of dollars in commission fees. His team offers full service for that discounted rate including high quality flyers, professional photos, open houses (as allowable by Seller), and extended advertising coverage on the Internet and social media.

Now, more about what you're getting from Gil Rivera at SellYourCasa.com: It's important to know all aspects of your business. For Gil Rivera from SellYourCasa.com, he absolutely knows every aspect of buying and selling a home. He is a reliable, experienced, and an affordable Realtor, Broker, and Certified Appraiser.

Rivera sells houses, condos, and two to four unit investment properties in Riverside, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, and Orange counties. He just recently sold another home in Eastvale last month. He also does real estate appraisals for banks, estates, trusts, divorces, attorneys, refinances, home purchases, and probate/inheritance for tax purposes. In addition, Rivera has assistants that work with him who are fluent in Spanish and Chinese, helping to reach people of different dialects all over Southern California.

Rivera's philosophy is to "treat my clients the way I want to be treated." In fact, Rivera said that he became a Realtor because he did not like the way his Realtor treated him when he was buying his home. Rivera shows respect for his clients at all times. He listens to what they say, so that he can better serve them.

Rivera also does not push his Buyers into a sale. Rivera said, "I always tell Buyers: 'You will know right away when we walk into the house that's meant for you'. Whether it takes a week or months, my Buyers will always be satisfied with their purchase and never pressured into it."

Rivera's current promotion is, "We will SELL your house in four weeks at highest value! We only request a listing period of four weeks, while most other Realtors ask for a six month listing." Rivera says that "Buyers need to know that they do not need to pay their Realtor any fees for representing them on a purchase. The Buyer's agent is paid by the Seller, not the Buyer.

Incident: Assault With a Deadly Weapon Investigation Leads to Seizure of Multiple Firearms

Date: Aug. 2, 2024

Location: Jurupa Valley

Details: On August 2, 2024, at 12:59 p.m., Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station deputies responded to the area of Pats Ranch Road and Limonite Avenue, Jurupa Valley, regarding a disturbance. During the investigation, deputies learned the suspect, 31-year-old Yorgan Rios of Jurupa Valley, pointed a firearm at the victim during a dispute. Rios then fled the area in a black SUV.

Deputies later located Rios in his vehicle and conducted a high-risk stop. Rios was detained and found to be in possession of ammunition but no firearm. A search warrant was obtained for a residence on the 11000 block of Dane Drive, Jurupa Valley, to search for the firearm used during the assault. During the service of the search warrant, 17 firearms, ammunition, and other evidence related to the assault were found and seized. Rios was arrested and booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center for assault with a deadly weapon, with bail set at $25,000.

Anyone with information on this investigation can contact Deputy Abigail Grieve of the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station at (951) 955-2600.

Incident: Fatal Traffic Collision

Date: July 31, 2024

Location: Eastvale

Details: On Wednesday, July 31, 2024, at about 9:52 p.m., deputies assigned to the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station responded to the 5300 block of Goodman Way, Eastvale, regarding a major-injury traffic collision involving a vehicle into a building. When deputies arrived, they located the driver and sole occupant of the vehicle suffering from major injuries. Deputies began rendering medical aid to the driver until the arrival of the Riverside County Fire, who took over life-saving measures. The driver ultimately succumbed to the injuries sustained during the collision and was pronounced deceased at the scene.

The Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station Traffic Collision Reconstruction Team responded to the scene and assumed the investigation. The cause of the collision is still under investigation, and it appears drugs were a factor. The driver's identity will not be released at this time, pending notification to the next of kin.

The collision investigation required the temporary closure of Goodman Way in order to process the scene and collect evidence. Anyone who witnessed the traffic collision or has any information about this incident is encouraged to call Deputy Schwartz of the Jurupa Valley Sheriff's Station at (951) 955-2600 or the Riverside County Sheriff's Office dispatch at (951) 776-1099.

Incident: Vehicle Burglary / Jugging

Date: July 23, 2024

Location: Norco

Details: On July 23, 2024, at 12:26 p.m., Norco Sheriff's Station deputies responded to a vehicle burglary near the 1100 block of Hamner Avenue in Norco. Upon their arrival, they were told the victim had withdrawn a large amount of money at a local bank and placed it inside the center console of their vehicle before going into a business.

During the investigation, deputies learned while the victim was inside the business, an unknown female followed him as an unknown male suspect walked up to the victim's vehicle, broke the door lock, and stole the victim's money from the center console. The two suspects then left the area prior to the deputy's arrival.

The mode of operation in this type of theft is commonly referred to as "Jugging."

Following investigative leads, the Norco Special Enforcement Team (SET) learned the suspect vehicle was in the Moreno Valley area. The Norco SET Team and Moreno Valley Sheriff's Station motor deputies located the vehicle and detained the suspects. Evidence of the crime, including burglary tools and clothing items matching surveillance footage, was located inside the vehicle. The suspects, 43-year-old Oscar Javier Piraquive Rubiano and 41-year-old Darly Mercedes Gutierrez Cipagauta, residents of Los Angeles County, CA, were arrested and booked at the Robert Presley Detention Center for burglary, burglary tools, and conspiracy. Their bail was set at $500,000.

This is an ongoing investigation, and no additional details are available. Anyone with information on this investigation can contact Deputy Jerad Linzey or Deputy Michael Lopez of the Norco Sheriff's Station at (951) 270-5673.

Fear of the Light

Michael Armijo

Doug was a simple guy who had worked hard to be “normal.” His upbringing wasn’t the best, but Doug beat the odds and found life within his spiritual realm. He found God and decided that his true place in life was with Him; he wanted to come out of the darkness and stand strong into the light.

One day Doug stood in line at the mini mart when a young woman walked in. He immediately noticed her long brown hair, her beautiful eyes, and her slightly crooked smile. She raced in, dropped a fifty-dollar bill on the floor, and she didn’t notice a thing.

As he hesitated, Doug remembered his obligation to be honest. He remembered that he attends church on Sunday, and for that he just has to do what’s right. But he didn’t. The little voice in Doug’s conscience whispered: “Pick up the money put it in your pocket.”

He picked up it up, placed it in his pocket, and turned the negative into a positive by bragging about how “lucky” he was.

Soon after, he re-examined his actions and tried to justify them. He thought to himself: “God wanted me to have this money; he knew how much I needed it.” And then the guilt set in. He wasn’t comfortable attending church on Sunday, and began to run from his guilt by not caring anymore. Doug was now lost to guilt and temptation.

Several weeks went by and Doug’s dishonesty grew. He felt content about his new place because he received things he didn’t earn; he took things that he didn’t deserve. His cheating the system helped him receive tangible items that he usually couldn’t afford. And then one day a friend invited him back to church and Doug was faced with a very powerful decision: Do I continue my wicked ways, or do I go back to the light?

If Doug was to give up his newfound lifestyle, he would then have to change what he was taking from others. He would have to exchange his financial riches for spiritual ones. Honesty would once again have to prevail in his life. All the taking, which had grown into an unstoppable disease, would have to subside into giving. But Doug was afraid of doing what was right.

I believe that honesty doesn’t just “happen,” and to many, honesty has to be taught. To find a ‘God’- which is a true icon of honesty- is just an uncomfortable feeling that’s unfamiliar and sometimes uneasy to people.

And although life has given me unpredictable waves that have created confusion within my own life, I sometimes still believe. And sometimes, I HAVE TO believe. I believe that there’s something out there, a higher power, an incredible universe that shines brighter than ever imaginable. I believe that when we smile uncontrollably, when we feel the presence of happiness, we draw from this power that fills our hearts with a specific peace. There are times when it’s unexplainable, when you just can’t pinpoint why. And I believe that it’s at those times we truly feel the power and the benefit of this light.

And I hope for Doug, and for many others who have subsided into the darkness of life, that they overcome their fears. The fear of feeling content about love, affection, honesty, truth, intimacy, and the fear of anything that’s good. Because this life we live each day really is a good one, once when we pursue the truth. When we’re able to be honest and content about who we really are, where we’re going, and what we believe in. These are the elements that I believe, are the true ones that keep us free from sin, free from pain, and free from being fearful. Once we overcome these fears we’re able to openly feel the glorious rays that come from that wonderful place, which one day will guide our hearts and minds away from the deep, dark place that’s filled with the darkness filled fear of the light.

cies implement a “silenced and away” model, meaning they are not allowed to have them out during a defined portion of the day. “For high school this may mean no phones out during class/instructional time, but put away in a bag, backpack or pocket,” states the CNUSD FAQ page. “For intermediate and elementary students, this may mean phones silenced and away in a backpack all day.”

CNUSD is still working to establish disciplinary guidelines if students are caught using their phone. But what they do know is that cell phones will be accessible during an emergency. Also, students on an IEP will still have access to their devices, as defined in their IEP, especially if they utilize tools on a cell phone.

CNUSD is asking parents, students, and staff to provide feedback by August 31 to help in this decision-making process. They hope to implement a District Cell Phone Policy by January 2025.

Parents and family members are encouraged to complete the survey at www.cnusd.k12.ca.us while staff and students will be provided with a survey by their school site.

Through The Fire

Pastor Dennis Morales

“When you pass through the waters, I will be with you and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the Lord your God...” Isaiah 43:2,3

The kingdom of Judah seemed to fear Babylon’s army and captivity. This verse is comforting because God encourages His people through the most difficult of circumstance and guides them. This is a reminder that He is not just with us in times of blessing, but also in difficulty. Sometimes our trials come in the way of waters, or rivers, or even fire. I’m reminded of the three friends, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, thrown into the fire because they wouldn’t bow down to an idol. They were thrown into the furnace but didn’t burn. The King who had them sentenced to death looked into the fiery furnace and quickly realized they were not alone. The Lord was with them in the fire. Imagine the conversation they had with the Lord! (Daniel 3:19-25). What is your conversation like when you realize God is in total control of your trial? When you realize that the “flame is NOT consuming you?” Where do you turn when things get difficult? Seek the one who created the waters, rivers, and fire. The One who has dominion over them. When king Hezekiah was sent a threatening letter from the enemy, he took this letter and spread it before the Lord. God told him to go to sleep. And he did! He woke up to a defeated enemy army. (2 Kings 19:35)

We are reminded to “fear not” in Scripture. In fact the Bible mentions “fear not” 365 times. That’s one “fear not” per day. Scripture tells us “Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus” (1 Thessalonians 5:18). The emphasis on “all circumstance,” great or small. Whether it be water, river, or fire, the Lord is with you. Won’t you trust Him today?

Pray for your Kids and Grandkids

Mark Hopper

University of Arizona baseball Coach Jerry Kendal shared a wonderful story at a Men’s Conference I attended in the 1980’s. When Jerry was a young boy he burst into his grandfather’s bedroom while Jerry was playing hide and seek with his siblings. He was startled to find his grandfather kneeling by his bed in prayer. When Jerry tried to apologize his grandfather told him to not worry – he said he was just praying for Jerry.

I’m sure that every parent and grandparent prays for their children and grandchildren every day. I always prayed for their health and safety. And I prayed for their faith, their friends and their future.

I prayed that they would have a vibrant personal faith in Christ. Each generation must decide for themselves if they will become followers of Jesus. Parents and grandparents can sow the seeds of faith in the next generation but each one must decide for themselves who they will follow. The Old Testament leader Joshua said he and his family chose to follow the Lord (Joshua 24:15).

Friends are a vital part of a child’s development. This is true for young children and teenagers, too. Friends have a large influence in a child’s development. Teenagers are impacted by peer pressure too. Friends also provide encouragement and reassurance during those formative teenage years. Friends can draw your children closer to God or steer them away from Him. I prayed for good friends with a common faith.

I also prayed for their future. I prayed God would help them in their studies and guide them in their choice of careers. I also prayed they would find a spouse who shared their faith and values.

Author Tim Kimmel wrote a book titled – Extreme Grandparenting. In his book he emphasized how important grandparents are in the lives of their children and grandchildren. One of the most important things they can do is to pray for their children and grandchildren. The Apostle Paul instructed older men and women to live lives that the younger generations would follow (Titus 2:2-4). I’m sure this included prayer. Let me encourage you to pray for your children and grandchildren every day. Pray for their faith, friends and future. Pray for their health and safety too. You will be glad you did and they will too.

Always Listen

Melody Kraemer

I met my husband back in high school. When he walked by, my heart did a skip, and I knew I had to meet him.

Neither one of us knew at that moment when we met each other we were soul mates. We dated through school and were known as “high school sweethearts.”

After graduation, his family moved out of state, and I went with them. Over time I got homesick and returned to Calif with him. Eventually, we went our separate ways. He married and had a family, and I married and had a family. Once in a while, our paths would cross. In hindsight, I think it was our hearts trying to find each other.

Years went by, and my marriage fell apart. Also, so did his. Our paths crossed again, and we were married shortly after that. We had been out of high school for 20 years, but the heart didn’t care; the love never faded. Looking back, we have always been soul mates, and God kept trying to put us together, but we were too blind to see.

It’s been almost 20 years since we said I do. I couldn’t be happier. Now, like any other marriage, it’s not perfect and has its up and downs. But our hearts and souls are happy.

Along these 20 years of marriage, we had two boys. They are three years apart. Both of them are on the spectrum. It’s not easy. But thankfully, I am married to my best friend, who is my rock. He’s my biggest supporter and cheerleader. I am thankful God didn’t differ from His plan for us and brought us together.

Lesson learned we need to listen to our hearts and hear God’s word. Regardless if it’s not logical, it will all work out. Who are we to question God’s plan for us?

All I can say is the heart knows what the heart wants, and God knows what He is doing, even though we may not. Being married to your soul mate is the absolute best.

Psalms 37:4-5 Delight yourself in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him, and he will act.

Summertime: A Time for Renewal

Nancy Stoops

We all work really hard creating a lifestyle that provides us comfort and allows us to purchase the things that provide us

joy. For me, as much as I love my work, I too need breaks. I usually take some time off in the winter and in the summer. I love to do some travelling as well as stay home and just float in my pool. I know when I start looking at the clock during sessions I’m due for a break. I know this means it’s time to put back into myself. I know I need some rest and relaxation.

Burn out can happen in many professions. I know I’m no good to my clients or anybody else when I feel empty. This is when I know I need to spend some time floating in my pool or travelling to a new destination. I love the warmth of summer and being able to spend some wonderful time in the water. I love being able to be on vacation and just move at a slower pace. I also know that when I take some time to relax, when I do return to work I’m a better and more effective therapist.

I think if we run on empty for too long without allowing time for renewal we can become resentful and sometimes even ill. It’s important when your body indicates it’s time for a break that you listen and honor what is being requested of you. Whatever needs to be done will be there waiting for you after you get rejuvenated.

So enjoy some down time and go out and just play for a while. Go to the beach, take an evening walk or do some travelling. Reward yourself for all of your hard work and take some time just for you to rest and relax and to just enjoy yourself. It’s the perfect season to put some back into yourself and to just go slower!!!!
